Dedication

This book is dedicated to Charles A. Nutter, my father, who began his genealogical quest in 1980, shortly before his retirement. Looking back he had a difficult life. His mother and all four of his grandparents died before he was 5 years old. His step mother died while she was fixing dinner. He and his brother Forrest spent a year and a half in an orphanage. He married and divorced as a teenager. Despite this tough beginning, he went through life with a very positive attitude. He was friendly to everyone and had a wonderful sense of humor. Music was an important part of his life and perhaps his solace.

He began this search to find out about the family he never knew. When he died in 1988, we had traced his mother's Waters line back through Abner Waters, Revolutionary War veteran from Connecticut to James Waters an ironmonger in London in the early 1600's and our Chamberlin line through New Jersey back to Henry Chamberlin of Hingham, Massachusetts. We had found Thomas Nutter's War of 1812 brief military record. We had traced his wife's family to the McMillans in New Boston, NH. Here I am 8 years later, knowing little more about Thomas of Livonia, Livingston Co., New York. In my quest and with hours, days, weeks and months of research by Fred Boyle, CG, Springvale, ME, we present to you the descendants of Hatevil Nutter. We have printed this genealogy with many unclassified Nutters. We hope to hear from others with additions, corrections and connections we were unable to find, especially Thomas' parents in New Hampshire.

There is another Nutter line, not included here, which emigrated to Virginia, moved to Maryland and Delaware and then on to West Virginia and other midwestern states. There are several genealogies available on that Nutter line.

Preface

The genealogy of Hatevil Nutter is the result of many years of continuous search. It began first with a commission by Charles A. Nutter to research the origins of his McMillan family line and later of the parentage of Thomas D. Nutter, a New Hampshire native who first settled in Livonia, NY. The McMillan search was a relatively easy assignment. The second was a somewhat endless one which was continued with the support of Charles Nutter's daughter Jan Alpert of Midlothian, VA after Charles Nutter's death. Although more has been learned about Thomas D. Nutter, especially by the efforts of Jan and her cousin Gaylord Smith, I have never been able to find the long-sought connecting link to New Hampshire. With a growing amount of New England research completed Jan eventually felt that the best use of my records was an up-dated genealogy of Hatevil Nutter, the progenitor of most New England Nutters and who, most likely, was the ancestor of Thomas D. Nutter's family. The decision was made, arbitrarily but still in an attempt at controlling the size of this volume, to limit the work to either exclusively the male line of Nutters or, at most, one generation on a daughter's line.

The basis for this Nutter genealogy already existed with the work of Louis Cox in his 1939 work entitled The Cox Families of Holderness and Partial Genealogies of the Cox, Randall, Nutter and Pickering Families. There Cox detailed eleven generations of Nutters with a heavy emphasis on the Nutters of Newington and Barnstead, NH. Cox was aided by the work of Henry W. Hardon through his Newington Families, a work based primarily on Newington baptism records. Cox was also aided by individual members of the Nutter family who supplied him with personal family records.

Even with the careful work of the above early twentieth century Nutter genealogists discrepancies were found between Cox and Hardon. Also it was apparent that neither Cox or Hardon had extended their search into the Nutters of Portsmouth, NH or those who migrated into more far-reaching areas of New Hampshire, Maine and even Massachusetts and Vermont. It was the quest for new records of these Nutters and their possible connection to Thomas D. Nutter which fired my on-going collection of Nutter family records.

There are a number of frustrations which accompany the publishing of this volume. Besides finding no linkage for Thomas D. Nutter there was the discovery of three unidentified and contemporary eighteenth century Henry Nutters. Two were in Portsmouth and a third in Sanford, Maine, my adopted town. Even though Hardon and Cox called one of the Portsmouth Henrys a son of Henry[4] of Newington no evidence of proof has been found to support the claim. Nor have I been able to offer a definitive explanation of who the three Henrys were.

There also are a number of 18th century Nutters who migrated to Maine.

Although I conjecture about their linkage to New Hampshire Nutters most still remain "unconnected" or at the best "possibles." These include Anthony and Valentine Nutter of Pownalborough (Wiscasset); Thomas, William and Alexander Nutter of Penobscot; Richard Nutter of Athens/Embden; and James Nutter of St. Albans. Through correspondence with Janet Bradford of Portland, Maine I have been able to gather some valuable family records for her ancestor, Richard Nutter of Ripley, Maine. I also had correspondence with Janet Ireland Delorey regarding her ancestor, Anthony Nutter of Wiscasset. None of this collaboration provided the kind of records needed to make an indisputable decision on their ancestors' origins.

One valuable result of my research has been the discovery of a separate clan of Nutters in New England. Evidence supports the conclusion that many so-called Nutters actually descended from a Samuel Nutt of Derryfield and later Wolfeboro, NH. His descendants began to assume the "Nutter" name by the mid-nineteenth century. For purposes of clarity these two New Hampshire-based Nutter families (that of Hatevil Nutter and that of Samuel Nutt), have been included separately in this volume. I also add at this point, that there are many Nutters to be found in America who are not descendants of Hatevil Nutter of Dover, NH. Some are the descendants of Christopher Nutter of Virginia. Others are derived from numerous other English and Irish Nutter families. The name "Nutter" was also taken by various Europeans who found the name an easier spelling of their own.

A work of this magnitude is bound to contain errors which it is hoped may eventually be corrected. Where possible primary sources have been used as citations and as the basis for creating family groups. Fortunately, there is a broad base of records for the Nutters found in town vital records as well as church, cemetery, census and military records. The search of Massachusetts vital records alone was most helpful in providing data and linkage for the Nutters from the three northern New England states who migrated to the Bay State, especially in the nineteenth century. Through the years contact was made with a number of Nutter descendants who supplied records to Jan and myself. In most recent years the popularity of the Internet and Jan's publishing of a Nutter Newsletter aided in this development. Yet, there is a great disappointment that more people were not reached. A real shortcoming of this volume is the limited inclusion of current New Hampshire Nutter families. Since the State of New Hampshire denies genealogists access to vital records after 1937 many families groupings have had to end abruptly. Where possible some later vital records were obtained from separate town reports, however. The restriction on Maine vital records extends from 1955 after which access to information on Maine Nutter family was also hampered.

There was a major discovery in recent years into the English origins of Hatevil Nutter through the research of John Plummer of Waterbury, CT. The inclusion of Hatevil (Hatill) Nutter in the will of Anthony Nutter of Woodkirke, Yorkshire, England helps to provide the male parentage of Hatevil. Unfortunately the work on Yorkshire and Lancashire Nutters was not complete when the decision was made to publish this current volume. Jan Alpert and David Nutter of Rochester, New York are jointly sponsoring the research of George Tony Foster, 142 Cotswold Crescent, Walshaw Park, Bury, Lancashire, England BL8 1QP concentrating on Lancashire and Yorkshire English records from 1550 until 1700. They hope to be able to publish the results of Foster's work in a second Nutter volume.

There is another implied understanding in the publication of this volume. With the anticipation of publishing another Nutter volume those who wish to may submit additions, corrections and new interpretations to both Jan Alpert and myself. The length alone of the "unclassified" section of this volume testifies to the extent that all is not known about the descendants of Hatevil Nutter.

Genealogy of
of Dover, New Hampshire and his descendants

FIRST GENERATION

1 HATEVIL[1], b. England ca 1603 (according to his will), son of Edmund Nutter of York Co., Englnad, d. Dover, NH before 28 June 1675 when his will, signed 28 Dec 1674, was probated (NH State Papers, XXXI:157-59); m. ANNE [AYERS] (according to Scales's Colonial Era History of Dover, NH, 1923), his widow at his death and called "my present wife" in his will although there is no indication of an earlier wife and the added declaration in his will that she was the "mother" of all three living children, Anthony, Abigail and Mary.

Recent research into English probate sources by John Plummer of Waterbury, CT has discovered the will of Anthony Nutter of Woodkirke [later called West Ashley], "Clerke and the unworthy minister of Christ" who made a bequest of "thirteene shillings ffower pence and alsoe I give vnto hatill his sonne for whome I was Witnes at his Baptisme the somme of Three pounds ouer and aboue his parte in the foresaid somme of six pounds thirteen shillings flower pence" (Vol. 42, folio 325, York Registry Probate Records, October 23, 1634). The will was signed "the Nineteenth day of January and in the yeare of the Raigne of our Soveraigne Lord Kinge Charles Annoqs dmi One Thousand six hundreth Thirty and Three."

There seems little doubt that "Hatill" above is the same Hatevil Nutter who was to settle in Dover, NH a few years after receiving his uncle's bequest and for whom he evidently named his first son. Most interesting also, and of possible important historical value in retracing Hatevil's movement to New England, is the inclusion in Anthony Nutter's will of a bequest to "John Reyner," a man with whom Hatevil Nutter is linked in the ecclesicatic history of Dover. John Reyner, who was to become the sixth minister in Dover some twenty years later, was provided in Anthony Nutter's will with twenty shillings. Reyner was also named coexectuor of Anthony Nutter's estate. Reyner a graduate of Magdalen College, Cambridge University, was in the Plymouth Colony by 1636.

Hatevil Nutter was in Dover by 1635 (Scales) and definitely by 1637[1] when he purchased a lot of land from Capt. Thomas Wiggin, which was "rebounded in 1640," butting on ye Fore River, east, and on ye west by High Street on ye north by ye lott of Samewell Haynes and on ye south by Lott of William Story." According to Scales (p. 314), "His house stood on the east side of High Street about 15 or 20 rods from the corner of the meeting house lot, An old pear tree stands (1923) in the hollow, which was part of the cellar. He received various grants of land from the town and had part ownership of a saw mill at Lamprey River. His ship yard was on the shore of Fore River; the locality can be easily found by reference to the map. He was largely engaged in the lumber business and ship-building. He was one of the elders of First Church and helped organize it in 1638. By 6 Dec 1645 "Hattevill Nutter" was connected with a mortgage between William Belew [of Dover] and Christopher Lawson, the latter having mortgaged his house [in Boston] to Belew for "thirty thousand of pipe staves" (Suffolk Co. Deed I:68). According to the record Belew had acknowledged "satisfaction (according to Mr. Nutter's agreement)" and the release of the mortgage was under "the hand of Hattevill Nutter."

1. There is a claim in History of the Wingate Family (p. 28) that Hatevil Nutter by depsotion stated that he was in Dover in 1637 nd that he had been "born in England in the year 1603 or thereabouts."

As Hatevil Nutter prospered as a Dover sawmill and shipyard owner he began to take on civil responsiblities as well. He was a deputy to the General Assembly at Portsmouth, 1650, a Dover selectman in 1655 and town moderator in 1659. He was also a justice of the peace, 1661-62. Philip Howard Gray (Penobscot Pioneers, p. 100) points to the fact that Hatevil Nutter was "one of the three men designated as 'Mr." of those who served on the Maine grand jury of 15 Mar 1649/50. There is also a copy of an order from Elder Nutter to Thomas Canney to "lay out 1000 acres of land on the Newichawannock River for Simon Bradstreet and Capt. [Thomas] Wiggin" in 1653 (MA State Archives 45:34). In a subsequent record Hatevil Nutter and Edward Shattuck, called "surveyors," were ordered to lay out another 200 acres for Thomas Wiggin on the Back River (MA State Archives, 45:39).

Hatevil Nutter was an early "elder" of the first church in Dover. By 1649 "Elder Nutter" was mentioned in an account of a return by Thomas Wiggin and Edward Rawson in connection with the settlement of the estate of William Walderne (MA State Archives, 15B:142). The first meeting house on Dover Neck was "on the summit of Nutter's Hill," 5 10th mo, 1652, "near Elder Nutter's [house]." John Scales the Dover historian suggests that "Parson Reyner gave them a good sound sermon and no doubt Elder Nutter and Elder Wentworth had interesting remarks to add" (History of Dover, I:119). Whether or not John Reyner was present (Gen. Dictionary of Maine and NH [p. 583] states that he was not called to Dover until 1655) it is documented that Hatevil Nutter was an elder of this first church and probably instrumental in bringing the fellow-Yorkshireman, John Reyner, to Dover to lead the church.

Nutter is probably remembered most as a zealous and generous supporter of the church. When the Quaker missionaries, Anna Coleman, Mary Tomkins and Alice Ambrose, created disturbance in 1662 he vigourously opposed them, contending they had no right to come to Dover and make a disturbance. The Quaker historian, Sewell, speaks very harshly of the Elder. He wrote: "All this whipping of the Quaker women by the constables (in front of the meeting house) was in the presence of Hate-evil Nutwell (Nutter), a Ruling Elder, who stirred up the constables (John and Thomas Roberts) to this wicked action, and so proved that he bore a wrong name (Hate-Evil)." John Greenleaf Whittier, the 19th century Quaker poet, memorialized the above episode in his poem, "How They Drove the Quaker Women from Dover."

The will of Hatevil Nutter, was signed 28 Dec 1674, probated 29 June 1675 and the inventory presented 25 June 1675 in the amount of 398 pounds, 7 shillings, fourpence (NH State Papers, XXXI: 157-59.).

SECOND GENERATION

2 ANTHONY[2] (Hatevil[1]), b. England ca 1630, son of Hatevil and Anne (Ayers) Nutter, d. Dover, NH 19 Feb 1685-6 of small pox (Rev. John Pike's Diary, NHG Record, 3:79); m. ca 1662 SARAH LANGSTAFF, daughter of Henry Langstaff, still living 14 July 1712. Admitted as a freeman, 22 May 1662, Anthony Nutter was the first of the family to settle in Newington removing from Dover Neck to Welchman's [Welch's] Cove in Newington. The land was property given him by his father in 1669. His house, on the Bloody Point side of Dover, was used as a garrison, "which stood near Welch Cove, on land in 1986 owned by [descendant] Sydney Frink" (Newington, NH, p. 45). Scales points to Anthony Nutter's prowess in "arms." By 1667 he had earned the rank of corporal of the militia. By 1668 he was designated as "leftenant." He also was active politically being both selectman and representative to the General Court of Massachusetts for six years and later of the general assembly of New Hampshire. In 1681-82 he was a member of the New Hampshire provincial council. He was a commissioner who signed the announcement of the "election of the associates for Dover and Portsmouth," 28 Apr 1679 (Mass State Archives 39:585). He was also chosen to assist Frances Raynor (Reyner) of Dover in settling the estates of her late husband and son, 10 June 1679 (Mass. State Archives 16:147). He was referred to as "tall, big man, Antony Nutter." The Anthony Nutter farm was later owned by Cyrus Frink, 2nd (Newington, NH p. 5).

The administration of Anthony Nutter's estate was not granted to his sons, Hatevil and Henry, until 21 June 1720 (NH Probate 8:409). The heirs of Anthony Nutter brought a suit against John Rawlins et al of Durham, NH in 1733 for having withheld 5/9 of a parcel of land in Newington from them (NH Archival Court Case 27558). The case alleged that "Anthony Nutter, late of Dover aforesaid, gentleman, otherwise called yeoman deceased, was in his lifetime seized of the premises in his demise about the year 1685, died and intestate leaving issue John (since deceased), Hatevil, Henry [-] his sons, Sarah now Sarah Hill, Mary now Mary Walton, Elizabeth now Elizabeth Lavers, Abigail afterwards Abigail Jones since deceased and Ann now Ann Jones [-] his daughters. They sought to retrieve their father's land or 1000 pounds in compensation. The settlement of the case does not explain why but the final allowance, 16 Aug 1733, was for 47 shillings plus expenses for a total of 2.7.6.

Children of Anthony and Sarah (Langstaff) Nutter, b. Dover, NH (Cox, p. 129):

Elizabeth Laverse of Portsmouth conveyed her interest in her father Anthony Nutter's estate "in the portion of Dover, now Newington," 4 Feb 1745, to Samuel Nutter and Mrs. Leah Nutter of Newington (Rockingham Co. Deed 30:535). Jacob Lavers of Portsmouth was bondsman for the widow Agnes Graffam in 1715.

ABIGAIL; m. 3 July 1702 (EMSC, p. 546) STEPHEN JONES, b. 1665 (GS), son of Stephen Jones, d. 1756 (GS), buried with Abigail [no dates] in Jones Cemetery (Homestead Cemeteries and Other Burial Places in Strafford Co.). Stephen Jones, Jr., and wife Sarah, Ebenezer Jones, John and Mary Smith, Joseph and Abigail Thomas, sold to Samuel Nutter, Jr. of Newington, "son of Hatevil Nutter," their right to the homestead in Newington, now in possession of Samuel Nutter (History of Durham, II:232).

THIRD GENERATION

(2) probably after 1691 ROSAMUND JOHNSON, b. 10 June 1665 (Atkinson Mss.), daughter of John and Eleanor (Brackett) Johnson of Greenland. Jethro Bickford conveyed to John Nutter land in Newington, taking its beginning at the gate standing by Mr. John Nutter, deceased. Scales states that he lived on the "Bloody Point side." John Nutter was a constable for Dover in 1692 and served on a grandjury in 1696 and a jury in 1693-4. Rosamond (Johnson) Nutter was "receipted to [the] estate of Nicholas Frost in 1718" (Genealogical Dictionary, p. 516) and admitted to full communion in the Newington Church in 1724 (Ibid).

Children of John Nutter (Cox, p. 130; Genealogical Dictionary, p. 516):

i. (possibly) SARAH[4]; m. Greenland, NH 18 Jan 1711/2 (VR, p. 38) JOHN WHIDDEN.

ii. ANN, b. possibly 1682, bap. 30 Oct 1726; m. Newington 4 Mar 1716/7 ELEAZER COLEMAN [COOLMAN].

iii. MARY; m. Newington 16 Jan 1718 (EMSC, p. 745) [Lt.] JAMES PICKERING. b. 1680, d. 1768 (Ibid).

iv. JOHN, d. before 29 Apr 1747; m. Newington 8 Feb 1718/9 ABIGAIL WHIDDEN, daughter of Michael Whidden of Portsmouth who made a bequest to her in his will, still living 26 Dec 1744 when she co-signed a deed regarding land formerly belonging to her father in Portsmouth (Rockingham Co. Deed 30:90). In John Nutter's will (16 Aug 1746-29 Apr 1747) he named his brothers, Matthias, James and Hatevil Nutter (NH State Papers, XXXIII:393). He appears to have been the one who paid for support of the minister in Newington, 1712, and a sergeant there, 1714-1715. He was active in town affairs and in 1730 was chosen a town selectman. A joiner by trade he is probably the "Capt." John Nutter baptized at Newington 24 Sept 1746 (Hardon, p. 120). Abigail is most likely the widow of John Nutter of Newington, gentleman, who granted her estate to John Nutter of Newington, gentleman, 20 Apr 1766, with the provision that he provide her with "half the pasture" from these lands (Rockingham Co. Deed 98:503)

6 v. MATTHIAS

7 vi. JAMES
8 vii. HATEVIL
viii. ROSAMOND, bap. 31 Jan 1724/5, as an adult, d. before 12 Dec 1745 when Samuel Fabyan remarried; m. Newington 29 Nov 1733 SAMUEL FABYAN, son of John and Mary (Pickering) Fabyan.
9 ix. (possibly) THOMAS; m. [according to Hardon] DEBORAH ——. Child: THOMAS[5], bap. 13 May 1720.

4 HATEVIL[3] (Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. Dover, NH 1670, son of Anthony and Sarah (Langstaff) Nutter, d. Newington 22 Nov - 25 Dec 1745; m. (1) SARAH ——; m. (2) Newington 16 May 1716 (NHG Record, 2:167) LEAH (NUTE) FURBER, daughter of James and Elizabeth (Heard) Nute and widow of Jethro Furber of Newington, living 17 May 1748. Hatevil Nutter's will, probated 25 Dec 1745, named his children and wife Leah. The eldest sons, Hatevil and Anthony, received land in Rochester and the younger sons, John and Joshua, the homestead dwelling and lands in Newington. Besides receiving his "moveables and personal estate" Leah also received the negro man servant Caesar and the use of the dwelling house during her natural life or widowhood. The daughters each received 10 pounds each (NH State Papers, XXX:310-12). His home and farm was at Hogstie Cove (Newington, NH, p. 58).

Hatevil Nutter was first recorded in Newington, 21 Jan 1712 consenting to paying for the support of a minister. As sergeant he was chosen as one of a committee to manage the affairs of the parish, 5 July 1714 to 29 Oct 1714. Even though he was granted the privilege of a pew in the Newington church he did only owned the covenant, was baptized and was received into full communion at the Newington Church 18 Apr 1727. Leah was admitted to full communion 7 June 1730.

Newington records show that he was active in community affairs over a period from 1714-1734 assuming the role of assessor, selectman, commissioner and field driver. By 1720 he was designated an ensign in the local militia.

Following her husband's death Leah Nutter took out a bond, 26 June 1746, with John Downing, Jr. and Jethro Furber to prosecute her appeal to grant her rights to her husband's real estate, instead of his personal property, as stated in his will. She, with her son John, by petition to the NH House of Representatives, also attempted in 1748 to have an Inferior Court settlement which allowed an ejectment of them from Nutter land set aside. They sought to recover three-tenths part of thirteen acre of land in Newington which her step-sons, Hatevil and Anthony had received. Leah had probably died before 19 Jan 1756 when all of Hatevil Nutter's children by both his wives quitclaimed to John Downing, Esq. their right to the real estate in Rochester belonging to their deceased father Hatevil Nutter and to the also deceased Henry Nutter and Eleanor Coleman (Rockingham Co. Deed 109:425b).

Children of Hatevil and Sarah ( ) Nutter, b. Newington (Cox, p. 131):

i. ELEANOR[4], b. ca 1706, d. Portsmouth 26 June 1797, aged 91

yrs. (North Church rec.). She was a resident of Portsmouth by 1751 and living there, 23 May 1789, when she conveyed her rights to her father's estate to Hatevil Nutter, Jr. on Newington (Rockingham Co. Deed 126:245).

ii. SARAH, b. ca 1708, bap. 19 Nov 1732, living 1751, but d. before 18 Dec 1760 when her husband re-married; m. Greenland, NH 28 Dec 1732 (VR, p. 45) EDWARD WALKER of Kittery, ME, bap. Newington 25 Oct 1713, son of Edward and Deliverance (Gaskin) Walker; (he) m. (2) Sarah ( ) Rollins, widow of Joseph Rollins. Walker's second marriage was not very happy. Newington Families (p. 187) chronicles that "a [Newington] church meeting was appointed 21 Mar 1765 to adjust the difference between Edward Walker and Sarah, his wife, whereupon the wife and her daughter by her first husband, Deborah Rollins, were suspended."

10 iii. HATEVIL, b. ca 1710

11 iv. ANTHONY, b. ca 1712

Children of Hatevil and Leah (Nute) Nutter, b. Newington (Cox, pp. 131-32):

v. ABIGAIL, bap. 15 Sept 1717, living 20 Jan 1768; m. Newington 29 Dec 1740 (NHG Record, 2:173) JONATHON DAM of Kittery, ME, son of Jonathon and Sarah (Fernald) Dam. He was a shipwright and carpenter in Kittery by 1749 when he and Abigail conveyed their right in the real estate of her father to her brother John Nutter (Rockingham Co. Deeds 49:38?). It is probable that she was the Abigail Nutter, a "poor woman ordered out" of Kittery, ME 12 Mar 1753. At the time she was residing with Thomas Spinney (York Co. Court of Common Pleas Records, 114:86, Maine State Archives).

vi. ELIZABETH, bap. 29 Nov 1719, d. young.

12 vii. JOHN, b. 24 Feb 1721, bap. 12 Mar 1721

viii. ELIZABETH, b. 19 Sept 1723, bap. 23 Sept 1723; m. Newington 21 Nov 1742 (NHG Record, 2:173) EDWARD RAWLINGS, b. 2 Mar 1718, son of James and Deborah ( ) Rawlins, d. Rochester, NH 25 May 1756 (Rawlins Gen., p. 18).

13 ix. JOSHUA, b. ca 1725

x. OLIVE, b. ca 1727; m. Newington 6 Jan 1749 (NHG Record, 2:175) ICHABOD RAWLINGS, son of James and Deborah ( ) Rawlins.

5 HENRY[3] (Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. Dover, NH ca 1680, son of Anthony and Sarah (Langstaff) Nutter, d. Newington before 19 Jan 1740 when his will was probated (NH State Papers, XXXII:771); m. (1) 26 July 1703 (NHG Record, 4:12) MARY SHACKFORD, probable daughter of William and Deborah (Rickey) Shackford; m. (2) ?MARY ——, d. after 1740. His will signed 4 Dec 1739 names his wife Mary, and children Samuel, who received the Newington homestead

Valentine, who received 50 pounds after his father's wife's decease, Joseph, who was to take possession of his father's Rochester land, Elizabeth Crockett and Mary Nutter, the latter two receiving ten pounds each. All bequests were not to take place until "after my beloved wife's decease" (NH State Papers, XXXII:771) There is no mention of a son Henry, whom both Cox and Hardon, but not Noyes-Libby-Davis, identify as the son of Henry[3]. The exclusion of this Henry from Henry[3]'s will necessitates placing this Henry in a tenuous classification.

Children of Henry and Mary (Shackford) Nutter, b. Newington (Cox, pp. 132-33, Hardon, p. 69):

i. (possibly) HATEVIL[4], for whom there is an entry in NH Probate Minutes 3 Mar 1724-5, for Hate: Nutter's will brot and proved, although there are no existing papers. Noyes-Libby-Davis (p. 516) suggest that Henry[3] is the only possible father of such an Hatevil Nutter.

14 ii. SAMUEL

15 iii. VALENTINE

16 iv. JOSEPH

v. ELIZABETH; m. Greenland, NH 25 Dec 1733 (Greenland Church mar.) JOSHUA CROCKETT.

vi. MARY, b. ca 1715, d. 16 Jan 1811, aged 96 yrs.; m. 18 Aug 1740 (EMSC, p. 746) JOHN PICKERING, son of James and Mary (Nutter) Pickering, d. 1790.

Possible child of Henry and Mary (Hoyt) Nutter:

17 vii. HENRY, bap. Newington 2 Sept 1736, "son of Henry and Mary Nutter" (NHG Record, 3:155) [There were three Henry Nutters of a common age. Two, of Portsmouth, were born ca 1740. There also was Henry Nutter the settler of Sanford, Maine for whom there seem to be few clues. Even though the age is incorrect it seems most likely that Capt. Henry Nutter, the husband of Lydia Marshall of Portsmouth, is this Henry. It would appear that an incorrect age in an obituary is more likely for a 46 year-old man than a 73 year-old man.]

FOURTH GENERATION

6 MATTHIAS[4] (John[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), son of John and Abigail or Rosamund [Johnson] Nutter, still living in Newington, 13 Oct 1767, when he conveyed to John Nutter, 4th of Newington, blacksmith, 10 acres of land in Barnstead, lot 110, 2nd division (Rockingham Co. Deed 102:120); m. (1) ca 1734-5 HANNAH FURBER, b. probably Newington, daughter of Jethro and Leah (Nute) Furber, d. after 19 Apr 1747, when she was admitted into full communion at the Newington church; m. (2) 25 Oct 1749 (NHG Record, 2:176) SUSANNA AYERS. Matthias and Hannah Nutter owned the covenant in the Newington church, 24 Oct 1736, at the time they had their first two children baptized. Matthias Nutter was a grantee of land in Barnstead in 1727. A shipwright, by trade, he lived for a period of time in Portsmouth and was there, 24 Feb 1739 when he and Hannah conveyed to Jethro Furber of Newington, joiner, their right to 20 acres of land belonging to her deceased father Jethro and an additional right which came to her through the will of her grandfather William Furber (Rockingham Co. Deed 23:55). Matthias and Hannah had returned to Newington by Apr 1745 when they again deeded land to her brother Jethro Furber (Rockingham Co. Deed 31:28). An original proprietor of Barnstead [lot 110] it is not believed that he lived there.

Children of Matthias and Hannah (Furber) Nutter, b. Newington (NHG Record, 3):

19 i. MATTHIAS[5], bap. 24 Oct 1736

20 ii. THOMAS, bap. 24 Oct 1736

iii. ROSEMUND, bap. 10 Sept 1743, apparently died before 1816-1818.

21 iv. JOHN, bap. 5 Jan 1745

Children of Matthias and Susanna (Ayers) Nutter, b. Newington:

v. JAMES, b. ca 1751, d. Newington 17 Dec 1822, aged 71 yrs. (DR). A husbandman he lived on the family property with his brother Matthias. In a series of deed conveyances he received from his brothers Thomas and Matthias and his sisters, Alice and Hannah, 1816-1818, the rights to buildings and about 40 acres of land previously belonging to his father (Rockingham Co. Deeds, 221:5, 7). By 19 Dec 1817, at a time when it appears that James[6] was returning to Newington from Portsmouth, James, his uncle, conveyed to Matthias Nutter of Newington all rights to land in Newington bounded by Matthias, by Nicholas Pickering on the east and by Long Point on the south, E. Coleman, and James Nutter serving as witnesses (Rockingham Co. Deed 229:365) A husbandman, he transferred this property, at least about 30 acres of land, to the spinsters, Temperance, Hannah, Elizabeth and Resummoned Pickering, 17 Apr 1819 (Rockingham Co. Deed 223:267). By 20 Sept 1826 Alice Downing quitclaimed her rights to her father's estate in Newington to her nephew, James Nutter of Portsmouth, noting that the premises had been occupied by her brothers, "Matthias and James, deceased" (Rockingham Co. Deed 248:148). It would appear that James Nutter, the son of Matthias[4] was unmarried.

vi. JONATHON, bap. 4 Mar 1754, apparently died before 1816-1818.

vii. HANNAH, b. ca 1756, d. Rochester 18 Oct 1842, aged 86 yrs. (History of Rochester, p. 585); m. JOSHUA KNIGHT of Rochester, b. ca 1750, d. before 1818. Joshua and Hannah Knight of Rochester, NH quitclaimed to James Nutter of Newington, their right to land in Newington formerly owned by her father Matthias, 28 Feb 1818 (Rockingham Co. Deed 221:7). Hardon includes a Knight family in his Families of Newington, NH, but does not identify Joshua Knight.

viii. ALICE, b. ca 1758, living in Newmarket, 1826; m. 20 Jan 1785 (FR) JONATHON DOWNING. Jonathon and Alice Downing of Durham conveyed their right to 20 acres of land once owned by her father Matthias to her brother James Nutter of Newington, 7 Mar 1817 (Rockingham Co. Deed 221:5). Alice was of Newmarket, 20 Sept 1826, when she deeded her right to her father's estate to James Nutter [her nephew].

ix. (probably) ABIGAIL, b. ca 1764, d. before 1818; m. (1) Greenland 22 Dec 1784 (VR, p. 9) DUDLEY WENTWORTH, b. 1 Mar 1764, son of Stephen and Mary (Malcolm) Wentworth, d. Rochester, NH soon after 13 Apr 1791 (Wentworth Gen., I:529); m. (2) 21 June 1792 Joseph Fogg of Ossipee, NH (Ibid.). Abigail named one of her sons "Matthias."

7 JAMES[4] (John[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), son of John and Abigail or Resummoned [Johnson] Nutter, living Newington 3 June 1758 when he quitclaimed to John Weymouth of Rochester his right to the Rochester land which his son John Nutter had previously conveyed to Weymouth (Rockingham Co. Deed 57:204); m. Newington 1 Jan 1724 (NHG Record, 2:169) ABIGAIL FURBER, daughter of Jethro and Leah (Nute) Furber, still living in 1765. Abigail Nutter owned the covenant at the Newington Church, 30 Oct 1726, at the time her first child Ann was baptized there (NHG Record, 3:64). James Nutter was probably the grantee of that name for land in Barnstead, NH, 1727. James Nutter of Newington, cordwainer, with his wife Abigail, conveyed 80 acres of land in Worcester (MA) [should read Rochester, NH], 6 Dec 1749, to his "son, John Nutter of Newington, cordwainer" (Rockingham Co. Deed 50:120). The widow Abigail Nutter released her right in lands in her use to John Nutter, her son, 12 Apr 1765 "only returning to me one half of the produce of said lands from year to year if I require it" (Rockingham Co. Deed 98:503).

Children of James and Abigail (Furber) Nutter, b. Newington, NH (Hardon, I:81, Cox, pp. 133-34):

i. ANN[5], bap. 30 Oct 1726 (NHG Record, 3:64)

ii. JOHN, b. probably 1727, bap. 26 Oct 1729 (NHG Record, 3:110), d. before 2 Feb 1802, aged 75 yrs. (New Hampshire Gazette, Feb., 2, 1802); m. 15 Jan 1755 (NHG Record, 3:1) MIRIAM NUTTER, bap. Newington 26 Jan 1731 (NHG Record, 3:110), daughter of Samuel and Sarah (Hoyt) Nutter, d. Newington 6 Nov 1808 (DR). John and Miriam Nutter were of Rochester, NH, 24 June 1756, when he, a cordwainer, conveyed one-third of a homelot "where I now dwell," also one-third of lot no. 9, 2nd division to John Weymouth of Somersworth (Rockingham Co. Deed 55:213). His estate was probated 9 or 19 Oct 1803, the widow Miriam Nutter of Newington named administratrix, Ephraim Coleman of Newington and Anthony Nutter of Barnstead, sureties (Rockingham Co. Probate 4383). Miriam received her dower thirds from the estate suggesting that there were children or other heirs who received the bulk of it. The John Nutter property in Newington was near Matthias Nutter's land on the road leading to Long Point. John Nutter sold a parcel of land in Newington, part of the estate of his father James, to Richard Dame of Newington, 6 Mar 1793 (Rockingham Co. Deed 134:75). This land is described as "on the farm formerly belonging to Col. Meservey in Portsmouth, westerly on land of Thomas Nutter, north on the road called Narrow Lane by Fabyan's land." Samuel Nutter, Jr. lived on Col. Meserve(y) land at an earlier time.

iii. TEMPERANCE, bap. 26 Oct 1729 (NHG Record, 3:110); m. RICHARD NUTTER, bap. Newington 11 Sept 1726, son of Samuel and Sarah (Hoyt) Nutter, d. Rochester after 1806. The marriage of Temperance Nutter to Richard Nutter, later of Rochester, is estabished by Janet Ireland Delorey through the deed of Newington land (Rockingham Co. Deed 198:134) to the couple's son Henry (NHG Record 11:3:129).

iv. MARY, bap., 14 Sept 1736 (NHG Record, 3:155); m. 30 Oct 1760 JOSEPH MUNDY of Scarboro, ME.

22 v. JAMES, b. 15 Oct 1732, bap. 29 Sept 1736 (NHG Record, 3:156)

23 vi. ANTHONY, bap. 29 Sept 1736 (NHG Record, 3:156)

8 HATEVIL[4] (John[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), son of John and possibly Resummoned (Johnson) Nutter; m. Newington 28 June 1727 (NHG Record, 3:170) REBECCA AYRES, possible daughter of Mark and Sarah ( ) Ayres. Valentine Dame of Almsbury (Amesbury, MA), yeoman, Mark Dame, taylor, Henry Dame, chairmaker, Hannah Dame, spinster and James Peavey, labourer and Mary his wife in her right, all of Portsmouth for 5 shillings to Theodore Dame of Portsmouth, labourer, conveyed all their right to the estate which they inherited from Mary Dame, deceased, late wife of Theodore Dame, in the estate of her father Hatevil Nutter, late of Newington, deceased, 2 Apr 1794 (Rockingham Co. Deed 145:329). Name usage would suggest that Mary Dame, above, was indeed the daughter of Hatevil and Rebecca Nutter. The fact that Theodore and Mary Dame also named their second child "Rebecca," makes it even more certain that the above Hatevil's daughter Mary was the wife of Theodore Dam(e) of Newington and Portsmouth.

Children of Hatevil and Rebecca (Ayres) Nutter, b. Newington (NHG Record, 3:107, 109,111, 154, 157):

i. HANNAH[5], bap. 14 Apr 1728
ii. ROSAMUND, bap. 18 Jan 1730
iii. MARY, bap. 1 Oct 1732, d. in infancy.
iv. MARY, bap. 6 Oct 1734, d. by 1794; m. ca 1755 THEODORE DAM(E), bap. Newington 7 Oct 1733, son of John and Elizabeth (Hilliard) Dam.
v. MARK, bap. 19 Dec 1736, last recorded for him is 20 June 1781, when he was on a list of "a return of soldiers raised by the town of Newington" (NH State Papers, XVI: 18, 760). He enlisted, 24 June 1779, as a private in Capt Isaac Frye's Co. during the American Revolution. It would appear that Mark Nutter never married. However, he was of the period to have been the father of some of the unclassified Nutters of the mid-1700s.

9 THOMAS[4] (?John[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]); m. [according to Hardon] DEBORAH ——

i. THOMAS[5], bap. 13 May 1720 (NHG Record, 3:59). He possibly is the Thomas Nutter who enlisted in Capt. Jacob Tilton's Co. 22 Mar 1760, and is reported to have deserted in June at Black River (Potter, Military History of New Hampshire, I:257). The above Thomas Nutter [deserted at Black River] may also have been Thomas Nutter, bap. Newington 24 Oct 1736, son of Matthias and Hannah (Furber) Nutter and m. LOIS PARKS (Boston Transcript, 26 Mar 1934). This Thomas could also be connected with Thomas Johnson Nutter later of western New Hampshire. Another private in Capt. Tilton's company was Benjamin Boardman, aged 83 [b. ca 1757], who was a Revolutionary pensioner in 1840, living in Bridgewater, NH, a place where there are records of a Thomas Nutter paying a tax in 1812. It is difficult to pinpoint where the men from Jacob Tilton's company originated. They appear to have been from Rockingham Co. It is possible that Capt. Jacob Tilton, himself, was from Hampton, Rockingham Co., NH. Also see Thomas Nutter of Castine, ME who may have been the progenitor of one Maine branch of the family.

10 HATEVIL[4] (Hatevil[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. ca 1710, son of Hatevil and Sarah ( ) Nutter, d. probably 1790-1800, when he is no longer enumerated in a Newington census; m. 7 Feb or Apr 1731 HANNAH DECKER, daughter of John and Sarah Decker, [parents] later of Wiscasset, ME. A cordwainer by trade Hatevil was also a proprietor of Barnstead, NH. The 1790 shows two additional males over 16 and two or three daughters in Hatevil's household. It seems apparent that the two other males living in Hatevil's 1790 household were Joseph and Hatevil, Jr. The division of the estate of Joseph Nutter, late of Newington, cordwainer, deceased [below], son of Hatevil and Hannah, provides a listing of the descendants of this couple, 13 Jan 1817. The division of Joseph's estate went to siblings, Elizabeth Ayers, Benjamin Nutter, Hatevil Nutter and John Nutter, Mary Moody; the heirs of Hannah Hodgdon; the heirs of Lois Fogg; and the heirs of Sarah Nutter (Rockingham Co. Deed 333:200).

Children of Hatevil and Hannah (Decker) Nutter (NHG Record, 3:111, 154, 156, 158, 4:15, 18, 59, 61, 64, 107) :

i. SARAH[5], bap. 19 Nov 1732

ii. HANNAH, bap. 3 Feb 1734, d. Nov 1790; m. (1) Newington 13 Sept 1753 CHARLES DENNETT, b. Portsmouth, NH 21 Apr 1739, possible son of Samuel Dennett; m. (2) "of Portsmouth" at Newington 12 Dec 1765 CHARLES HODGDON. [Did she have a daughter Hannah who married a Nutter, by 14 Sept 1817? See Rock. Co. Deed 224:402.]

iii. JOSEPH, bap. 17 Oct 1736, d. Newington before 21 Feb 1816 when his estate was first administered (Rockingham Co. Probate 9348). Two of his heirs, his brother Hatevil and his sister Elizabeth Ayers, were named in the probate, the latter being appointed administratrix of the estate, 19 June 1816. He is probably the 1776 signer of the Association Test from Newington. A cordwainer, he acquired land in Newington, 6 Apr 1792 from Jethro Nutter, prior to the latter's move to Barnstead (Rockingham Co. Deed 184:412).

iv. MARY, bap. 18 Mar 1738/9; m. Newington 30 Oct 1760 JOSEPH MOODY of Scarboro, ME.

v. JOHN, bap. 23 May 1742, probably the John Nutter named in the division of his brother Joseph's estate, 1817. He was not living in Newington in 1790.

24 vi. BENJAMIN, bap. 25 Nov 1744

vii. ELIZABETH/BETSY, bap. 21 June 1747, d. Newington 2 Oct 1842, aged 99 yrs. (Miss Hoyt's Journal); m. Newington 9 Jan 1772 DEPENDENCE AYERS, bap. Newington 11 Nov 1750, son of Thomas and Hannah ( ) Ayres, d. before 1816.

25 viii. HATEVIL, JR., bap. 7 Apr 1750

ix. LOIS, bap. 24 Dec 1752, d. probably Scarboro, ME before 1 Nov 1779, when husband remarried; m. 4 June 1772 ENOCH FOGG of Scarboro, ME, b. 28 May 1746, son of Samuel and Rachel Fogg.

x. ABIGAIL, bap. 4 May 1755, not named in the division of Joseph Nutter's estate.

11 ANTHONY[4] (Hatevil[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. Newington, NH ca 1712 son of Hatevil and Sarah ( ) Nutter, probably d. before 1776 when he is not on the list of Association members; m. Newington 18 May 1740 (NHG Record, II:173) MARY DOWNING, bap. Newington 5 May 1717, daughter of Jonathon and Elizabeth (Nelson) Downing, possibly d. "Mrs. Nutter," Portsmouth 13 June-27 June 1797. (Portsmouth, NH South Church Records, NEHG Register, 82:139). Anthony Nutter of Newington, yeoman, conveyed his right in his deceased father's estate to his brother John Nutter of Newington, "meaning his dwelling house where he lived and all his lands," 4 Apr 1753 (Rockingham Co. Deed 49:391). He further gave "all rights in the estate of our honored father Hatevil Nutter" to "brother John Nutter of same town," 5 Apr 1753 (Rockingham Co., Deed 49:39). Mary (Downing) Nutter is probably the Mary Nutter enumerated in Newington, 1790, head of a household consisting of herself and two other females.

Children of Anthony and Mary (Downing) Nutter, b. Newington, NH (NHG Record, 3:160; 4:16, 18, 19, 60, 62, 106):

i. ALICE[5], bap. 15 Mar 1740; probably m. [according to Cox, p. 135] as "Mrs. Alice" Newington 22 Oct 1767 (NHG Record 3:6) FRANCIS MUSHWAY, of Portsmouth, NH.

ii. ELINOR/ELEANOR, bap. 5 June 1743; m. Greenland 24 Sept 1767 (NH VR) CHRISTOPHER SKINNER. The Skinners appear to have been a Portsmouth family. Christopher Skinner of Portsmouth is found in deeds to John Pierce and Charles Treadwell, 8 Mar 1745/6 and 31 Aug 1754, respectively (Rockingham Co. Deeds 31:331, 46:104). By 19 June 1793 Christopher Skinner m. at Wakefield, NH (NH VR) Halt Kimball. Also at Wakefield 22 Jan 1794 William W. Blaisdell m. at Wakefield (NH VR) Eleanor Skinner Grant. It would appear that the Skinners of Wakefield were children of Christopher and Eleanor, although no proof of such has been found. There was no Christopher Skinner in the 1790 censuses for ME, NH, MA, nor in NH Rev. Documents.

iii. LOIS, bap. 3 Feb 1745, still living at Newington 14 Mar 1800 (Rock. Co. Deed 154:137); m. Greenland Dec 1773 (TR, I:289) NATHANIEL HART, son of [Col.] John Hart of Portsmouth, d. before 16 Nov 1791 when Lois was appointed administrator on her husband's Newington estate (Rock Co. Probate 5711). Nathaniel Hart was a gunsmith/blacksmith in Newington as early as 5 Aug 1774 when he and "Louis," his brothers Edward of Portsmouth and Henry of Newington conveyed all rights in Col. John Hart's estate to their brother Benjamin Hart (Rockingham Co. Deed 106:431). A later deed signed by Nathaniel and Lois, 14 Oct 1785, called Nathaniel the son of the late Col. John Hart (Rock. Deed 121:184). As a widow Lois was obliged to sell off much of her late husband's estate. In 1800 she was guardian to the three youngest Hart children, Mary, Edward and John, all under 21, signed a deed co-signed by Robert, Nathaniel and Mehitable Hart, probably her elder children (Rock. Co. Deed 154:133, 137).

Newington 17 Nov 1747 ANN SIMES, b. Newington 20 Oct 1727, daughter of John and Hannah (Jackson) Simes, d. Newington 11 Aug 1793. John Nutter owned the covenant at the Newington church, 12 Dec 1748 and was admitted to full communion with his wife Ann, 8 Aug 1756. He subsequently became a deacon of the church and town moderator. His estate was administered by his widow, 27 Aug 1777 (Rockingham Co. Probate 4383). The inventory showed a property value of 313 pounds, 19 shillings. Anna Nutter was enumerated in Newington, 1790, head of a household consisting of herself and one other female, most likely, her daughter Mary. The last three children of John and Anna are not included in the family record contained in Newington town records. In 1767 he was the owner of lot 110, in the second division of Barnstead. Newington TR show "widow" Anna Nutter, d. 21 Jan 1804 and another (Mrs.) d. 6 Dec 1804.

Probate 3857); m. Newington 18 May 1725 (NHG Record, 2:170) SARAH HOYT, daughter of William and Elizabeth (Haley) (Nelson) Hoyt. Although Newington church baptismal records indicate only five children for Samuel and Sarah Nutter probate and land records indicate that there were ten adult children who shared in the division of Samuel's estate. Joseph and Arabella Pevey, Daniel and Betty Walker, "daughters of Capt. Nutter" requested a division of his estate, petition allowed 29 Mar 1775 (Rock. Probate 3857). Land records show that his property in Newington was on the road from "Newington to Furber's Ferry."

36 ix. CHRISTOPHER, bap. 18 Mar 1755

x. DEBORAH/DEBBY; m. Greenland 19 Apr 1770 (NH VR) ENOCH HUNTRESS of Rye, NH ["Enoch Hunt" on marriage record]. As a daughter of Samuel Nutter of Newington she sold her share in his estate to Charles Nutter, 24 Nov 1777 (Rockingham Co. Deed 117:92) She also apparently conveyed the same rights to Christopher Nutter, 24 Nov 1777 (Rockingham Co. Deed 117:94).

37 xi. CHARLES

15 VALENTINE[4] (Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. probably Newington, NH ca 1705, son of Henry and Mary (Shackford) Nutter, d. between 16 Nov 1756 when he sold his church pew (NH Prov. Deed 57:37) and 26 June 1757 when his widow took bond on his estate with Stephen Jones of Durham and Samuel Nutter of Newington as sureties (NH Provincial Probate 23:375); m. say 1729 MARY ?COTTON, daughter of William Cotton, d. before 30 Apr 1761 when her estate was administered, no Nutters involved in the administration (NH State Papers, XXXVII: 147). Valentine, a carpenter and shipwright by trade, first appeared in Portsmouth records, 11 Sept 1729, when he acquired land and buildings in the Islington section [southeast] of the town from Jane and Lydia [Marshall] Rackley [Rackliff], widows of William and Benjamin Rackliff of Portsmouth, father and son, Samuel Marshall and James Jeffrey serving as witnesses (NH Prov. Deed 16:584). By 1733 he was appointed an appraiser of the estate of Edward Cater of Portsmouth (State Papers, XXXII:441).

Valentine Nutter was first identified with the First Parish Church of Portsmouth [also called North Church], 27 Nov 1747, when his youngest daughter Sarah was baptized there (NHG Rec. V:87). Following this, the next year on 12 Sept 1748 he acquired a pew in that church (NH Prov. Deed 57:35). Since only one child was baptized at North Church it seems most likely that Valentine and Mary had a tie to another church in Portsmouth prior to joining North Church. After 1747 several generations of Nutters were associated with this church giving some plausibility to the belief that they were Valentine's descendants. The next Nutter child to be baptized at North Church was an unidentified one on 5 Apr 1752 (NHG Record, V:90). There then followed, beginning in 1763, the baptisms of the children of Grafton Nutter from 1763-1770; the baptisms of the children of Henry Nutter, 1765-1783; and the baptism of one child of Jacob Nutter in 1771 (VI:43) [Jacob later had his younger children baptized in the Second Parish Church of Kittery (Eliot)]. Given the consistency of these Nutter children's baptisms, one must assume that the 1752 baptism of an unnamed child of an unnamed Nutter is for a grandchild of Valentine, particularly since the baptism occurred during a time when Valentine still held his pew in the church.

Valentine Nutter for 50 pounds conveyed his pew to William Earl Treadwell of Portsmouth giving all rights to the pew "only reserving liberty to my wife Mary Nutter to set there herself when she pleases," 16 Nov 1756; witnesses Paul March and Anna Walden acknowledging, 20 Apr 1758, the signature of "Valentine Nutter now deceased" (NH Prov. Deed 57:37). The only child of Valentine and Mary to be baptized in Portsmouth was Sarah, bap. Portsmouth, NH 27 Nov 1747 (NHG Record V:87). The connection with North Church seems to be coincide with Valentine's purchase of Portsmouth property from Sarah Hart, administratrix of the estate of Samuel Cutt of Portsmouth, 19 May 1746 (NH Prov. Deed 31:308) and may indicate a move by the family to a new area of town. William Earl Treadwell, who was to play an important role in the lives of Valentine's widow and children, purchased Valentine's church pew at a time when it appears that Valentine was near death, assigning the pew to Paul March, 20 Apr 1758, "reserving Mary Nutter's liberty, etc." Later, Treadwell also became the administrator of the widow Mary Nutter's estate, 30 Apr 1761, and then in 1762 and 1765 assumed guardianship over the younger sons, Henry and Jacob (NH State Papers, XXXV:475).

Although Newington Families gives the maiden name "Goode" to Valentine's wife, there is no evidence to support this. [Goode is a family name uncommon in New Hampshire provincial records.] Instead there is some body of evidence to suggest that she was a daughter of William Cotton of Portsmouth or of the widow Agnes Graffam/Grafton. The Cotton connection is found in the close connection Mary Nutter had to William Earl Treadwell, mentioned above, whose mother was Sarah Cotton, daughter of William Cotton of Portsmouth. Following Valentine's death the widow Mary Nutter of Portsmouth, for 500 pounds, conveyed to William Earl Treadwell of Portsmouth, merchant, 1 June 1759, 110 square rods in Portsmouth, by land of Benjamin Akerman, "land purchased by Valentine Nutter, my late husband... southwesterly on the road that leads from Portsmouth to Knight's Ferry," witnesses Ichabod Libby and Benjamin Akerman (NH Prov. Deed 58:355). Subsequently, 10 May 1760, Mary Nutter transferred an additional 128 square rods to Treadwell "southerly by the highway leading to Islington," witnesses, George Meserve and Samuel Parker (NH Prov. Deed 62:184). On the same day she also transferred another 128 sq. rods to Benjamin Akerman of Portsmouth, tanner; same witnesses (62:184). The inventory of Mary Nutter's estate, 2 May 1761, showed a value of L2938.6.0 with a net value of over L1400. Except, for daughter Sarah (see below) none of her children, who were obviously living in Portsmouth were involved in the probate of their mother's estate (NH State Papers, XXXVII:147).

William Earl Treadwell was born probably ca 1725-1730, the son of Jacob and Sarah (Cotton) Treadwell of Portsmouth and was the husband of Mehitable Odiorne, daughter of Jotham and Mehitable (Cutt) Odiorne, also of Portsmouth. He was also the grandson of William Cotton, Jr. of Portsmouth, according to the probate record of his father, Jacob. A newspaper account provides approximate dates of birth for both Jacob and Sarah (Cotton) Treadwell; i.e., Jacob d. 17 Apr 1770, aged 72 [b. ca 1698] and Sarah d. the previous day, in her 68th year [b. ca 1702] (Notices from the N. H. Gazette, p. 28). Most important is the evidence that Sarah Treadwell, herself, was a signator to Valentine Nutter's will, along with William Parker, a contemporary justice, and Samuel Nutter, Valentine's brother. The probate record of William Cotton, Jr. is not helpful in identifying the names of his children. His will, signed 27 Feb 1717, provides for four unnamed daughters, all under 21 (NH State Papers, XXXII:18). Since it is known that Sarah Treadwell was one of them, there is some probability here that another might have been Mary Nutter, Valentine's wife. William Earl Treadwell might then have been Mary's nephew and a first cousin to the Nutter children for whom he assumed guardianship responsibilities in 1762 and 1765. If Mary Nutter was indeed a Cotton, this might explain why her first son was named "William" for her father and why two of her children are named "Jacob" and "Sarah," for her brother-in-law and sister.

Nonetheless, Agnes Graffam who married second at Portsmouth 10 Nov 1715 Thomas Russell, and was the widow of Samuel Graffam, was also of the right age to have been the mother of Mary Nutter, Valentine's wife. Valentine and

Mary named their second daughter "Agnes" and their third son "Grafton."

There is a possibility, still, that Mary was connected to the Rackleys from whom her husband Valentine was to purchase his first Portsmouth property. The name of William Rackley's first wife is not known. However, William Rackley's will shows a daughter, Mary Cross, by his second wife Jane, another daughter, [Agnes] Nelson, and grandchildren (NH State Papers, I:442). Although she was not a descendant of William Rackley, according to Noyes-Libby-Davis, the naming of children "William" and "Agnes" may have then may have had a Rackley family connection.

Children of Valentine and Mary (?Cotton) Nutter, probably b. Portsmouth, NH:

38 i. WILLIAM[5],

ii. MARY; probably m. BENJAMIN WILLS of Portsmouth, a ship carpenter, who signed a deed with Mary and his brother Edward Wills, 22 Dec 1755, deeding Samuel Langdon, land once owned by the Wills's grandmother, Grace Lang of Portsmouth. There was a Benjamin Wills living in Sutton, NH, 1790.

39 iii. ANTHONY

iv. AGNES, m. before 1758 RICHARD GREELEY of Portsmouth, a hatter, d. at Exeter, NH 8 July 1766 in a drowning (Notices from the NH Gazette, p. 11). The administration of his estate was given to Josiah Clark, 30 July 1766 (Rockingham Co. Probate 24:261). Agnes Greeley was called as a witness for the plaintiff, 8 June 1769, in the suit which her brother Anthony brought regarding the upkeep of her unnamed child (NH Archival courtcase 17925). Richard and Agnes Greeley conveyed their share in the Islington "dwelling of Valentine and Mary Nutter, late parents of Agness," 10 Aug 1761 (NH Prov. Deed 65:110). Richard Greeley had a daughter, MARY, bap. North Church, Portsmouth 6 Aug 1758 (NHG Record, V:133).

40 v. GRAFTON

41 vi. HENRY, b. ca 1740 [1741-1748, Guardianship record] [There were two Henry Nutters shown in Portsmouth tax listings as early as 1764. By 1776 two also signed the Association Test, one living near John Akerman and William Earl Treadwell and the other living near Valentine Nutter and Clement March (NH State Papers, XXX:114, 117). The latter was designated "Henry Nutter, Tanner."]

42 vii. JACOB, b. 1741-1751 (Guardianship record)

viii. VALENTINE, b. ca 1746, d. Portsmouth Oct 1786 [funeral], aged 40 yrs., of gout. (South Church record, NEHG Register, 82:413).

ix. SARAH, bap. Portsmouth, NH 27 Nov 1747 (NHG Rec. V:87); probably m. Portsmouth 29 Aug 1770 (South Church, NEHG Register, 82:295) BENJAMIN COLE. In the final accounting of her mother's estate, 25 Aug 1769, Sarah Nutter is mentioned as "an orphan," even though at the time of the accounting Sarah was over 21 (NH State Papers, XXXVII:147).

16 JOSEPH[4] (Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. probably Newington, NH, son of Henry and Mary (Shackford) Nutter, d. Newark, NJ between 26 Nov 1761 when he signed his will and 20 Aug 1771 when his will was probated (Essex Co. Probate Records); m. BRIDGET BARKER, daughter of Enoch and Bridget (Cate) Barker of Greenland, evidently d. before 1761. As early as 28 Mar 1740, the couple conveyed part of her late father Enoch Barker's Greenland estate to Jonathon Barker (Rockingham Co. Deed 29:208). Then in a lengthy series of land transactions from 5 Mar 1744 to 16 May 1745 Joseph, a shipwright, and Bridget Nutter sold off all their land holdings in Barrington, Rochester and Greenland, Shadrach Walton being the principal grantee. In an interesting deed the couple sold "a third part of a whole share of land in Rochester," being lots no. 33 and 34 in the second division of land in Rochester to John Downing, Jr. of Newington "the one third part of a share belonging to him" (Rockingham Co. Deed 29:167, 168). By the terms of the will of Henry[3] Nutter all his land holdings in Rochester were to be conveyed to Joseph[4] Nutter upon the decease of his father's wife. It is assumed that the Rochester land was that obtained by Joseph in his father's will. It is not known why John Downing, Jr. would have had a third share of this Rochester property, which he sold in 1744 (see above). However, since the land was sold not long after Henry[4]'s death it might be assumed that his widow was still living and that the land would have been her's and her heir's as long as she lived. Neither John[2] Downing's mother or wife appears to have a Nutter connection.

Children of Joseph and Bridget (Barker) Nutter, probably b. Durham, NH:

17 HENRY[4] (?Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), bap. Newington 2 Sept 1736, son of Henry and Mary (Hoyt) Nutter, or b. ca 1741 (obit.) the "Capt. Henry" d. Portsmouth 26 May-2 June 1787, aged 46 (Notices from The New Hampshire Gazette, p. 94); probably m. say 1765 LYDIA MARSHALL, bap. Portsmouth 30 Sept 1744 (South Church Record, NEHG Register, 81:446), daughter of Nathaniel and Hannah ( ) Marshall, who as a widow with her sister Ann Marshall, singlewoman, both of Portsmouth conveyed their rights to a building and land on Water Street, Portsmouth to their brother Nathaniel Marshall, 30 July 1792 (Rockingham Co. Deed 132:150). She was referred to in a subsequent conveyance from Ann Marshall to Nathaniel Marshall, now a merchant, 19 Oct 1803 (Rock. Co. Deed 165:118). Nathaniel Marshall, in turn, signed a deed 2 Apr 1803, to Hannah Bowles, witnessed by James Nutter (Rock., Co. Deed, 165:446). This Henry Nutter is probably the Henry Nutter who signed the Association Test in Portsmouth, 1776 (NH State Papers, XXX: 117). He was also a resident and taxpayer in Portsmouth, NH starting from 1764 (TR 16:673) when he is shown as "Henry Nutter, Jr. mariner," living on the "north side." Tax listings show a Henry Nutter, mariner, at Tanner also taxed in Portsmouth the same year, probably the son of Valentine[4]. There is a strong suggestion here that through their connection with the South Church that Lydia Nutter was the widow of Henry Nutter, above. The naming of children Hannah and Ann are consistent with the names of Lydia's mother and sister Hannah and Ann. This may also suggest that Henry's mother was named Mary.

Children of Henry and Lydia (Marshall) Nutter (Portsmouth, NH South Church Records, NEHG Register, 82:51; 1790, 1800 censuses):

i. (probably) HANNAH[5], bap. 3 Aug 1766
ii. (probably) MARY, bap. 17 Jan 1773
iii. (probably) ANN, bap. 7 Mar 1779

18 HENRY[4], b. NH say 1740s or 1750s, d. Sanford, ME before 1790 when Widow Nutter is shown as head of the household; m. Sanford, ME (int.) 17 Feb 1776 (VR, p. 3) SARAH PATCH, probably b. Kittery, ME 1746-49, daughter of John and Sarah (Brawn) Patch, possibly the "Sally Nutter," d. Ipswich 16 June 1819 (II:640). She was still of Sanford when she mortgaged five acres of land in Sanford, 7 Aug 1793, which she had purchased from Frances Shirley Western (York Co. deed 55:407). Henry Nutter was in Sanford, ME as early as 1774, when he purchased land there from Michael Brawn (York Co. deed 55:407). Called a "laborer," he was born probably at least as early as 1753 [if aged aged 21 yrs.] and was also probably a young man to have not reached the status of "yeoman." He also had some Revolutionary War service, serving as a private in Capt. Morgan Lewis's Co., 21 Apr 1775, responding to the Lexington Alarm (Soldiers, Sailors and Patriots in the American Revolution -Maine, p. 584). The Western tract in Sanford was near the (North) Berwick line. There is hard evidence linking several Nutters of the era to Berwick, a more established town than Sanford in 1774 [the Sanford Congregational church, for example, was not established until 1786]. However, the Kittery connection does seem important.

The land that Henry Nutter acquired in 1774 was next to Moses Tibbetts (Tebbetts), a man who has been established through Tibbetts family genealogies as from Somersworth, NH when he married (int.) Love Willard at York, ME 28 Dec 1754. Henry, however, married a woman with Kittery ties and purchased land from Michael Brawn, also of Kittery, perhaps Sarah's uncle. The property in Sanford which he acquired included Brawn's dwelling, household goods, cattle and swine (York Co. Deed 49:91). There being no probate for Michael Brawn's estate and his eventual death before he had acknowledged his signature to the deed poses the question whether or not there was a relationship also between Brawn and Henry Nutter. In the 1770s there was no established Nutter family in Kittery, however. The Patches, a family which he would join by marriage, evidently had moved into Kittery in the mid 1700s, possibly from Massachusetts. Interestingly enough there was a Sarah Patch, bap. Ipswich, MA 13 Apr 1755, daughter of John Patch, 3rd. (VR, I:281). It is believed that two of Sarah's sons settled in Ipswich in adulthood.

There is also some possibility that this Henry was a brother to Grafton Nutter of Tuftonboro [and therefore a son of Henry and Margaret ( ) Nutter] and that their children, first cousins, would have settled near one another in the Tuftonboro-Ossipee section of Strafford Co., later Carroll Co., NH. As early-orphaned children, Henry and Grafton, could have kept contact with their first cousins, the children of Henry[4] Nutter of Portsmouth. Samuel Nutter of Ossipee's naming of a child, Valentine, was possibly a recognition of his own grandfather, Valentine[4] Nutter. The choice of "Samuel" and "Thomas" as names for children of Henry and Sarah may also be significant in themselves.

There is a marriage record 22 Aug 1796 in Shapleigh, ME, a town to the north of Sanford, between Abraham Adams of Berwick and Sarah Nutter of Shapleigh (I:102). Since the intention was also filed in Berwick, 7 Aug 1796 , between "Abraham Adams of Berwick and Sarah Nutter of Sanford" (Berwick, ME VR, p. 35) it seems quite evident that Sarah did remarry and that she was also related to the Patches of Shapleigh. No further records have been found for the Adamses, per se, unless he was the Abraham Adams shown in Newbury, Essex Co., MA, 1800, aged over 45 with a female also over 45, presumably his wife. Further, there is a record of an Abraham Adams who died Newburyport, MA, 3 Apr 1801 (VR, II:535) and a Mrs. Sarah Adams who died there Jan 1818 (VR, II:536). John, Jonathon, Paul and Samuel Patch were living in Shapleigh in 1800. Jonathon Patch was a witness to Henry Nutter's deed of 6 Jan 1785 when he sold his Sanford property to Caleb Emery of Sanford (York Co. Deed 49:42). The first record for the Nutters in Essex Co., MA is 31 Dec 1805 when James Nutter of Hamilton married at Ipswich Mehitable Burnham, b. ca 1783, daughter of John and Mehetable Burnham (Ipswich, MA VR, II:232). Later, between 1810-1814, the births of three unnamed children of Henry Nutter were also recorded in Ipswich (I:278). Finally, the death of Sally Nutter was recorded at Ipswich 16 June 1819 (II:640). There is some possibility that Sally Nutter was Sarah (Patch) Nutter. However, given the marriage and intention of marriages records for Sarah Nutter of Sanford/Shapleigh/Berwick it appears doubtful that she had resumed her first married name. Yet, as the aged mother of James Nutter she may have been more identified with the Nutter name than with that of a second husband. Death and census records tie both James and Henry Nutter to Maine. In fact, the death record of one of James's sons specifically gives "Berwick, Me." as his place of birth. The conclusion is circumstantial in nature, but the evidence significant in its entirety to produce the conclusion that these two Nutter men were the sons of Henry and Sarah (Patch) Nutter of Sanford, ME.

Probable child of Henry Nutter:

i. SALLY[5], b. NH ca 1768 (1850 census), lived in Somersworth, NH, 1850, with husband Stephen; m. Berwick 22 Dec 1791 STEPHEN[6] WENTWORTH, b. Berwick, ME 1766 (1850 census), son of Richard and Joanna (Clark) Wentworth. They were settlers of Ossipee, NH [as were Samuel and Thomas, below] and later moved to Somersworth where two daughters, Joan Wentworth and Ruth Bunker were living with them in 1850.

Children of Henry and Sarah (Patch) Nutter, probably b. Sanford, ME:

44 ii. SAMUEL, b. NH [or Berwick/Sanford, ME] ca 1776 (Carroll Co., NH census, 1850, p. 97)

45 iii. JAMES, b. Berwick, ME 8 Nov 1781 (DR, son's death record, 1865 MA census)

46 iv. THOMAS, b. ca 1784 (1850 census)

47 v. HENRY, b. Berwick, ME 27 Jan 1786 (DR) [ca 1785, U. S. Census, Essex, Essex Co., MA, 1850, Roll 314, p. 293]

19 MATTHIAS[5] (Matthias[4], John[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]) bap. Newington 24 Oct 1736 (NH Gen. Rec., x:xx) [b. ca 1740, GS], son of Matthias and Hannah (Furber) Nutter, d. 3 Mar 1818, aged 78 yrs. (GS), buried Newington with third wife; m. (1) South Church, Portsmouth 8 Nov 1764 (NEHG Register, 82:295) MARTHA PERKINS; m. (2) ca 1790 ANNA (TRICKEY) VINCENT, d. Newington 18 Sept 1803 (NH VR); m. (3) Newington 14 May 1807 (NH VR) MARY (POLLY) FOLSOM, b. Rochester, NH 4 Feb 1776 (NH VR), daughter of —— and Sarah (Horne) Folsom, d. 19 Mar 1871, aged 95 yrs. (GS). His will dated 23 Dec 1817 (proved 18 Mar 1818) named his wife and children (Rockingham Co. Probate 9691). Matthias Nutter referred to the right of his wife, Anna, in the estate of Joshua Trickey, late of Newington, deceased, 9 Apr 1806 (Rockingham Co. Deed 220:9). By 8 Sept 1825, Anna's children and/or spouses assigned their rights in her property to Ephraim Coleman; i.e., Joshua, Joseph, James, Anna and Mark Nutter, Kinsman Peverly (Rockingham Co. Deed 265:158).

The administration on the estate of William White[6] Nutter, son of Matthias[5], provides verification of the descendants of Matthias who were alive in 1885 (Rockingham Co. Probate NS 4038).

Children of Matthias and Martha (Perkins) Nutter, b. Newington, NH (Hardon, p. 83-84) (order according to the distribution of William W. Nutter's estate):

He was probably the Joshua Nutter living in Portsmouth, 1830. Joshua (Jr.), Joseph and Mark Nutter of Newington, along with Kinsman and Harriet Peverly, all of Newington, James and Anna Nutter of Barnstead, and Abigail Nutter conveyed the interest they had in their mother's Newington land to Ephraim Coleman of Newington, 8 Sept 1825 (Rockingham Co. Deed 265:158).

xv. ELIZABETH N., b. 2 July 1807, d. Cambridge, MA 26 Feb 1896, age 88 yrs, 7 mos., 24 dys. (MA VR 464:109); m. NATHAN WEBSTER. An Elizabeth Nutter, b. ca 1828 was living in Newington, 1850, with Mary (Folsom) Nutter.

xvi. WILLIAM WHITE, b. 22 Sept 1808, d. Newington 4 Apr 1883, aged 75 yrs., widower (NH VR, GS); m. Newington 13 June 1873 (NH VR) FRANCES J. (DOW) BRACKETT, b. ca 1822 (DR), daughter of Isaac and Lydia (Pickering) Dow, d. Newington 16 July 1880, aged 58 yrs. (NH VR). He was probably the single man, aged 40, living in the household of Martha and Lydia Rollins in 1850. William W. Nutter was a member of the state legislature from Newington. The partition of his estate, 20 Aug 1884, shows a listing of 28 siblings or their children and grandchildren (Rockingham Co. Probate 4554, 4038).

xx. OLIVE P., b. 5 Mar 1817, d. Boston, MA 19 Dec 1893, aged 75 yrs. (MA VR 438:512); m. HIRAM AMES, b. ca 1810.

20 THOMAS[5] (Matthias[4], John[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), bap. Newington 24 Oct 1736, son of Matthias[4] and Hannah (Furber) Nutter, d. before 27 May 1823 when his estate was administered by Matthias Nutter of Milton (Strafford Co. Probate 30:41); m. by 1800 MARGARET ——. As Thomas Nutter of Milton, yeoman, he and Margaret sold undivided land in Newington "on the road from Portsmouth to Greenland adjoining land of Nathaniel A. Haven and Henry Nutter" to James Nutter of Newington, 25 Nov 1800 (Rockingham Co., Deed 221:4). He was living in Newington, 1790 with a son under 16 and three females. By the 1810 census he was head of a Milton household consisting of a wife, his age, a male 16-26 [b. 1774-1784], 2 females 10-16, and 4 females 16-26. He is the same Thomas Nutter who was in Rochester, 1800. [Milton was not set off from Rochester until 1802.] By the division of Thomas Nutter's estate, 16 May 1829, the following shared: Simon Chase, Aaron Downs, William Palmer, William Burroughs and Matthias Nutter (Strafford Co. Probate 61:53).

Children of Thomas and Margaret ( ) Nutter:

59 i. MATTHIAS[6], b. Newington ca 1784 (1800, 1810 census) [ca 1790, DR)

ii. MARY; m. Milton 7 Jan 1821 (NH VR) WILLIAM PALMER, b. ca 1795.

iii. (possibly) ——; m. SIMON CHASE, possibly the Simon Chase, b. 1786, son of John Chase, d. 1878.

iv. MARTHA/PATTY, of Milton; m. 29 May 1816 (EMSC, p. 241) AARON DOWNS of Milton, b. ca 1798.

v. (probably) ——; m. WILLIAM BURROUGHS, b. ca 1803.

21 JOHN[5] (Matthias[4], John[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), bap. Newington, NH 5 Jan 1745/6, son of Matthias and Hannah (Furber) Nutter; d. before Nov 1808; m. — — ?EDGERLY, possibly d. prior to 3 Apr 1794 when John Nutter's son, John Nutter of Gilmanton, upwards of 14, was placed under the legal guardianship of Samuel Edgerly of Barnstead, the sureties being Thomas and Ezekiel Edgerly (Strafford Co. Probate 4:92). John Nutter, Sr. may have been the John Nutter enumerated in Barnstead, 1790, head of a household consisting of himself, one male under 16 and 3 females. The minor, John Nutter of Gilmanton, is believed to be the same John Nutter who was living in Eaton, 22 Nov 1808, when with his brother Matthias they sold all the rights "in the estate of our honoured father, John Nutter, late of Barnstead, deceased" to Joseph Nutter of Barnstead, "meaning the farm where the said Joseph now lives." The deed was witnessed by J[no] Nutter and Ezekiel Edgerly (Strafford Co. Deed 77:8). Nutter genealogies heretofore have either ignored or confused this family of Nutters. Barnstead Genealogies, however, does provide some linkage between "Mathias, Jr." and Joseph P. Nutter, placing the former in lot 113, 2nd division of Barnstead and buried, as is Joseph P. Nutter, on the Blair Farm Cemetery. It seems likely that Deed 77:8 represents the surviving sons of a John Nutter, two of whose children were born ca 1780. If Joseph P. and Matthias Nutter were also born ca 1780 or after there is a question why no guardianship was established for them. Since the guardianship papers do not specify that the father John was deceased there is a probability that John, Jr.'s mother was the one who was deceased. There is no information about a marriage for John Nutter, Sr. Given the apparently close relationship of this family to the Edgerlys there is also some possibility that John Nutter, Jr.'s wife [or one of his wives] was an Edgerly. It is further suggested that this John Nutter is probably the man whose estate was administered, 29 June 1833, Nancy G./T. and Phebe Nutter serving as administratrices and Samuel Edgerly of Gilmanton and James Drew of Barnstead the sureties (Strafford Co. Probate 30:24). The administration dealt with the ownership of lot 110 in the second division of Barnstead, a lot originally owned by Matthias[4] Nutter and transferred to his son John Nutter, 4th of Newington, 13 Oct 1767 (Rockingham C. Deed 102:120). One might assume from the above that some of John Nutter's heirs were minors, explaining why the estate was not truly administered until many years later. The later inventory included his homestead farm in Barnstead, lot 110, in the second division, a lot originally drawn by Matthias Nutter. He was the "senior" John Nutter of Barnstead, yet his necrology is not included in Jewett's History of Barnstead. It is not understood why Joseph P. Nutter did not serve as administrator of this estate. Based on the three generation linkage of Nutters to lot 110 in Barnstead it must be assumed that Matthias[4] was the father of John[5] and grandfather of Joseph Place[6], John, Jr.[6] and Matthias[6].

Probable children of John Nutter, probably b. Barnstead, NH:

60 i. JOSEPH PLACE[6], b. 1779 (GS)
61 ii. JOHN, JR., b. ca 1780 (1850 census) [b. ca 1774, GS]
62 iii. MATTHIAS, b. probably Barnstead, NH 1780-1790 (1830 census)

iv. (possibly) PHEBE
v. (possibly) NANCY T.

22 JAMES[5] (James[4], John[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. Newington 15 Oct 1732, bap. there 29 Sept 1736, son of James and Abigail (Furber) Nutter, d. probably Newington; m. Newington 18 Dec 1755 ESTHER/EASTER DAM, b. Newington 18 Mar 1730, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Bickford) Dam, d. probably Barnstead. James and Esther Nutter owned the covenant and had their first child Ebenezer baptized at the Newington church 20 Nov 1757. James Nutter signed the Association Test during the Revolutionary War in Newington, 1776.

Children of James and Esther (Dam) Nutter, b. Newington, NH:

63 i. EBENEZER[6], b. 10 Oct 1756
ii. NATHAN, b. 1758, bap. 2 May 1759 (NHGR, 4:111), d. 1777, a Revolutionary soldier. "Nathan Nutter was a brother of Ebenezer, lived at Jethro Nutter's and died in prison at Halifax, Nova Scotia [a prisoner of war], and remains there" (History of Barnstead, p. 119).
64 iii. NATHANIEL, b. 5 Feb 1760
iv. ABIGAIL, b. 1 Aug 1761, bap. 25 Nov 1770, d. May 1786; possibly m. LEMUEL MASON. [SARAH, d. before 16 Nov 1786 when her husband remarried; m. Newington LEMUEL B. MASON, b. Durham Feb 1759, son of Robert and Susanna (Bickford) Mason, d. Moultonboro, NH 30 Mar 1851, aged 92-2. The above Abigail and Sarah may be the same person.]
65 v. JETHRO, b. 9 Mar 1764
vi. DOROTHY, b. 1 June 1778; m. HEZEKIAH DAVIS, son of Eleazer and Sarah (Cook) Davis of Madbury and Alton (Old Families of Salisbury and Amesbury, p. 718).

23 ANTHONY[5] (James[4], John[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), bap. Newington, NH 29 Sept 1736 (NHG Record, 3:156), son of James and Abigail (Furber) Nutter, d. possibly Barnstead after 1803; m. 1 June 1756 ("Mrs.") SARAH NUTTER of Portsmouth. As "Anthony Nutter of Barnstead," he gave surety, 9 Oct 1803, on the probate bond for the estate of his brother, John Nutter of Newington, son of James[4] (Rockingham Co. Probate 4383). There were two Anthony Nutters in Barnstead, 1810.

Children of Anthony and Sarah (Nutter) Nutter, b. Newington, NH (NHG Record, 4:109; Newington Families, p. 88; Cox, pp. 133-34):

66 i. WILLIAM[6], b. 13 Dec 1756, bap. 8 Mar 1757 (NHG Record, 4:109)
ii. ANTHONY, bap. 8 Mar 1757, d. Newington 18 Nov 1814, aged 62 (sic) (DR); m. (1) Portsmouth 30 May 1774 (Portsmouth, NH South Church Records, NEHG Register, Vol. 82:295)

SALOME/LOAMMY ROLLINS/RAWLINGS, bap. Newington 19 Apr 1747, daughter of Samuel and Esther (Bickford) Rollins (Rollins Genealogy, pp. 19-20), probably d. 1783-1787. The division of the estate of Joseph Rollins of Newington, Salome's uncle, names Salome Nutter, wife of Anthony, as an heir, 16 Dec 1783 (Rock. Co. Probate 4962). Through probate Anthony and Salome acquired land in Newington "by the highway" leading from Portsmouth to Knights Ferry. Portsmouth Tax Lists show an Anthony Nutter taxed there in 1784, 1785, near a Samuel Nutter (TR, 18, 18:649); m. (2) Portsmouth, NH 12 Jan 1787 (North Church, Portsmouth Records, p. 195 [Abigal Karvlings]) ABIGAIL ROLLINS, bap. Newington 8 July 1759 (NHG Record, 4:111) daughter of Samuel and Mary (Huntress) Rollins, d. Newington 2 Feb 1846, "aged 87 yrs., widow of Anthony Nutter" (Portsmouth Journal, Feb 7, 1846) [d. Newington 5 Feb 1846, aged 85 yrs., NEHG Register, 73:200; d. Newington before 9 Feb 1846, aged 87 (Exeter News Letter, 1841-1846, p. 165.)]. According to the Rollins Genealogy (p. 37) Abigail was called "Abigail Patten" in her father's 1800 will. This is an error in either transcription or interpretation as Abigail Nutter in a deed to Dennis Hoyt of Newington, 6 Sept 1838, identified Samuel Rollings, late of Newington, deceased, as her "father" (Rockingham Co. Deed 292:234). Anthony Nutter signed his will 5 Nov 1814 (Rockingham Co., Probate 9048), naming only his wife Abigail. Anthony is possibly the Anthony Nutter who was surveyor of highways in Newington, 1779-1807. However, the above Anthony was "of Portsmouth" when he and Salome received Rawlings land from her uncle's estate in 1783.

24 BENJAMIN[5] (Hatevil[4-3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), bap. Newington, 25 Nov 1744, son of Hatevil and Hannah (Decker) Nutter, d. Barnstead, 1832, aged 88 yrs. (History of Barnstead, p. 235); m. Barnstead or Newington 19 Dec 1778 (VR) MERCY TASKER of Barnstead, possibly Mary Tasker b. Durham 1759, daughter of John and Mary (Young) Tasker (History of Durham, II:355); m. (2) 1781 MARY/MERCY WALKER, d. 1830, aged 81 yrs. [Jewett (p. 136) states that Benjamin Nutter was married to Mercy Tasker by Rev. Joseph Adams of Newington, 1778.] He was the first town clerk of Barnstead, 1775-1781 and served on the Committee of Safety. His obituary in the Portsmouth Journal, 15 Dec 1832, referred to him as "Lt. Benjamin Nutter." He actually served as an ensign from Barnstead in 1776 (Newington, NH, p. 120). Benjamin Nutter first acquired land in Barnstead, 9 July 1778, when Stephen Pickering, collector of taxes, sold to Benjamin as the lowest bidder 99 acres of land in lot no. 33 in the second division of Barnstead, originally in the right of Hatevil Nutter, joiner. This land he conveyed to his son John Nutter, 3rd, 27 Apr 1812.

Children of Benjamin and Mercy (Tasker) Nutter, b. Barnstead, NH:

67 i. JOHN[6] [3RD], b. 3 Apr 1777

ii. ABIGAIL; possibly the Nabby Nutter m. Barnstead 1807 (NH VR) JAMES LOCKE, JR.

68 iii. NATHANIEL, b. 12 June 1781

iv. LOIS; possibly m. as "Louis" of Barnstead at Barnstead 1806 (NH VR) JONATHON PERKINS of Barrington, NH. Jonathon Perkins received eight acres of land in Barnstead from Benjamin and Masey Nutter of Barnstead, 13 Feb 1816, land "which fell to me as a legacy from my father late of Barnstead, deceased."

v. HANNAH; possibly m. Barnstead 1806 (NH VR) ISAAC PROCTOR of Salisbury.

25 HATEVIL, JR.[5] (Hatevil[4-3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), bap. Newington 7 Apr 1750, son of Hatevil and Hannah (Decker) Nutter, d. Barnstead before 1829 and buried there "in the old Nutter burying ground on C. S. George's farm (History of Barnstead, p. 118); m. Newington 11 Jan 1781 ESTHER DAM, probably b. 28 June 1750, daughter of Joseph and Mehitable (Hall) Dam, d. Barnstead 22 Aug 1829, aged 77 yrs. (NH Gazette, Sept 1, 1829). Hatevil may have been the Hatevil Nutter of Barnstead who signed the Association Test in 1776 and that year was a private at Ticonderoga (Newington, NH, p. 120). However, by 4 Aug 1778 he had returned to Newington where he joined the company of light horse volunteers commanded by Col. John Langdon on the expedition to Rhode Island. He received 12 pounds, 6 shillings, 8 pence for his service. Hatevil and Esther Nutter of Newington conveyed to Cyrus Frink of Newington the Newington homestead of his grandfather, Hatevil Nutter, which "fell to me by his [Hatevil's] will," the deed witnessed by Nathan W. Adams, Mary Adams and Mary D. Nutter, the latter the only known child of Hatevil and Esther (Rockingham Co. Deed 209:505). Deeds show him still of Newington but acquiring land in Pittsfield from William Munsey, 8 Jan 1813 (Strafford Co. Deed 202:6) and receiving power of attorney from his brother Benjamin in 1817 (Strafford Co. Deed 213:345). By March 1817 he moved to Pittsfield, NH and then to Barnstead. There are two Hatevil Nutters enumerated in Newington in 1790. One with 2 males under 16 and 6 females is probably Hatevil, b. 1748, husband of Susannah Shackford. The second, an older man, had two other males over 16 in his household. According to the 1790 census Hatevil and Esther were the parents of two sons and five daughters. Neither description seems to fit Esther Dam's husband, unless he was still living in his father's household and was one of the males over 16. If so, Hatevil and Esther had no sons, b. 1781-1790. It does appear that the Hatevil Nutter in Newington, 1790, was this Hatevil [son of Hatevil and Hannah], living there with wife Esther and daughter Mary Dam Nutter.

Child of Hatevil and Esther (Dam) Nutter:

i. MARY DAM[6], bap. Newington 25 Nov 1781, living in Barnstead Feb 1820, a singlewoman, sold one-third of an acre of land in Newington "formerly the property of Joseph Nutter, late of Newington, deceased which I purchased of John Moody of Scarborough (ME)" to Cyrus Frink (Rockingham Co. Deed 281:152).

26 NELSON DOWNING[5] (Anthony[4], Hatevil[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. Newington, NH 12 Oct 1746, son of Anthony and Mary (Downing) Nutter, d. after 19 Apr 1827 when he was "of Centre Harbor, NH," and had sold his one acre land holding in Farmington to Luke Furber (Strafford Co. Deed, 135:131). He may possibly also be the male, aged 80-90 yrs., living in the household of Samuel N. Nutter of Farmington in 1830. In 1790 Nelson D. Nutter was the head of a Rochester, NH household consisting of one male under 16 and 3 females. He was next enumerated in 1800 in Farmington, that northern part of Rochester which was set off as a separate town, aged over 45, head of a household consisting of a female 26-45 and a male under 10. In 1810 he was living in Farmington with no male children left in the family and only his wife, b. after 1765 and a daughter, 10-16, left at home.

Possible children of Nelson Downing Nutter:

70 i. NELSON[6], b. 1765-1784

71 ii. (probably) SAMUEL NELSON, b. b. 1777 (1860 census) or 1780-90 (1830 census)

27 JOTHAM[5] (Anthony[4], Hatevil[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. Newington, NH 22 May 1748, son of Anthony and Mary (Downing) Nutter, d. Rochester, NH Jan 1832, aged 84 yrs. (History of Rochester, p. 584), buried in Old Yard Cemetery; m. at Newington 9 Feb 1769 (NHG Record, 3:6) ELIZABETH DOWNING, possibly b. Newington, NH ca 1738, daughter of John and Patience (Ham) Downing, d. Rochester 22 Nov 1819, aged 77 yrs., buried Old Cemetery, Rochester (NH Colonial Gravestone Inscriptions, p. 114). She was the unnamed wife mentioned in Strafford Co. Deed 90:230. Jotham Nutter first purchased land in Rochester, 21 Sept 1769, from John Hoyt and Richard Downing (Strafford Co. Deed 18:308), being lot 11 in the second division which he purchased as a joint venture with Benjamin Hoyt. [The deed calls him "Jonathon Nutter of Newington." However, when he sold the land to Tristram Heard of Rochester, 7 Dec 1813, (Strafford Co. Deed 76:871) his references to the Strafford Co. book-page and the sellers of the property were the same as in the 18:308 deed.] The Association Test was signed by Jotham Nutter, 1776, in Rochester, indicating that he settled there not long after his marriage. It does not appear that he had any military activity during the Revolutionary war, however.

According to the 1790 census a Jon[a] (most likely Jotham) Nutter was the head of a household consisting of three males over 16, three males under 16 and four females. [Jon[a] Nutter was enumerated after Benjamin and Enoch Hoit.] By 1800 the household of Jotham Nutter included three males under 26 [1 under 10, 1 10-16, 1 16-26], and besides his wife, three females [1 under 10, 1 10-16, and 1 26-45.] Jotham Nutter was enumerated between Winthrop and Stephen Nutter in 1800 in what appears to be a separate grouping of Nutters. He sold his share of a mill at Norway Plain (Rochester) to Jonas C. March, 22 Apr 1816 (Strafford Co. Deed 90:230). The mill was co-owned by Joseph Hanson and Enoch Hoit. He is listed in Rochester town records for 1817, but not in 1820. It is apparent that Jotham Nutter was the father of a number of unknown children two of whom may have been James and Benjamin Nutter of Maine.

Known children of Jotham and Elizabeth (Downing) Nutter:

72 i. JOHN[6], b. Rochester, NH 20 Oct 1782
73 ii. (probably) (Daughter), mother of ENOCH HOYT NUTTER.
74 iii. (possibly) RICHARD, 3RD
iv. (possibly) BETSEY, b. 1789, d. [Rochester] 16 Jan 1866 (EMSC, p. 170); m. JAMES C. COLE, b. 1791, d. 11 Dec 1867.
75 v. (possibly) CHARLES, b. NH 1790-1800 (1830 census)

28 JONATHON WARNER[5] (Anthony[4], Hatevil[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), bap. Newington 7 Apr 1754, son of Anthony and Mary (Downing) Nutter, living in Newington 1800; probably m. DEBORAH [?WILLEY], b. ca 1756, d. Newington 18 Dec 1831, aged 75 yrs. (NEHG Register, 73:197). In 1790 he was head of a household consisting of one male under 16 and two females. By 1800, the household showed Jonathon and probable wife, both 26-45, no younger males and a female 16-26, b. 1774-1784. He served in Bartlett's Regt., N. H. Militia during the Revolutionary War (National Archives). [Also serving in the same regiment were Ebenezer Nutter and Lemuel Nutter.] There is a possibility that the male b. before 1790 was an unaccounted son who had left home before 1800. The only possible Strafford Co. deed for Jonathon Warner Nutter is one in which he "Jonathon Nutter of Newington, yeoman" along with Benjamin Hoyt of Rochester, blacksmith, received land in lot 11, 2nd division of Rochester from John Hoyt and Richard Downing, both of Newington, 21 Sept 1769 (recorded 25 June 1794) (Strafford Co. Deed 18:308). There are no Rockingham Co. deeds for Jonathon Nutter.

Probable children of Jonathon Warner and possibly Deborah ( ) Nutter:

i. ZEBULON DOE W.[6], bap. Newington 17 Sept 1780 (NHG Record, 5:78), son of Deborah Nutter, d. Newington 30 May 1811 (NH VR).
ii. (Female), b. 1774-1784

29 HATEVIL[5] (John[4], Hatevil[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), bap. Newington 18 Dec 1748, son of Maj. John and Anna (Symmes) Nutter, d. Milton, NH 25 Dec 1831, aged 83-0-13 (Fam. Bible), bur. Milton Mills Cemetery (GS); m. Newington 8 Mar 1781 (Fam. Bible) SUSANNA SHACKFORD, b. Newington 4 Dec 1756, daughter of Samuel Shackford, d. Milton, 13 Nov 1848, aged 91-11-9 (Fam. Bible). He was head of a Milton, NH family consisting of a wife his age, two males [one b. 1765-1784; one b. 1784-1794], and 5 females under 16 (1810 census). He was in Dover, NH by 1 June 1804 when he first acquired land in Milton and apparently did not make the move to Milton until 1810. Hatevil Nutter of Milton, husbandman, sold 1/2 of his dwelling in Milton on land in the 3rd division to William S. Nutter of Milton, 30 July 1810 (Strafford Co. Deed 65:374). Later William S. Nutter and John Nutter of Milton, husbandmen, quitclaimed for $1.00 33 acres in lot 37, 3rd division of Milton, to Peter Turner of Wakefield, 8 Sept 1817 (Strafford Co. Deed 104:303). Susannah Nutter, aged 80-90, was head of a Milton 1840 household. Susanna Nutter sold land received from her father, Samuel Shackford, 13 Apr 1846 (Rockingham Co. Deed 323:469). A Betsey Nield or Nutter, b. ca 1775, was living in the Aaron Hubbard 1850 Acton, ME household. There is an unknown RUTH NUTTER, b. ca 1789 (GS), d. Milton 19 Jan 1863, aged 74 (GS), buried in the Hatevil Nutter lot in Milton Mills Cemetery. She is not named in John Nutter's will of 1861 [see below].

Children of Hatevil and Susanna (Shackford) Nutter, b. Newington, NH:

76 i. WILLIAM SHACKFORD[6], b. 23 Dec 1781 (Fam. Bible)

ii. JOHN, b. 15 Jan 1784 (John Hayes of Dover, NH, I:155), bap. Newington 12 Sept 1784, d. probably Rochester, NH 15 Apr 1866, aged 82 yrs. 3 mos. (Ibid), buried with wife Lydia in Pine Hill Cemetery, Dover; m. possibly (3) "of Milton" 17 Oct 1825 (Strafford Co. Marriages, p. 385)) MARGARET (NEIL) GRIEVE of Dover, probably b. Portsmouth, NH, daughter of William and Margaret Neil, d. Milton 27 Aug 1827, aged 35 yrs., buried with her parents in Pine Hill Cemetery, Dover (GS); m. (4) Dover, NH 16 May 1833 (Ibid) [(int.) 5 May. Dover VR, p. 52)] LYDIA HAYES, b. Dover 25 Mar 1784, daughter of Aaron and Deborah (Wingate) Hayes, d. Rochester, NH 21 Feb 1850, aged 66 yrs. (Ibid); m. (5) after 12 Aug 1852 MARIA MELCHER, b. ca 1790 (GS) [b. ca 1804, 1860 census], daughter of John and Mehitable Melcher, d. 13 Sept 1873, aged 83 yrs. (GS, NH VR), buried with her brother, Sylvester Melcher, in Portsmouth, NH (GS). John settled in Rochester where, by will signed 2 Apr 1861 and probated May 1866, he made bequests to his wife, Maria; sisters Mary Nutter, Ann S. Jewett and Susan S. Nutter and Elizabeth Hart, brother, William S. Nutter, and heirs of his deceased sister, Abigail Hubbard. Nephews and nieces named were: (children of William S. Nutter) Mary Ann Nutter, Elizabeth Ford, Ruth Philpot; (children of Elizabeth Hart) Edward, Oliver, William S. and Cyrus F. Hart and Ann Gerrish and Susan Lord. Samuel Shackford Hart [of Milton] was the executor of the estate (Strafford Co. probate 75:204). John Nutter was a school teacher and a merchant. His widow Maria Nutter made her nephew John Melcher her beneficiary (Rockingham Co. Probate NS 1165). John and Maria signed a prenuptial agreement, 12 Aug 1852 (Rockingham Co. Deed 250:460, Strafford Co. Deed 211:236).

iii. ELIZABETH, b. 1786; m. Wakefield 17 Nov 1811 (NH VR) JOHN HART of Milton, son of Nathaniel Hart, 30 JOHN[5] (John[4], Hatevil[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. Newington, NH 5 Mar 1757 (1 Mar 1757, GS), bap. Newington 13 Mar 1757 (N.H. Gen. Record, IV;109), son of John and Ann (Simes) Nutter, d. Barnstead 8 Nov 1840, [aged 83, History of Barnstead, p. 236]; m. ELIZABETH/BETTY DAM, bap. Newington 18 Jan 1756, daughter of Eliphalet and Abigail Dam, d. Barnstead 24 Dec 1817, [aged 62, History of Barnstead, p. 236]. He enlisted from Newington, June 1775, in Capt Shackford's Co seeing service in RI, 1777. Reenlisting under Capt. Rollins' Co. he served at Bennington and Stillwater. He was a major in the Second Battalion 10th NH Regt. during the War of 1812 (Newington, NH, p.120). As a Revolutionary War veteran on pension, he lived with Ira Parshley in 1840 (N.H. State Papers, 30:394). This is most likely the John Nutter, Jr. of Barnstead who, in 1790, was head of a household consisting of 2 males over 16, 5 males under 16 and 1 female. He was called John Nutter, Esq. in deeds.

Children of John and Elizabeth (Dam) Nutter, b. Barnstead (VR):

31 JOSEPH SIMES[5] (John[4], Hatevil[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. 3 Feb 1762, son of John and Anna (Simes) Nutter, and bap. Newington 21 Feb 1762, d. Newington 2 Jan 1846 [d. Newington before 12 Jan 1846, aged 84 (Exeter News- Letter, 1841-1846, p. 161)]; probably m. ——. He is the Joseph S. Nutter who was enumerated in Newington in 1800, as head of a household with a probable wife aged 26-45 [b. 1755-1774], two males under 10 and a daughter under 10. He is not enumerated in Newington in 1810-1840. Cox (p. 137) gives no wife or family.

Children of Joseph S. Nutter, b. Newington:

i. (Son)[6], b. 1790-1800
ii. (Son), b. 1790-1800
iii. (Daughter), b. 1790-1800

32 ANTHONY[5] (John[4], Hatevil[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. Newington, NH 17 Feb 1764, son of John and Anna (Simms) Nutter, d. Barnstead, NH 1843, aged 79 yrs. (Barnstead Necrology, Portsmouth Journal, Feb 3, 1844); m. ANNA —, b. ca 1758, d. 1844, aged 96 yrs. (History of Barnstead, p. 237). He was still in Newington, 1790 (federal census) but in Barnstead, 13 Aug 1795, when he conveyed to his brother Joseph S. Nutter "all rights to the estate of my father in Newington" (Rockingham Co. Deed 142:214). He served in the Revolutionary War and the War of 1812. He lived in Barnstead on lot 9, 1st division in 1814 and also owned lots 38, 51 and 58, in the 1st division. He is undoubtedly the Anthony Nutter, the Revolutionary War veteran living on pension in Barnstead, 1840, aged 78 (N. H. State Papers, 30:394). Anthony Nutter of Barnstead, 68 years old, 28 Aug 1832, deposed that he enlisted under Capt. Titus Salter at Fort Washington in Portsmouth Harbor 1 July 1782 and served until 1 Jan 1783 when he was verbally discharged. In an additional declaration he further stated that he was born in Newington in 1764 and lived there until the close of the Revolutionary War when he moved to Barnstead where he has lived ever since (National Archives Pension S18143).

Children of Anthony and Anna ( ) Nutter (Barnstead Families - The dates below seem inconsistent for children of this couple):

i. ELIZABETH A.[6], bap. 1823
ii. JOHN A., bap. 1823.
iii. CAROLINE, bap. 1830.

33 RICHARD[5] (Samuel[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), bap. Newington, NH 11 Sept 1726, , son of Samuel and Sarah (Hoyt) Nutter, d. Rochester after 1806; m. ca 1747 TEMPERANCE NUTTER, bap. Newington 26 Oct 1729 (NHG Record, III:109,), daughter of James and Abigail (Furber) Nutter, apparently died before 1790 as there are no females enumerated in the 1790 household; possibly m. (2) 1790-1800 ——. He was a signer of the Association Test of 1776 signifying his opposition to British rule of the American colonies. Richard Nutter of Rochester, yeoman, conveyed to John Nutter also of Rochester lot 72 in the first division of Rochester "where I now live," 23 July 1798 (Strafford Co. Deed 34:358). By 24 Nov 1804 Richard Nutter of Rochester, tailor, conveyed half his estate to Richard Place of Rochester, gentleman (Strafford Co. Deed 44:421). The lot, in turn, was conveyed to John Nutter (Strafford Co. Deed 44:422), Richard's son, who had already received a conveyance of Rochester property from his father in 1798. Rochester town records show that Richard Nutter and John Nutter lived at Squamanagonnie Bridge (Gonic) in 1799. The latter Richard is most likely Richard[5] Nutter as Richard Nutter, Jr., and Richard Nutter, 3rd are also listed in 1799 Rochester TR. Since Rochester TR still refer to Richard Nutter, Jr. in 1806 there is much probability that the elder Richard Nutter was still living as late as that year.

Children of Richard and Temperance (Nutter) Nutter (based on uncited names of children which have been appeared in earlier genealogies by Henry W. Hardon and Winifred Lovering Holman):

i. ANTHONY[6], no further record.

83 ii. HENRY, b. ca 1748 (DR)

iii. ABIGAIL, b. 30 Oct 1753, d. ca 1820 (Wentworth Genealogy, I:382); m. 30 Jan 1777 (NH Gen. Record, 4:148) ISAAC WENTWORTH of Rochester b. there 29 Aug 1752, son of Richard and Rebecca (Nock) Wentworth, d. 1807. He was a Revolutionary War soldier and inherited the family homestead (Ibid).

84 iv. JAMES, b. 1765 (GS)

88 x. STEPHEN, b. 18 May 1775 (Farmington VR, I:193)

34 SAMUEL[5] (Samuel[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), bap. Newington, NH 8 Apr 1733, son of Samuel and Sarah (Hoyt) Nutter, probably still lived in Portsmouth, 1800; m. MARY ——. He was definitely in Portsmouth 25 Mar 1789 when he quitclaimed all his right to the Mansion house of his father to Dennis Hight of Newington (Rockingham Co. Deed 124:546). As Samuel Nutter of Portsmouth, 8 Sept 1796, he conveyed to Joseph Simes Nutter of Newington "land in Newington from the Newington line to Furber's Ferry...being part of my late father's estate set off in division." Both he and wife Mary acknowledged their signatures to the deed, 22 May 1800, Charles and Olive [Nutter] Tucker, their probable children, witnessing their signatures (Rockingham Co. Deed 156:386).[1] Earlier, 6 Mar 1793, Samuel and Mary with Olive Nutter as a witness, deeded "one-seventh part of land in the second division" of Rochester, NH to John Pierce of Portsmouth, merchant (Strafford Co. Deed 15:424).

1. He may have been connected to the first Samuel Nutter who settled in Ossipee before 1790.

Samuel Nutter, bap. 1733, is probably the Samuel Nutter who first appears in Portsmouth tax lists, as early as 1758, on the south side at Col. Meserve's farm, is called "alias Hoight" [his mother's name] (TR 16:278). This Samuel Nutter was evidently farming in Portsmouth, now on the north side, 1764 (TR 16:673). There was no record of Samuel Nutter in Portsmouth during the Revolutionary War era. However, he as "Samuel Nutter, Jr. of Newington," agreed to farm let for four years, 15 Mar 1775, the farm of Samuel Cate of Portsmouth in Greenland, purchased of Capt. James Whitten (Rockingham Co. Deed 107:304). This Samuel Nutter is probably the Samuel Nutter who appeared near an Anthony Nutter on the north side in 1784 (TR, Vol. 18), the same year [12 Apr 1784] that he and some of his sisters conveyed family property to their brother Charles (Rockingham Co. Deed 117:96). If not, it is Samuel Nutter, Jr., his probable son. Certainly 1790 and 1800 census records show a Samuel Nutter in Portsmouth. In 1790 the household consisted of two males over 16 and another under 16, plus five females. Since there is evidence that Samuel[5] Nutter was living in Portsmouth as late as 1796-1800 it is most likely that the latter is his household. He would have been ca 57 yrs. of age in 1790 and most likely the Samuel Nutter who was in Portsmouth as early as 1758 when he would have been ca 25 years old. It is assumed that his children were born in Portsmouth ca 1758-1778. The 1800 Samuel Nutter household included two adult parents over 45, a male 10-16, and two females 16-26 and 26-45. Apparently next door was Charles Nutter, 26-45 and a family consistent with the one which was found ten years later in Tuftonborough.

Known children of Samuel and Mary ( ) Nutter:

89 i. (probably) CHARLES[6], b. NH 1760-1770 (1830 census)

90 ii. (probably) MARK, b. Newbury, MA 1755-1765 [census, son's DR]

iii. (probably) OLIVE; m. Portsmouth 10 Jan 1796 (NH VR) SAMUEL TUCKER of Portsmouth. Olive Nutter and Olive Tucker witnessed two deeds for Charles Nutter of Portsmouth.

v. (Son), b. 1774-1780

35 LEMUEL[5] (Samuel[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), bap. Newington, NH 4 Mar 1739 (NH Gen. Recorder, 3:158), son of Samuel and Sarah (Hoyt) Nutter, most likely d. Durham, NH 27 Oct 1822, aged 82, "a pauper" [name is given as "Samuel" easily a misreading of "Lemuel"] (History of Durham, NH, I:396); m. say 1762-1765 MARGARET ——, who joined the church at Greenland, 29 Mar 1767 (Cox, p. 138). He served as a private in the American Revolution, enlisting 2 June 1775 at the age of 35 (Newington, NH, p. 120). As Lemuel Nutter of Portsmouth, yeoman, he conveyed to [his brother] Christopher Nutter, of Newington, yeoman, "all rights to the estate of Samuel Nutter of Newington, gentleman, deceased," 7 Apr 1775 (Rockingham Co. Deed 117:98). It appears that by 1790 he had re-settled in Durham, as a lone adult, living next to Christopher Nutter, his probable son. Later, Lemuel "of Durham" purchased land and dwelling in Durham from John Sullivan, 27 Oct 1791 (Strafford Co. Deed 24:97). The Lemuel Nutter of Portsmouth, 1790, was, then, his son, Lemuel Nutter, Jr., who in 1793 was listed as having a farm and paying 5 pounds, 13 shillings in tax (Portsmouth TR, 19: 542). It is possible that another son of Lemuel, Sr. was enumerated [over 16] in Portsmouth with Lemuel, Jr. in 1790. With the Greenland connection for Margaret there is also a possibility that some of the "unconnected" Nutters who married in Greenland, were her daughters. For this reason a number of the unconnected Nutters with Greenland associations are tentatively assigned to Lemuel and Margaret.

Children of Lemuel and Margaret ( ) Nutter:

i. (possibly) NATHANIEL[6], appeared on Greenland rate lists in 1781 and 1782. The only Nutter on the rate lists prior to this was Samuel Nutter, 1775-1778. Nathaniel Nutter was voted "wood corder" in the town of Newington, 1783 (Newington TR, I:125). Two Nathaniel Nutters were enumerated in Deerfield, NH, 1790, both heads of a household consisting of a male over 16, two males under 16 and two females. [They were most likely the same man, enumerated twice by mistake.] By 1793 Nathaniel Nutter and Dudley Nutter were on tax lists in Deerfield, NH, as well as on similar lists in 1796. One Nathaniel Nutter received land from Clement March, et al.

ii. (possibly) KEZIAH/"HEZEKIAH", d. Lancaster, NH 11 May 1817, aged 55 yrs. (Fam. record); m. Greenland 5 Dec 1782 (TR I:289) PHINEAS HODGDON, b. 10 Feb 1758/59, son of Phineas and Olive (Ayers) Hodgdon, d. Lancaster 21 Feb 1845, aged 86 yrs. These records were supplied by Nancy L. Dodge of Colebrook, NH, a descendant who gives Keziah's names as "Keziah D." and "Margaret." Children (HODGDON): Moore Rupert, bap. Lancaster 6 Sept 1795, Phineas, bap. Lancaster 6 Sept 1795, Margaret J., bap. 6 Sept 1795, John Weeks, b. 1793, d. 1854, Olive Ayers, Thomas Lang, b. 1797/8, Polly, bap. 16 Sept 1802, Sarah/Sally Cate, b. ca 1803, d. 1843, Dudley Nutter, bap. 5 Sept 1806.

91 iii. (probably) LEMUEL, JR.[6], b. July 1766 (GS)

iv. (possibly) ALICE MARIA/ELLIS, b. Greenland 19 July 1767, d. North Haven, ME ca 1849; m. Greenland 1 Mar 1789 (NH VR) JAMES LOWELL FRYE [marriage record reads "Ellis Nutter" and "James Lowell"], b. Kittery/Eliot, ME 18 Apr 1763, son of Joseph and Susanna (Knowlton) Frye, d. North Haven, ME June 1853 (Frye Genealogy, p. 20). This couple was in Hancock Co., ME by 1800 first settling in Prospect before going to North Haven. By 1790 a James McDaniel and family was in Vinalhaven. James may possibly have been the husband of Sarah, daughter of Samuel and Sarah (Hoyt) Nutter. If so Alice would have been a possible niece to Sarah.

v. (possibly) CHRISTOPHER, b. ca 1775, d. Newington 21 Oct 1830, aged 55 yrs. (NEHG Register, 73:197); probably m. Newington 19 Sept 1802 (NH VR) NANCY WIGGIN. He is enumerated in Newington, 1830, by himself, enumerated between Winthrop and Gilbert Pickering. There was a Winthrop Pickering, bap. Newington 1 Mar 1740, son of James and Mary (Nutter) Pickering, d. before 5 Aug 1783 (Probate) who m. 8 Sept 1761 an unindentified PHEBE NUTTER, b. ca 1738, d. Newington 21 July 1812, aged 74 yrs. (VR).

92 vi. (possibly) DUDLEY, b. 1770-1780 (1830 census)

36 CHRISTOPHER[5] (Samuel[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), bap. Newington, NH 18 Mar 1755, son of Samuel and Sarah (Hoyt) Nutter, d. Barnet, VT, possibly by 1810 when he is no longer enumerated as head of household; m. Newington 21 Mar 1771 (Strafford Marriages, p. 383) MARY LEIGHTON, probably d. ("wife of Christopher Nutter") Lancaster, MA prior to 5 Feb 1820 (Vital Records from Maine Newspapers, 1785-1820, p. 439). He was in Durham, NH, 1790, head of a household consisting of himself, two boys under sixteen and two females. There is some possibility that he may have had older sons who were "farmed out" when the 1790 census was taken. Otherwise he had only two sons. In 1800 only Christopher and Obadiah Nutter are shown as heads of household in Barnet, VT. The reference to "Lancaster, MA," above, is probably an error for Lancaster, NH, where several sons of Abner Nutter settled.

Children of Christopher and Mary (Leighton) Nutter:

i. JOEL[6], b. ca 1774 (DR), d. Barnet, VT 14 Sept 1830, aged 56 yrs. (VT VR). Had son: JOEL, JR., an adult in 1818

ii. MARGARET, still living in Durham, 25 May 1835, when she was a grantor of land there (Strafford Co. Deed 165:115). She was "of Newburyport, MA" 30 Oct 1818, when she, a "single-woman," signed a deed at Ryedale, Caledonia Co., VT conveying property in Durham, NH which she received as an heir to her sister, Catherine Snell. The deed was witnessed by Joel and Joel Nutter, Sr. and Jr. (Strafford Co. Deed 105:148).

iii. CATHERINE; probably m. (1) —— COE/KEHOE; m. (2) Durham, NH 23 Aug 1803 (History of Durham, II:245) JOHN SNELL, b. ca 1774, son of John and Elizabeth (Jones) Snell. Although Stackpole gives "Katherine's" name as "Kehoe," an uncommon name for Durham, Catherine's sister Margaret transferred land formerly belonging to Catherine to Joseph Coe of Durham in 1818.

93 iv. (possibly) ABNER, b. ca 1771

v. ALICE, b. before 1775 (1820 census); m. JOHN HIGHT of Newington and Barnet, b. 27 Nov 1768, bap. Newington 19 Feb 1769, son of Dennis and Elizabeth (Fabyan) Hight, d. Barnet 4

Jan 1826 (VT VR). The Hights were in Barnet, 1820, both over 45.

vi. SARAH; m. Barnet 4 Dec 1800 (VT VR) WALTER BROCK, JR.

94 viii. OBADIAH, b. before 1775 (1820 census)

95 vii. SAMUEL, b. 1778

ix. (probably) HANNAH "of Barnet"; m. Peacham, VT 4 Nov 1802 (VT VR) ROBERT BROCK, JR.

37 CHARLES[5] (Samuel[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. Newington, NH, son of Samuel and Sarah (Hoyt) Nutter, probably d. Portsmouth 1784-1790; m. MARY ——, probably the Mary Nutter enumerated in Portsmouth, 1790, next to Samuel Nutter, Jr. Charles, called "of Newington, gentleman," was the recipient of most of the estate of Capt. Samuel Nutter of Newington, first from his brother-in-law and sister, Enoch and Deborah Huntress of Rye, 1777 and then 12 Apr 1784 from siblings Samuel Nutter, Betty Walker, Miriam Nutter and nieces Temperance and Lois Trickey (Rockingham Co. Deed 117:96). The property conveyed bordered on the highway leading from Newington to Furber's Ferry. He then, the following day, along with wife Mary, sold the property to Patience Dame, widow, and Joseph Hight (Rockingham Co. Deeds 117:93, 94). Given the marriage year 1725 for his parents it would be assumed that Charles Nutter was born by 1755 at the latest. Census records would indicate that the brothers Charles and Samuel Nutter lived next-door to one another in Portsmouth.

Child of Charles and Mary ( ) Nutter, b. Newington:

i. (probably) SAMUEL, JR.[6], b. ca 1759, d. Portsmouth 13 Oct 1837, age 78 yrs. (St. John's Church Records, Portsmouth, p. 248, Vaughan, NEHGS Library, Boston); m. Portsmouth 14 Aug 1784 (North Church Records) MARY HUNTRESS, probably d. Portsmouth ("Mrs. Mary Nutter") 2 May 1847, age 85 years [b. ca 1762] (St. John's Church, p. 253). He was enumerated in Portsmouth, 1790, head of a household with 5 females. With the exception of the marriage and death records there are no other apparent records, including census, land or probate, for Samuel and Mary (Huntress) Nutter.

38 WILLIAM[5] (?Valentine[4], Henry[3], *Anthony*2, Hatevil[1]), possibly b. Portsmouth, NH, son of Valentine and Mary (?Cotton) Nutter, d. New York City before 1760; m. SARAH GILMORE, probably d. by 1771. He was a carpenter and a freeman, in New York City, 1755 (New York Historical Society, Vol 18, 1885, F116 N63). The same year he appeared on the city tax rolls. By 1760 he was shown in Harlem. On 5 Apr 1760 Lawrence Kortright, who had land claims in Harlem, through his will gave his property to Sarah Gilmore, wife of William Nutter. In a second will the same year Kortright claimed that Sarah had obtained his land "from me by fraud and circumvention and without consideration, the same." The right of Sarah Nutter to Kortright's lands was contested by his heirs, his sisters and a brother. In 1771, Valentine Nutter, her "only child and son," filed an ejectment suit over this property, lots from 109th to 114th Streets. His family released their claims to it in 1789 and 1799. An unidentified William Nutter served in Col. Alexander MacDougall's First New York Regt. Under Capt. Abraham A. Van Wyck, 24 Feb-31 Mar 1776 (Card #35437775, microfilm reel 661). If the William Nutter of New York City was not from Portsmouth, NH there is a possibility that that man married a SARAH —, who as the widow Sarah Nutter remarried at Portsmouth m. 1 June 1756 ANTHONY[5] NUTTER, bap. Newington, NH 29 Sept 1736 (NHG Record, 3:156), son of James and Abigail (Furber) Nutter.

Child of William and Sarah (Gilmore) Nutter, b. New York City, NY:

96 i. VALENTINE[6], b. ca 1741

39 ANTHONY[5] (Valentine[4], Henry[3], *Anthony*2, Hatevil[1]), b. Portsmouth, NH son of Valentine and Mary (?Cotton) Nutter, probably d. Portsmouth 1773 (Notices from The New Hampshire Gazette, Hunterdon House, 1970, p. 51). Although there are no land records for him he was a Portsmouth tax payer from as early as 1758 (TR 16:253) when he is shown as living on the "north side" of the town. In 1758 he and his mother Mary were the only Nutters taxed in Portsmouth. He was Anthony Nutter of Portsmouth, shipwright, who brought a claim against Josiah Clark of Nottingham, NH, administrator, for the upkeep and maintenance of a child of Richard Greeley's, 8 June 1769. The claim included the testimony that he had taken care of the child for two and a half years and expected compensation in the amount of 39 pounds. The jury awarded him 20 pounds, 16 shillings (NH Archival court case 17925). The child was his sister Agnes (Nutter) Greeley's child.

There is an assumption by Janet Ireland Delorey (The Maine Genealogist, 18, no.1, pp. 9-20) that Anthony Nutter of Wiscasset was the son of Richard and Temperance (Nutter) Nutter of Rochester, NH. She quotes a memorandum supposedly written by a Nutter descendant, Asa W. Plumstead of Wiscasset, and "dated at Wiscasset 17 Sept 1911 and now in the possession of Charles S. Morgan: 'Mother's grandfather Nutter came from Portsmouth, NH... Had a brother Valentine [written in another hand]'." Mrs. Delorey makes the case that since there is no evidence of a marriage or probate record for this Anthony Nutter it is unlikely that he had any children. She instead believes that the most likely "Anthony Nutter" to have settled in Pownalborough/Wiscasset was Anthony Nutter, claimed to have been the first son of Richard and Temperance (Nutter) Nutter, and probably born early enough in the 1750s to have been the man to marry in Pownalborough in 1775. She further establishes a Portsmouth link for this Anthony through his mother's brother Anthony, son of James and Abigail (Furber) Nutter of Newington. This Anthony married in Portsmouth 30 May 1774 Loamy/Salome Rollins. Mrs. Delorey further cites a linkage between Anthony of Rochester, NH and "Richard Nutter of Hallowell," brother to Ichabod Nutter of Hallowell.

Without primary records it is hard to develop the parentage of Anthony Nutter of Pownalborough with any certainty. This writer feels the weight of evidence is against Anthony being a son of Richard and Temperance and more in favor of finding a true Portsmouth family for Anthony's parentage. There are two major pieces of the puzzle that seem important. First, to the question of Anthony Nutter of Portsmouth ever marrying there is evidence that he did maintain a separate domicile for himself, apart from his mother in 1758. Also, like his brothers Henry and Jacob who were residents of Portsmouth, he did not acquire land or property himself, nor did he leave any probate record. We also know that his family had solid roots in the North Church of Portsmouth where his father had had a pew and his brother Henry baptized his children. There is one North Church baptism for an unnamed Nutter in 1752. Given the extensiveness of baptisms for the grandchildren of Valentine and Mary (?Cotton) Nutter in Portsmouth North Church records there is some possibility that this Nutter child could have been the child of Anthony Nutter, who is the oldest son of Valentine to have remained in Portsmouth. As to the connection between Richard and Temperance's sons, Ichabod and Richard, both being in Hallowell at the same time this is not true. The Richard who was in Maine in 1800 was living in Kinsman Town, an early name for Athens, where another Richard Nutter, a NH native, settled as early as 1797 (1800 census). However, one other major piece of this puzzle revolves around the second Pownalborough settler, Valentine Nutter. The latter seems to have arrived in town much later than Anthony. Whether or not he was a brother it is obvious that he was a close kin, whose estate was settled by Anthony and whose wife was also a kin to one of Anthony's sons-in-law. For this man to have the name "Valentine Nutter" it is highly likely that he was, himself, a grandson of Valentine[4] of Portsmouth. Again, the most likely son of Valentine to have himself named a son "Valentine" would have been Anthony[5] who died a few years before Anthony Nutter was to marry in Pownalborough, and where a younger brother might have been expected to follow.

Possible children of Anthony Nutter, b. Portsmouth, NH:

97 i. ANTHONY[6], possibly bap. Portsmouth North Church 5 Apr 1752 (NHG Record, 5:90), when there is a "Nutter" baptism noted.

98 ii. VALENTINE

40 GRAFTON[5] (Valentine[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. probably Portsmouth, NH, son of Valentine and Mary (?Cotton) Nutter, d. Tuftonboro, NH before 1790; m. 5 Mar. 1762 MARY CRETHORN, possibly b. Portsmouth 16 May 1741 (uncited source); (she) probably m. (2) "of Tuftonboro" 9 Apr 1794 Charles Wiggin. The History of Tuftonboro, NH (pp. 36-7) states that in 1788 13 persons were named as residents of Tuftonboro, including Grafton Nutter, Elisha Abbott [a son-in-law] and Edward Moody. Grafton (Graffam) Nutter of Wolfeboro acquired part of lot no. 2 in Tuftonboro, 3 Mar 1775 with the understanding that he "shall clear six acres of land thereon, fit for a family to live on (Strafford Deed 9:33). Later, 17 Sept 1784, Matthew Parker for Woodbury Langdon conveyed land in "Tuftonboro Neck" to Nutter since he had felled about "twelve acres of land in two years" (Strafford Co. Deed 17:260). Grafton Nutter enlisted in Capt. David Copp's Co. out of Wakefield, NH (Footsteps of Pride to the Past, Wakefield, NH, 1774-1974). His estate was administered, 23 Aug 1793, evidently several years after his death, widow Mary Nutter, administratrix; Nathan Hoit and Joseph Richardson, both of Moultonboro, sureties (Strafford Probate 499). The widow Mary ("Murry") is shown in the 1790 census with 2 males over 16 and 2 females. No evidence has been found to support the name "Crethorn" given to Mary by previous Nutter family genealogists.

Children of Grafton and Mary [Crethorn] Nutter, b. Portsmouth, NH (North Church Records, New Hampshire Genealogical Record, V:138, 183, 186, 189; Marilyn Nutter Pederson's records):

i. JOTHAM[6], bap. 30 Jan 1763; no further records in NH census records, possibly still living in Tuftonboro in 1790 in "Murry's" household.

ii. MARY, bapt. 16 June 1765; lived in Ossipee, NH as late as 22 June 1832 when she signed a deed for land in Ossipee (Strafford Co. Deed 153:579); m. (1) Portsmouth 2 May 1787 (VR) ELISHA ABBOTT later of Wolfeboro and Tuftonboro, NH, d. Tuftonboro between 13 June and 13 July 1822 when his will was signed and probated (Strafford Co. Probate 29:11); m. (2) before 6 May 1828 MOSES HANSON of Tuftonboro, settled in Ossipee, NH. Elisha Abbott of Tuftonboro purchased lot 6 in Tuftonboro from Woodbury Langdon of Portsmouth, 12 Dec 1794 (Strafford Co. Deed 37:41). The lot passed to Samuel N. Hanson of Meredith and Tuftonboro, NH, later of Ripley, ME through Moses and Mary Hanson (Strafford Co. Deed 145:209). Elisha and Mary were the parents of a son, Grafton Abbott, who sold his share of lot 6 to Moses Hanson, 11 Jan 1826 (Strafford Co. Deed 126:479).

99 iii. GRAFTON, JR., bapt. 16 Aug 1767 [b. 15 Nov 1767, Pederson]

iv. ANN, bapt. 4 Mar 1770; m. 1788 BENJAMIN PIERCE of Moultonboro.

v. (probably) BETSEY; m. Moultonboro 17 Jan 1796 (NH VR) ANDREW WIGGIN.

100 vi. JACOB, b. Wolfeboro, NH ca 27 Jan 1775 (DR), bap. at Wolfeboro 27 Oct 1776 (Lebanon, ME VR I:117)

41 HENRY[5] (Valentine[4], Henry[3], *Anthony*2, Hatevil[1]), b. ca 1740, [1741-1748, Guardianship record], son of Valentine and Mary (?Cotton) Nutter, d. 11 Oct 1813, aged 73 yrs. (St. John's Church Records), the 1813 tax lists show that "Capt. Henry Nutter" was dead; m. before 1765 MARGARET/MARGERY — —, b. ca 1743 (DR), d. Portsmouth 4 Mar 1788, aged 45 yrs. (First Congregational [North] Church Records, p. 96); probably m. (2) Greenland Aug 1789 (TR, I:289) HANNAH CUTTS, bap. Portsmouth, NH 15 Aug 1756

(NHG Record, V:136), daughter of John and —— (Newmarch) Cutt(s) of Portsmouth; d. Portsmouth prior to 19 Dec 1826, aged 76 yrs, (NH Gazette). Portsmouth tax lists show two Henry Nutters for the year 1764, living on the "north side" (TR 16:673). Both are called "Mariners." However, one is distinguished as "at Tanner," the second as Henry Nutter, Jr., most probably the younger of the two men. [Interestingly, death records for 1786 and 1813 would indicate that the two men were probably born the same year, 1741.] North and South Church baptism records help to separate the two men, however. North Church records are consistent in showing the births of Henry Nutter, later also identifying his wife Margery, from 1765-1783, and include the baptism, 16 Aug 1767 of "Rebecca Child of Henry Nutter, Tanner & Nutter," (NHG Record, V:186). South Church records show the baptism of Hannah, daughter of [the second] Henry Nutter, 3 Aug 1766 (NEHG Register, 82:50). The justification of calling Henry Nutter either Tanner or at Tanner the son of Valentine[4] and Mary Nutter has already been made through an analysis of North Church records. It is also established that the son of Valentine Nutter took William Earl Treadwell as his guardian in 1762, when he was upwards of 14.

Although there have been some suggestions that Margery Nutter was the daughter of Clement and Eleanor (Veasey) March of Greenland March genealogies do not include her. With the exception of one of her children, Clement March Nutter, all children were given a single name. It is most probable that there was no relationship between Margery and the March family and that the Nutters named a child for one Clement March who was a Portsmouth doctor and also prominent man.

There are no deeds for Henry Nutter of Portsmouth until Henry's marriage to Hannah Cutts. Henry Nutter, mariner, and wife, Hannah Nutter, of Portsmouth, conveyed to Samuel Cutts land in Portsmouth belonging to her father, John Cutts, 3 Feb 1791 (Rockingham Co. Deed 127:491). On the same day Samuel Cutts of Portsmouth, merchant, and wife Anna conveyed land in Portsmouth to "Hannah Nutter, wife of Henry Nutter of Portsmouth, mariner" (Rock Co. Deed 149:143). [Rockingham Co. Deeds, 128:293, 129:329, 141:290, 140:40 are also signed by Henry and Hannah Nutter, 1791-1795.] Hannah Nutter, widow of Henry Nutter of Portsmouth, deceased, conveyed, 18 Oct 1816, to John L. Cutts of Portsmouth, baker, one-half of three-fifths of a lot in Portsmouth, "being the land which my uncle Benjamin Newmarch" gave to his sister, Mary Lear (Rock. Co. Deed 211:274). Shortly after their marriage Henry and Hannah Nutter brought suit, in Oct 1789, against her brother, John Cutts of Portsmouth, cooper, to award Hannah the money promised by John Cutts of Portsmouth, cooper, [most likely her father, although he is not called as such] for services she had performed for him as a "maid servant for two years" and as "housekeeper for thirteen years." Although the couple sued for L140, they were only rewarded L15 (Rock. Co. Court Cases, Series A 11144). The fact that Hannah was called a "housekeeper" would add credulity to the assumption that Hannah was not a young woman at the time of her marriage.

Portsmouth census records do not show any consistency concerning the Henry Nutters who are enumerated there in 1790 and 1800. In 1790 Henry Nutter is shown with a wife and son under 16. Given the above synopsis Henry and Hannah would either have been raising one of his sons or would have already have had a son of their own. By 1800, however, Henry is a man over 45 with a wife 16-26 [too young to be Hannah (Cutts) Nutter], two sons under 10 and a girl 10-16. It is difficult to understand where Henry's children by his first marriage were raised.

Henry W. Hardon in his Newington (NH) Families of the Eighteenth Century (2:69) places Henry, husband of Margaret ( ) Nutter, as the son of Henry[3] Nutter of Newington. This is partially confirmed by the baptismal record, "1736 Sept 2 Henry Nutter son to Henry and Mary Nutter was baptized" (New Hampshire Genealogical Record, 3:155). The known Henry and Mary Nutter of Newington of the time were Henry and Mary (Shackford) Nutter married 26 July 1703 (Op. cit., 4:12). Hardon's conclusion is called into question, not only by the date of the baptism, thirty-three years after Henry[3] and Mary's marriage, but also by the fact that Henry[3] Nutter of Newington's will, naming wife Mary, does not mention a son Henry. [See No. 17.]

An unidentified Henry Nutter of Portsmouth, yeoman, conveyed to Zebulon Robinson of Exeter, NH, land and buildings in Exeter (mortgage), 26 Mar 1816 (Rockingham Co,. Deed 208:420).

Children of Henry and Margery ( ) Nutter, b. Portsmouth, NH, baptized North Church, (NHG Record, vols. 5, 6 and 7):

i. MARY[6], bap. 6 Oct 1765 (5:184)

ii. REBECCA, bap. 16 Aug 1767 (5:186); probably m. Portsmouth 8 Oct 1784 (VR) BENJAMIN HOYT/HIGHT, later of Lee, NH. Benjamin Hight was of Lee, 30 Jan 1797 when he acquired a 50 acre farm on Stephen Stone Road from Daniel Shaw of Lee, Sophia W. Neal a witness (Strafford Co. Deed 34:320). The land was sold to Cotton Dockum of Tamworth, NH, 16 Dec 1800 by Benjamin and Rebecah Hight (Strafford Co. Deed 49:203). The only Hoyt in Lee, 1790, was William Hoyt. In 1800 the Lee household consisted of the parents, both 16-45, and one girl 10-16 and two girls under 16. Benjamin may have moved next to Milton where he (Benjamin Hoyt) sold a half-acre lot to William Neal of Portsmouth, 4 Feb 1813 (Strafford Co. Deed 74:301). There was also a Benjamin Hoyt in Tamworth, 1810.[1]

iv. SARAH, bap. 27 Nov 1771 (6:43)

v. HENRY, bap. 31 Oct 1773 (6:45). He is possibly the Henry Nutter, b. ca 1771. Before the War of 1812 Henry, 37 yrs of age, enlisted as a private in the 4th U. S. Infantry under Capt. Adams

1. Benjamin Hoit of Moultonboro, gentleman, sold land in Wolfeboro near Lemuel Clifford, 14 Feb 1809, to Ezekiel Hoit of Moultonboro (Strafford Co. Deed 60:316). By 18 Mar 1824 he sold further land in Wolfeboro near Joseph Hanson to Jonathon Copp of Wolfeboro (Strafford Co. Deed 120:449). Rebecca Hoit signed neither deed.

at Portsmouth, Sept. 8, 1808, similar to the date that William T. Nutter, probable son of Luke Nutter, enlisted in the same outfit. Aged 37 yrs. he was 5', 6" in height, had blue eyes, dark hair and light complexion and was a cooper by trade. He served under Capt. S. Wentworth, roll date 1813, and became an American prisoner of war, paroled and furloughed (National Archives Book 56); discharged from Wentworth's Co., 24 June 1814, term expired (National Archives, Book 666).

Children of Henry and Hannah (Cutts) Nutter, b. Portsmouth:

x. ——, "son of Henry Nutter," b. Portsmouth 17 July 1794 ("Remarkable Occurrences, [Portsmouth] Births and Deaths," by Dr. Joshua Brackett, p. 23) NH Historical Society Library, Concord)

104 xi. (possibly) NATHANIEL, b. 1799 (GS)

42 JACOB[5] (Valentine[4], Henry[3], *Anthony*2, Hatevil[1]), b. probably Portsmouth, NH before 1750 [b. 1741-1751 (Guardianship record, Rock. Co. Probate 23:375)], son of Valentine and Mary (?Cotton) Nutter, d. Eliot, ME 13 Apr 1813 (Capt. Elisha Goodwin's Record Book, NEHG Register, 97:270); m. probably Portsmouth before 24 Nov 1771 REBECCA ——, d. Eliot 8 Dec 1820 (Ibid). Jacob Nutter is shown in the 1790 census living in Kittery [Eliot was formed from Kittery] near John Rogers, Jr. and Daniel Goodwin. John E. Frost esatblishes that Jacob's brother Henry married in the 2nd parish of Kittery and lived there for some years (Maine Families in 1790, 2:210). In 1790 Jacob was head of a household which included 2 males under 16 and 6 females. Not indexed in the census of 1800 he appears again in 1810, head of an Eliot household consisting of himself and wife, both over 45 and one male 16-26, 1 female 10-16, 2 females 16-26 and 2 females 26-45.

Jacob Nutter was first a quartermaster in the American Revolution who enlisted in Capt. J. Shapleigh's company of Massachusetts State Troops. He was also reported in Capt. R. Follett's Company of Artillery at Kittery Point, 5 Nov 1775, discharged 31 Dec 1775. He later was in Capt. Tobias Salter's company of matrosses in NH State Troops, 17 Feb 1776 ("Eliot in the Revolution," Old Eliot, 1:145). As a member of the crew of the privateer brig, Dalton, [he was called "of Portsmouth Old Eliot, 8:147] he was captured 24 Dec 1776, taken prisoner, imprisoned at the Mill Prison, Plymouth, England and finally exchanged 15 Mar 1779 at Nantes, France. At Nantes, he again enlisted in the service and was aboard the Alliance in the fight against the British frigate, Serapis, 23 Sept 1779 (Ibid).

The year of his birth is also known to have been before 1751 as in 1765 the court appointed his relative, William Earl Treadwell of Porstmouth, his guardian. Also given his participation in the American Revolution it is assumed that he was at least 18 years of age when he enlisted in that war, putting his year of birth then before 1757. As North Church of Portsmouth, NH records show the baptism of Mary, a child of Jacob and Rebecca Nutter, 17 Nov 1771 (NHG Record, 6:43) it must be further assumed that he was probably at least 21 at the time of his marriage.

The administration on the estate of Jacob Nutter of Berwick, not filed until 13 May 1848, states that he died in Kittery in 1814. [The date reads "4 April February" (both months crossed out) 1814. It is assumed that the date is more accurately 13 Apr 1813, according to Capt. Elisha Goodwin's record.] He left a widow, who was deceased by 1848. Three children, assumed to be the remaining ones, waived their right of administration in favor of Arthur McArthur of Limington. The children who sought administration were Betsey Nutter, Rebecca Nutter, and Catherine Warner [believed to be Warren]. The sureties to the bond were James Nutter and Oliver Nutter, with Permelia Nutter witnessing the bond (York Co. Probate 14069). It should be noted that the sureties were the oldest sons of Jacob Nutter, Jr. Included in the administration of the estate is the petition of his heirs to claim their father's share of the "Burger" [Bergen] prizes, British ships taken into Bergen, Norway during the American Revolution.

Jacob Nutter was listed as a member of the Baptist Church of the North Parish of Kittery in 1809 (Old Eliot, 1:134). Appreciation is given to Earl C. Pike of Harrison, ME for some records used in this and subsequent sections on his line of descent from Jacob Nutter to Mary Parsons (Nutter) Brock.

Children of Jacob and Rebecca Nutter, b. Kittery Second Parish (Eliot), ME except for first child (Maine Families in 1790, 2:210):

i. MARY[6], bap. Portsmouth, NH 24 Nov 1771 (NH Gen. Rec.,, 6:43); m. Kittery 8 Oct 1808 (Kittery Records, II:135) HUMPHREY GRANT of Berwick 8 Oct 1808 (Old Eliot, 5:141). According to John E. Frost Mary (Nutter) Grant lived with her sisters at the "last of her life." Another Mary Nutter, aged 20-30 [b. ca 1790-1800] is shown as head of an Eliot household in 1830 (York Co. roll 52, p. 386). A Mary Nutter also d. Eliot 31 Dec 1837 (Capt. Elisha Goodwin's Record Book, NEHG Register, 97:270).

ii. REBECCA, b. ME ca 1773 (1880 census), bap. 29 May 1774; d. 1860. She and her sister maintained the family home in Eliot. There are no deeds of record for them. Their house, however, was "on the back road to Kittery," (Old Eliot, 3:143). Both were listed as seamstresses in the 1860 census. They lived in thier father's house on Goodwin Road. For a living they wove sheets for burials in the coffin shop at the corner of Goodwin and Frost Hill Roads.

105 iii. JACOB, JR., b. 1776 (GS), bap. 17 July 1776

iv. ELIZABETH/BETSEY, b. ca 1781, bap. 8 Aug 1781, d. Eliot 10 May 1875, aged 94 yrs.

v. CATHERINE, b. Berwick, bap. 9 Nov 1784, lived in Ipswich, MA, 1865; m. Eliot 8 Apr 1813 (Old Eliot, 9:58) JAMES WARREN. James and Catherine Warren of Eliot conveyed Eliot land to Samuel Warren of Berwick, mariner, 13 Dec 1813 (York Co. Deed 90:61). Later a Timothy and Catherine Warren, not believed to be husband and wife, were living in No. Berwick, 13 Sept 1837 (York Co. Deed 161:176).

vi. ANNA/NANCY, bap. 18 Oct 1786, d. before 1848; res. Eliot 1837, aged 46 yrs.

106 vii. JOSEPH, b. 1780s (census), bap 8 Aug 1790

43 EDWARD[5] (?Henry[4-3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. 1774-1784, possible son of Henry and Lydia (Marshall) Nutter, probably d. Portsmouth either after 1800 or Kittery shortly after 1810; m. Portsmouth 3 Jan 1790 (NH VR) SALLY GALE, possibly SALLY of Portsmouth m. Portsmouth 18 June 1803 (NH VR) ROBERT J. DILL or SALLY of York, ME m. there 5 Mar 1815 (Vital Records of York, ME, p. 202) JOHN STEVENS, JR., also of York. Portsmouth Tax inventories show him living in the middle section of the town, 1793, paying 9 shillings in tax (Portsmouth TR, 19:589). Edward was head of a Portsmouth 1800 household with wife his age and two males under 10 and 2 females under 10. The Edward Nutter in Kittery in 1810 may not have been the same man as the Edward of Portsmouth. The Kittery Edward was, according to the census, a younger man, 16-26, head of a household of three males [under 10, 10-16 and 16-26] and eight women [3 females under 10, 2 females 10-16, 1 female 26-45, 2 females over 45].

The Lydia Walker for whom a daughter was named is probably Lydia Walker, bap. Portsmouth 1738, daughter of Edward and Sarah (Nutter) Walker. Lydia Walker, an unmarried woman of Portsmouth, was the mother of Sarah, George and Dependence Walker and also mother of Nathan Drew, born 1760s-1770s. George Walker was an ancestor of the writer of this genealogy.

Children of Edward and Sally (Gale) Nutter, b. Portsmouth, NH (South Church Records, NEHG Register, 82:51):

i. EDWARD[6], bap. 24 Apr 1791

ii. (Child), bap. 29 Oct 1796

iii. LYDIA WALKER, bap. 9 Nov 1799

44 SAMUEL[5] (Henry[4]), b. probably Sanford, ME Sept 1776 (GS), son of Henry and Sarah (Patch) Nutter, d. Ossipee, NH 14 Mar 1856, aged 79-6 (GS); m. (No.) Berwick 14 Jan 1798 (NEHG Register, 74:261) [cert. 13 Jan 1798, Berwick VR, p. 37] EUNICE SHOREY, b. Berwick, ME 13 Sept 1775 (DR), daughter of William and Judith (Fall) Shorey [Death record gives father's name as "Fall" and mother as "Sarah."], d. Ossipee 7 Feb 1860, aged 84-4-25 (NH VR). She is named in the will of her father, William Shorey of Berwick, 10 Dec 1811-17 Feb 1823 (York Co. Probate 17118; Everett S. Stackpole, Old Kittery and Her Families, p. 728). Samuel Nutter is buried in the Nutter Cemetery on the side of the road leading from Chickville Church to Archer's Pond. A gravestone identifies his wife as "Eunice Shorey," but provides no dates for her. According to the 1810 census Samuel and Eunice had two girls born before 1800.

One matter of conjecture still remains regarding the birthplace of the above Samuel Nutter. Although the 1850 Ossipee census schedule gives his birthplace as "New Hampshire," it would seem more than likely that he was born in Sanford, Maine where Henry Nutter was residing as early as 1774 and where his residence was given for his Revolutionary War military service. For that matter, it would also appear highly likely that Eunice (Shorey) Nutter was also born in Maine, rather than "Massachusetts," as shown in the same 1850 census schedule. Still, there is a suggestion that this Samuel Nutter had a connection with Portsmouth, NH as his marriage notice appeared there. Also the mortgage on his Ossipee property including his home was handled through Wentworth and Joshua Winslow Peirce, merchants of Portsmouth, 8 Feb 1817 (Strafford Co. Deed 93:385).

Due to missing census schedules for Strafford Co. in 1800 and 1820 it is difficult to determine the exact size of Samuel and Eunice's family. However, it does appear, based on the 1810 and 1830 census schedules that the couple had probably four sons and five or six daughters. Three of the sons' names were Samuel, Jr., Thomas and Valentine. Valentine, by deed, identified Samuel Nutter as his father, 18 Oct 1845 (Carroll Co. Deed 9:33).

The first recorded deed for the above Samuel Nutter is 3 Feb 1801, when John Manning of Wakefield, NH, physician, conveyed 38 acres of land (lot 8) to Nutter, a husbandman, in Ossipee (Strafford Co. Deed 35:233). Although Samuel is called husbandman and yeoman in most of the land records he was called "Joiner" in an 1817 deed (Strafford Deed 115:207).

It is known that Samuel Nutter of Ossipee had a brother Thomas Nutter, according to Strafford Deed 93:385, in which Samuel sold land which he had acquired from his "brother, Thomas Nutter of Ossipee." The latter, a cordwainer, was "of Sanford", 19 Apr 1808 when he acquired an Ossipee "500 lot, no. 22," from Stephen Wentworth, his probable brother-in-law. Thomas Nutter, with wife, Ruth, sold his Ossipee land to his brother Samuel, 20 July 1815 (Carroll Co. Deed 21:487). No records are found for him in NH after this date. This probably coincides with Thomas Nutter's move to Exeter, Penobscot Co., ME.

The Wentworth Genealogy (1870, II:87-8) states that Stephen[6] Wentworth, the son of Richard and Joanna (Clark) Wentworth, was born in Berwick, ME in 1767, married Sally Nutter 22 Dec 1791, removed to Ossipee, NH and thence to Moultonboro and eventually Somersworth, NH, where the couple was living in 1850. The Wentworth children were named Theodore, Armittta, Mary, Joanna, Samuel, Oliver, Clark, Ruth, Charles and Stephen. In the 1850 Somersworth household were Joan Wentworth and Ruth and James Bunker. The evidence seems to conflict with the assumption in Newington Families (p. 79.) that Sally (Nutter) Wentworth was the daughter of Henry and Margaret ( ) Nutter of Portsmouth. Instead it is more reasonable to believe that she was rather the sister to Samuel and Thomas Nutter also of Ossipee, NH and of Sanford, ME. It is indeed likely that the Nutters of Sanford lived close to the (North) Berwick line and had some affiliation with the Second Church there, rather than the Sanford Congregational Church which was only established in 1786. Still, even though Sally named children Samuel and Charles, two common Nutter names, she did not name a child Henry.

Known children of Samuel and Eunice (Shorey) Nutter, b. Ossipee, NH:

In 1850 he was listed as a "laborer," in 1855 a "stonecutter," in 1865 a "gentleman."

Known children of James and Mehitable (Burnham) Nutter:

i. JAMES, JR.[6], b. ca Jan 1808, drowned near Crosses Island, found at Castle Neck 22 Nov 1827, aged 19 yrs. (Essex VR, p. 82).

iv. LUCY, b. Hamilton 10 Dec 1813 (DR), d. Beverly 16 Oct 1881, aged 67-10-6 (MA VR, 328:176); probably m. GILMAN D. ANDREWS, living at the Soldiers Home in Chelsea, MA, 1885.

including her siblings, George Nutter, John Nutter, Hannah Bray, Nancy Burnham, Sarah Herrick and her brother-in-law, Gilman D. Andrews.

viii. HANNAH, living in 1885; m. "of Essex" Gloucester 18 Nov 1840 (II:394) AARON W. BRAY.

ix. SARAH, living in 1885; m. Beverly, MA 13 Sept 1840 (VR II:221) HENRY E. HERRICK of Topsfield

x. (Female); m. ——. Her daughter, Mary L. Towne was living in Beverly, MA, 1885.

46 THOMAS[5] (Henry[4]), b. Sanford, ME ca 1784 (1850 census), son of Henry and Sarah (Patch) Nutter, d. probably Exeter, ME 1850-60. He m. probably in Ossipee, NH RUTH JONES, b. MA ca 1794 (1860 census) [NH ca 1794; ca 1780-1790, 1840 census], possibly daughter of Sarah Jones of Ossipee (1810 census), still living, 1860 in her son David J.'s Exeter, ME household. Thomas settled in Ossipee, NH by 1808 when he, still of Sanford, acquired land in Ossipee (Strafford Co. Deed 93:385). By 4 Apr 1809 Thomas Nutter of Sanford, cordwainer, sold land in Sanford, part of Chadbourne's Mills (York Co. Deed 80:188). He evidently acquired the land in 1806 (York Co. Deed 76:163). The first recorded deed for Thomas Nutter in Penobscot Co., ME identifies him as "Thomas Nutter of Ossipee, NH" when he purchased land (southern one-half of lot 4 in 2nd range in Exeter) from Oliver W. Champney of Boston, MA for $180, 30 June 1823 (Penobscot Co. Deed 8:210).

Thomas Nutter first appeared in the Maine census in 1830, head of a household containing his wife, six males under 20 years of age and two girls 5-10. By 1840 the household had added another boy 5-10 and had one less girl. [The male population was 1 male 5-10, 2 males 10-15, 2 males 15-20, 2 males 20-30.] Penobscot Co. Deeds 81:5, 103:468, and 120:380 show Nutters conveying the same parcel of Exeter land from 1836-1840. By 1850 the family consisted of Thomas, Ruth, son Jacob and his wife, Sarah, and their daughter Emeline. Their son, David, and his family lived in the same house. By 1860 the only Nutters in Exeter were Jacob and Andrew J. Nutter, living in separate parts of town.

Known children of Thomas and Sarah (Jones) Nutter:

114 i. DAVID J.[6] also called JAMES, b. NH ca 1817-1818 (1850, 1860 censuses)

115 ii. IVORY D., b. NH ca 1817/1820 (1850 census, 1860 censuses)

iii. (probably) NANCY "of Exeter"; m. 14 Nov 1839 (PenMR, p. 47) JOSIAH PARSONS of Plymouth, ME.

116 iv. JACOB, b. NH ca 1821 (1860 census)

117 v. JOHN S., b. Exeter, ME 18 Aug 1825 (DR, 1860 census) [4 Aug 1828, GS]

118 vii. ANDREW J., b. Exeter, ME 14 Mar 1829 (DR)

119 viii. EDWIN M., b. Exeter, ME 5 May 1833 (DR)

47 HENRY[5] (Henry[4]), b. Berwick, ME 27 Jan 1786 (DR) [ca 1785, U. S. Census, Essex, Essex Co., MA, 1850, Roll 314, p. 293], son of Henry and Sarah (Patch) Nutter, d. Essex 6 Feb 1864, aged 78-0-10 (MA VR, 174:171); m. LUCY STORY, b. Essex, MA Aug 1784 (DR), dau of John and Hannah Story, d. Essex 17 May 1872, aged 87-9 (MA VR, 247:211). He was a stonecutter in 1855. There is a possibility that it was this Henry Nutter who was on the tax inventory of Ossipee, NH, 1808, at a time his brothers Samuel and Thomas were also there (TR I:149). His taxes of .78 were abated in 1816 (TR II:449).

Children of Henry and Lucy (Story) Nutter:

120 i. HENRY[6], b. Essex 23 Feb 1809 (DR)

v. (possibly) LYDIA S., b. ca 1814 (DR), d. Salem, MA 22 Dec 1898, aged 84 yrs. (MA VR 481:598), buried Peabody, MA. She, aged 42, was listed as a servant, along with Mary M. Nutter, 35, in South Danvers (Peabody) in 1860.

122 vi. GEORGE P., b. Essex 14 Feb 1817 (DR)

vii. (possibly) BELINDA S. of Essex; m. Essex, MA 3 Mar 1843 (Beverly, MA VR II:221) ISAAC C. GROCE.

viii. ABIGAIL S., b. Essex 13 Oct 1821 (DR), d. Beverly 17 Dec 1903, aged 82-2-4 (MA VR, 3:259); m. Beverly, MA 12 Mar 1845 (VR II:221) GEORGE ELLIOTT, b. 20 Dec 1818, son of John and Abigail Elliott.

123 ix. CYRUS S., b. 21 Feb 1825

x. (possibly) LUCY E., b. Essex ca 1834; m. CHARLES A, BURNHAM, b. Essex ca 1831. The Burnhams lived in the same building as the George P. Nutters in 1855.

48 THOMAS[5], b. say 1765 , possible son of Thomas Nutter, d. Mt. Desert, ME before 1800; m. EUNICE ——; "widow Eunice Nutter" m. (2) (cert. pub.) Mt. Desert 19 Dec 1801 Alexander Robertson "a sojourner." Thomas Nutter was of Majabagwaduce (Penobscot) 29 Sept 1786 when he, a yeoman, and his wife Eunice conveyed land on Northern Bay in Majabagwaduce to William Turner, shipbuilder, for 60 pounds. [No grantee deed has been found for any Nutter in the area of Majabagwaduce.] The deed indicates the land in question abutted that of Daniel Perkins and William Nutter (Lincoln Co. Deed 20:42). In 1790 he was enumerated in Penobscot, near William Nutter. By 1800 he was again near William Nutter and Alexander Nutter, but now in the town of Mt. Desert, further north of Penobscot along the coast. (There is a report that a Thomas Nutter was in Castine as early as 1772 (Downeast Ancestry, Vol. 11, No. 3, p. 119). If so, there is some possibility that the latter was, in effect, the father of Thomas, William and Alexander Nutter. After 1800 there is no longer any census schedule for Thomas, however, there is one for Eunice Nutter in Mt. Desert in 1810. Thomas and Eunice were the parents of at least one male born 1784-1790, and possibly three girls who may have died or married before 1800.

The Nutters are enumerated in the 1790 census in Penobscot close to the Snowmans, Wardwells, Perkinses, Stovers, and Littlefields, all with earlier records in York, ME. Although there are no records of Nutters in York in the 18th century there were some in Berwick and Kittery, adjoining towns. There is a possibility that the Mt. Desert, ME Nutters had origins in one of these Maine communities, as well. It is noteworthy that they chose to live, while in Penobscot, in a settlement of York people. Census records show that Alexander Nutter, himself, who lived to an advanced age, gave Maine as his place of birth.

The first settlement by members of the Nutter family in the Hancock Co. area of Maine was before 1790 when William and Thomas Nutter appear in the census schedules of that year in Penobscot. It is difficult to judge the age of the men from the census listing. Thomas, it would appear was in his 30s, having another male over 16 in his household as well as 1 male under 16 and 4 females.

William Nutter is shown as head of a household consisting of himself and a female. The 1800 census schedules for Mt. Desert show both men, however, to be 26-45 [b. ca 1755-1774]. Thomas's wife was over 45 and there is one male 10-16 in the household. William's wife was 16-26, indicating that she may have been a second wife or William was living with a mother or female relative in 1790. William's household in 1800 consisted of a boy and girl both under 10. Given the ages of these children it is conceivable that Thomas Nutter was born in the late 1750s and William was born in the 1760s. The 1850 census actually narrows the date to "ca 1768."

Possible child of Thomas and Eunice ( ) Nutter (it is apparent that there were others):

i. (possibly) WILLIAM P.[6], b. probably 1784-90 (1800 census); m. Castine, ME 29 Oct 1812 (IGI) LYDIA COLSON, who possibly m. (2) Castine 17 July 1819 (IGI) Joseph Booden.

49 WILLIAM[5], b. ME ca 1768 (1850 census), possible son of Thomas Nutter, d. probably at Mt. Desert, ME 2 May 1855 (Mt. Desert Church Records, p. 285); m. (1) MARY/POLLY ——, d. before 1850; m. (2) SALLY ——, b. ME ca 1773, still living in Mt. Desert, 1850 (1850 census). There is one deed for William Nutter of Saturday Point, Hancock, ME purchasing land, 20 Nov 1790, from Edward Carter also of Saturday Point (Lincoln Co. Deed 26:230). William Nutter "of Mt. Desert" conveyed this Penobscot land in 1791 (Hancock Deed 1:257). Later in 1796, he conveyed 100 acres on the "north side of Mt. Desert, on Goose Cove and Duck Cove" [an area that is currently in Tremont] (Hancock Co. Deed 4:138). The only Edward Carter in the 1790 census was living in Ducktrap. William was living in Penobscot, 1790, and according to Mt. Desert history settled in the latter town in 1792. Regardless, records show that he, his wife and Polly of Penobscot were all "warned out" of Mt. Desert 1 Oct 1792 (Vital Records of Mt. Desert Island Maine, p. 81) and must have returned to settle at a later time.

Certainly the family was in Mt. Desert, 1808, when William Nutter was a claimant for land in the western moiety of the island purchased from the family of John Tinker who drowned in 1785 (Coll. of Maine Historical Society, Series II, II:441). William Nutter was admitted to the Mt. Desert Church, 13 June 1833 (Vital Records of Mt. Desert Island Maine, p. 285).

The consistency of information on census records for William Nutter of Hancock Co., Maine attests to his presence in that county from 1790 to 1850 when he is shown in Mt. Desert, aged 82 [b. ca 1768] with wife Sally, aged 77, apparently a second wife.

Known children of William and Polly ( ) Nutter, last three probably b. Mt. Desert, ME:

i. MARY/POLLY[6], b. 1790-1792, d. before 1850; m. (banns published and certificate issued) Mt. Desert 23 July 1811 (Mt. Desert VR, p. 26) JONATHON NORWOOD, b. there 10 Nov 1790, son of Stephen and Anna (Andrews) Norwood, d. before 1860.

124 ii. WILLIAM, Jr.

iii. (probably) ELEANOR, b. ca 1796; m. NATHANIEL G. RICHARDSON of Mt. Desert, b. ca 1793, in whose household William and Sally Nutter were living in 1850.

iv. (possibly) SAMUEL, b. ca 1796. At the age of 17 he enlisted in the War of 1812, 10 Aug 1813, serving as a private in the 34th U. S. Infantry, under Capt. Benjamin Poland. He was a farmer, 5' 6" in height, had gray eyes, light hair and light complexion. He was discharged at Plattsburgh, NY 27 Feb 1815 ("Enlistments U. S. Army, 1798-1815, vol. 18, "N," National Archives).

125 v. (probably) LEWIS, b. ca 1808

vi. (possibly) LEMUEL, b. ME ca 1812 (1850 census), probable son of Thomas or William Nutter, still living Bluehill, ME, 1860; m. (1) Mt. Desert, ME (int.) 30 Jan 1838 (Mt. Desert VR) CINDERELLY SEAVEY; m. (2) Penobscot, ME (int.) 4 Mar 1847 LUCINDA MARKS, b. ME ca 1810-1811 (1850, 1860 censuses). Lemuel was enumerated in Mt. Desert, 1830. Lemuel and Lucinda, a childless couple, were enumerated together in Castine, ME, 1850 and in Bluehill, ME, 1860, when he was a mariner.

50 ALEXANDER[5], b. ME ca 1770, possible son of Thomas Nutter, was still living as a farmer in Millbridge, Washington Co., ME, 1860, aged 90 yrs. (1860 census); m. (cert. pub.) Mt. Desert 1 Nov 1800 (Mt. Desert VR, p. 60) BETSEY KENT, b. ca 1773, d. Gouldsboro 5 Jan 1839, aged 66 yrs. (Early Families of Gouldsboro, ME, p. 201). [There is an earlier marriage intention between Alexander and Betsey 12 Sept 1798.] He is shown as one of the petitioners and actual settlers of the Isle of Holt (Hault), Deer Isle, Maine in the request that the permanent title to the land of the island be granted them in 1802 (Maine Hist. and Gen. Recorder, I:31). He is most likely the same Alexander Nutter who served in the 1812 Massachusetts Militia raised at Ellsworth, ME for service at Mt. Desert, Lieut. Col. J. Black's Command, 7-9 days in March-April 1813. Census schedules show him in Mt. Desert, 1800 [age 26-45, with an apparent wife age 16-26], 1810 and 1820, Harrington in 1830 and 1850 and Gouldsboro in 1840. In 1850 he was living in the same house as Reuben Nutter, a sea captain, aged 38 yrs. The proximity of Alexander to Thomas and William Nutter and his age suggests that he was probably the second "male over 16" living in Thomas Nutter's 1790 Penobscot household and that he was a brother to Thomas and William.

Children of Alexander and Betsey (Kent) Nutter, b. ME:

126 i. (probably) JONATHON[6], b. Mt. Desert, ME 1 July 1806 (Gouldsboro, ME VR)

51 THOMAS JOHNSON[5], b. ca 1767 (GS), d. Ascutneyville, VT 28 Dec 1820, age 53 yrs. (GS); m. MARGARET ——, b. 1770 (GS) [b. ca 1772, 1850 census], d. Weathersfield/Ascutneyville, vt 12 Mar 1855, age 85 yrs. (VT VR, GS). Thomas Johnson Nutter of Cornish, Cheshire Co., NH purchased from Dudley Chase of Cornish, 18 Apr 1795, a one-hundred acre lot in Cornish (Cheshire Co. Deed 27:578). He purchased two other lots in Cornish from George K. Sparhawk of Portsmouth, NH, 3 Nov 1795, Joshua Wyman and Samuel Penhallow, the witnesses (Cheshire Co. Deed 26:358). Shortly following this transaction Thomas J. Nutter conveyed parcels of land to Jonathon Wyman and Joshua Wyman in separate conveyances (Cheshire Co. Deeds 25:292, 27:72). The Wymans may have been a relation.

It is apparent that Thomas J. Nutter of Cornish was connected with a Johnson family which settled in Cornish, NH by 1781. These include Joshua, John and Abraham Johnson whose names along with Thomas J. Nutter's appear upon a 1791 deed (Cheshire Deed 21:154). Thomas Johnson of Newbury, NY [otherwise VT] received land in Cornish, 9 June 1781 from William Temple of Haverhill, MA (Cheshire Co. Deed 6:554).

By 12 Dec 1818 Thomas and Margaret Nutter sold their Cornish holdings and evidently moved to Ascutneyville where they were to remain (Cheshire Co. Deeds 80:89, 82:114)

52 LUKE[5], of Newington, NH, d. probably Kittery, ME before 1808; m. Kittery 5 Oct 1790 (Kittery Church Records, Vol. II, Part 2, p. 94,) BETTY/ELIZABETH TOBEY of Kittery, b. there probably 23 Dec 1769 (DR), daughter of William Tobey, d. Sanford, ME 9 Feb 1843, aged 73-1-17 (GS); m. (2) Kittery 12 Sept 1811 (Op. cit., p. 99) Aaron Witham of Kittery (1750-1841), as his second wife. Luke Nutter was living in Greenland, NH, 1790, when he was taxed 10 sh and listed in the tax inventory for one poll, no acreage or livestock listed (Greenland TR, pp. 352, 360). By 1793 he was shown in Portsmouth, a city adjoining Greenland, taxed 9 shillings (Portsmouth TR, 19:542, 589, 632) and by 1794, still in Portsmouth and taxed 6 shillings. (TR, 12:157, 162). As the Portsmouth 1793 tax inventory was separated by locations, "north, middle and south" it is noteworthy that Luke was shown in the northern section. He was a landless person. His placement in Greenland in 1790 is significant as this is the year of his marriage to Elizabeth Tobey when he was called "of Newington" on his marriage record. Elizabeth's father's name and the death of Luke Nutter is found in a York Co. deed which refers to the estate of William Tobey of Kittery, ME. The division of the estate of William Tobey of Kittery [not identified in Old Kittery and Her Families] was among Josiah Tobey, Elizabeth Nutter, William Tobey, John Woodman and Andrew Tobey, all of Kittery, 30 Apr 1808 (York Co., Deed 87:263). Elizabeth Nutter of Kittery, widow, conveyed to William Tobey of Kittery, fisherman, her "proportion" of the estate of her father William's estate, 7 Jan 1811 (York Co. Deed 142:242).

There is a possibility that Luke Nutter with his Greenland connection was a son of Lemuel[5] and Margaret ( ) Nutter. According to Portsmouth tax inventories he would not have settled in Kittery until 1795.

The 1800 U. S. census for Maine (p. 814) shows Luke Nutter as the head of a Kittery household consisting of himself, aged 26-45, his wife of the same age, 2 males over 16, 2 males under 10, and 2 females under 10. There are no other records found for him. Oddly enough he does not show up in the 1790 census for Maine, NH or MA, even though the ages of two males in his household would indicate that he probably was married and the father of both boys before 1790.

Elizabeth Nutter is not shown as a head of household in any census index. The 1800 census shows only two Nutters in Kittery, Luke Nutter and Jacob Nutter, the identified son of Henry and Margaret ( ) Nutter. Later the 1810 census shows an Edward Nutter in Kittery, a young man, 16-26, as head of a household of three males [ages under 10, 10-16 and 16-26] and eight women [3 females under 10, 2 females 10-16, 1 female 26-45, 2 females over 45]. There not being any Tobey households in Kittery in 1810 it is possible that Elizabeth (Tobey) Nutter was living with Edward Nutter, giving some indication that Luke and Edward were closely related. The two females 10-16 are certainly consistent with the two females under 10 in the 1800 household of Luke Nutter of Kittery. The last known record for Elizabeth Nutter was York deed 142:242, signed a few months before she married Aaron Witham.

It is possible that the above Edward Nutter of Kittery was the son of Luke Nutter and that Elizabeth (Tobey) Nutter was the mother of Edward and widow of Luke. If so, Edward would have had a number of brothers who are unidentified. It is noteworthy that South Church Portsmouth, NH records show the baptisms of three children of Edward Nutter from 1791-1796.; i.e., Edward Nutter, Lydia Walker Nutter and an unnamed Nutter child (NEHG Register, 82:91). The Edward Nutter of Kittery, 1810, was 16-26, probably about 25 years of age and born ca 1785. If he were Edward, son of Edward Nutter of Portsmouth, he would have been at least 19, (bap. 1791). There is a possibility that these two Edwards are the same. However, it seems unlikely that a 19 or even 21 year old young man would have been considered the head of a household as large as the Edward Nutter household of Kittery, 1810. It seems more likely that this is another, still unidentified Edward Nutter, but possibly related to the unidentified Edward of Portsmouth.

Interestingly enough, Aaron Witham's first wife was Jerusha Dam, bap. Kittery 30 Nov 1746 (Old Kittery, p. 337), daughter of Jonathon and Abigail (Nutter) Dam. Abigail, herself, was the daughter of Hatevil[3] and Leah (Nute) Nutter. By 1820 the Withams settled in Sanford where two of his brothers, Moses and Jacob, had already settled. [See Frederick R. Boyle, Early Families of Sanford-Springvale, Maine, 1988, p. 323 for further coverage of Aaron Witham.]

53 MATTHIAS[6] (Matthias[5-4], John[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. Newington, NH, probably ca 1765, son of Matthias and Martha (Perkins) Nutter of Newington; m. Durham, NH 26 June 1788 (NH VR) ELIZABETH/BETSEY COLBATH, bap. Newington 13 Nov 1763 (NHGR 4:154), daughter of Pitman and Jane (Hodgdon) Colbath/Coolbroth. The couple was called "inhabitants" of Lubec when their children's births were recorded there. He was enumerated in Durham, NH, 1790, in Eastport, Washington Co., ME, 1810 and in Lubec 1820 and 1830. Matthias and Elizabeth Nutter of Durham, Jan 1793, conveyed property received from the last will and testament of Col. Downing of Newington (Rockingham Co. Deed 134:430). It is apparent that the earliest births occurred other than in Lubec, most probably the first three in Durham by 1793. According to the 1790 census there were probably two infants in the household, a boy and girl.

Children of Matthias and Betsey (Colbath) Nutter (Downeast Ancestry, Vol. 10, No. 3, p. 104), first three probably b. Durham, NH:

136 i. JAMES[7], b. 17 Nov 1788

Henry Adams, p. 406; Bartlett; GS), daughter of Benjamin and Abigail (Pickering) Adams, d. Portsmouth 7 Aug 1823 (GS). He was a ship captain and joiner, a trade by which he was identified in Portsmouth tax listings. He was living in the Middle section of Portsmouth 1793-1795, a taxpayer who paid 3 pounds, 4 shillings in Tax in 1793 (Portsmouth TR, 19:589). Abigail's will (Rockingham Co. Probate 10700) named or mentioned sons, Franklin and George, daughters Martha Bailey, Abigail Deluse and Mary Bailey, as well as son-in-law, Thomas D. Bailey. None of George's children shared in the distribution of William W. Nutter's estate in 1885 and were thus known to have died before then. Land records show that George first acquired his land in Portsmouth 19 May 1788 from Benjamin and Lydia Dearborn. The property on Water Street included a lot which had belonged to Nathaniel Marshall, deceased (Rockingham Co. Deed 123:510).

Children of George and Abigail (Adams) Nutter, b. Portsmouth, NH (History of Henry Adams, Andrew N. Adams, 1898, p. 421):

Probate 10648). His mother Abigail was given all his personal estate, as well as one quarter part of the Schooner Rambler.
v. MARY ADAMS, b. Sept 1798, d. 7 Mar 1853; m. 1814 JOSEPH BAILEY of Portland, ME, b. 1776, d. 1824.

55 JOHN[6] (Matthias[5-4], John[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), son of Matthias and Martha (Perkins) Nutter, b. Newington, NH 1770-1780 (1830 census), d. Lubec, ME 6 Feb 1840 (VR); m. Lubec 21 Nov 1808 (Leighton Genealogy, p. 89) HANNAH LEIGHTON, b. Dennysville, ME 1784, daughter of Hatevil and Martha (Denbow) Leighton. He was enumerated in Plantation No.2, Washington Co., ME, 1810 and in Lubec, 1820 and 1830. Two children are recorded for him in Lubec, ME both births having occurred in Plantation No. 2. The 1830 census shows Hannah Nutter was head of a Lubec household in 1840.

Children of John and Hannah (Leighton) Nutter, b. Plantation No. 2 (Dennysville) (VR):

141 i. JOHN[7], b. 6 Dec 1808
ii. HANNAH, b. 15 Aug 1810

William W. Nutter's estate in 1885 and was the only descendant of John to be named in the probate papers.

v. (Son), b. 6 Jan 1825 (VR)

56 JAMES[6] (Matthias[5-4], John[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. ca 1775 (GS), son of Matthias and Martha (Perkins) Nutter, d. 19 Oct 1855, aged 80 yrs. (NH VR, GS), buried in Newington; m. Portsmouth 29 July 1797 (NH VR) ELIZABETH SEAVEY, b. Portsmouth ca Apr 1781 (DR), probable daughter of William Seavey, d. 5 Aug 1863, aged 82-4 (NEHG Register, 73:205, NH VR, GS). He was living in Portsmouth at the time of his father's death when he received all his father's real estate. He was still of Portsmouth, 20 Sept 1826, when his aunt Alice Downing of Newmarket, widow, transferred her rights in her father's estate to him (Rockingham Co. Deed 248:148). Portsmouth town directories show a James Nutter, joiner, living at 5 School Street in 1821 and 1827. James Nutter witnessed Nathaniel Marshall's 1803 deed (Rock. Co. Deed 165:446). Portsmouth tax lists show a Capt. James Nutter from 1808-1813, who is most likely the same man. He is called "preacher" on his death record.

The 1830 census shows James as head of a Newington household containing a male and female both 20-30, another male 10-15, and a female 5-10. James Jr., their probable son, is enumerated separately. In James and Elizabeth's 1850 household were MARTHA, b. ca 1844 and John S. ?Turlin, b. ca 1834. Besides James and Elizabeth in the Newington Church Cemetery is the stone of Bernice Nutter, d. 22 Mar 1961.

Probate 17156).

He purchased land in Barnstead, part of lot 91 in the second division, the land being the same lot which Simeon Hatch had sold to John Nutter, deceased, from John and Susannah Marshall, Matthias Nutter serving as a witness, 10 Mar 1809 (Strafford Co. Deed 76:468). Later the same couple sold land in the same lot "leading to the Iron Works so called in Gilmanton" to the same Joseph Place Nutter, 6 Mar 1817 (Strafford Co. Deed 95:312). By 13 Dec 1839, Joseph P. Nutter of Barnstead sold one half of lot 110 and apparently all of his grant in lot 91 to William, Jr. of Meredith, machinist (Strafford Co. Deed 184:268). Called the "Blair Farm" it is where he is buried. He conveyed land in Newington, received from "father John Nutter," to James P. Cheney of Newington, 21 Sept 1835, Enos G. Nutter, witness (Rockingham Co. Deed 279:68). Lot 110 was originally a lot owned by Matthias Nutter. Lot 91 abutted it to the east.

Children of Joseph Nutter and Mary (Clough) Nutter, b. Barnstead, NH [first two were definitely children of Mary (Clough) Nutter according to her children's death records] (Barnstead Families, p. 244):

154 i. WILLIAM[7], b. 1 Dec 1810 (DR) [b. 1810, Barnstead Families, p. 244]

ii. MARY CLOUGH, b. 16 Oct 1812 (DR), d. Barnstead 22 Jan 1893, aged 80-6-4, buried Charlestown, MA (NH VR); m. Barnstead 19 Dec 1830 (NHGR, 13:3:114) JOHN OSBORN DOW, b. Barnstead 15 Nov 1805, son of Simon and Ruth (Johnson) Dow, d. Cambridge, MA 5 Apr 1895 (Book of Dow, p. 64).

155 iii. JOSEPH PLACE, JR., b. ca 1812 (1850 census) [b. ca 1816, obit.]

156 iv. ENOS GEORGE/GEORGE E., b. ca 1812 (1850 census) [b. ca 1816, obit.]

61 JOHN, JR.[6] (John[5], Matthias[4], John[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. ca 1774 (GS) [ca 1780, 1850 census], son of John Nutter, d. Dixmont, ME 24 Apr 1862 (GS); possibly m. (1) Effingham,, NH 13 July 1804 BERTHA GARLAND; m. (?2) Gilmanton, NH 6 Oct 1807 (TR, 2:487) BETHIAH EDGERLY of Barnstead, b. Madbury, NH ca 1779 (GS), daughter of John and Sarah (Chesley) Edgerly (Edgerly and Allied Families, p. 11), d. Dixmont Jan 1851, aged 72 (GS).

John Nutter was of Eaton, 22 Nov 1808, when he and brothers, Matthias and Joseph, both of Barnstead, sold their rights to their deceased father's estate, "near where John Nutter now lives," Ezekiel Edgerly serving as one of the witnesses (Strafford Co. Deed 77:8). It is apparent that John, Jr. entered into a partnership of sorts with Paul G. Hoit in which they acquired lot 52 in Barnstead. As early as 12 Aug 1811 Paul Hoit and John Nutter purchased land in the "Nutter Commons" from John Nutter, Esq (Strafford Co. Deed 69:24). Both wives, Bethiah Nutter and Nancy L. Hoit co-signed a deed of transference, most likely a mortgage, to Joseph Tasker, 23 May 1814 (Strafford Co. Deed 79:274). Then on 21 Nov 1815 Tasker took another mortgage from John Nutter, Jr. for two pieces of land in Barnstead, one of which was occupied by Silas and Mary Edgerly and appears to have become the residence of John and Bethiah (Strafford Co. Deed 90:318-320). This property was sold to Olney Thompson of Pittsfield, 4 Apr 1821 (Strafford Co. Deed 107:251). Charles Nutter was a witness to the deed. As John Nutter, Jr. he and Bethiah, both of Barnstead conveyed land in her right in Madbury to Lee and Hopley Demeritt of Madbury "being part of the farm owned by Zachariah Edgerly, formerly of Madbury, deceased," 29 Mar 1824, witnesses, Jno Nutter and George Edgerly (Strafford Co. Deed, 120:469). It appears that after this time they returned to eastern New Hampshire where by 5 Dec 1828 John and Bethiah sold their farm in Effingham, formerly Ossipee Gore, to Stephen Swett of Effingham (Strafford Co. Deed, 132:563). By 31 May 1820 they, as residents of Eaton, sold lot 66 "farm where I now live" to Noah Emery of Ossipee (Strafford Co. Deed, 108:123). They were in Dixmont, ME by 1830, John the head of a household consisting of himself, 50-60 [b. ca 1770-1780], a probable wife, 40-50, one male 20-30, and two females 20-30. They were living with Joseph and Betsey Hoit in Dixmont, 1850.

Known children of John and Bethiah (Edgerly) Nutter:

i. LORENDA, b. ca 1811 (GS), d. Dixmont 5 May 1883, aged 72 (GS); m. SIMON EMERY.

ii. ELIZABETH/BETSEY P.[7], b. ca 1812 (1850 census); m. 11 Nov 1830 JOSEPH HOIT, b. Dixmont, ME 4 June 1807 [b. ca 1810, 1850 census] (Hoyt, Haight, Hight Families, p. 184).

62 MATTHIAS[6] (John[5], Matthias[4], John[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. Barnstead, NH 1780-1790 (1830 census), son of John[5], d. 1834, "insane" (Barnstead Families, p. 244); m. Belmont, NH 25 Sept 1806 (NH VR, Smith Meeting House Records, p. 41) RUTH SMITH of Gilmanton, b. possibly Alton, NH ca 1787 (1850 census), living alone in Gilmanton, 1850, next to John and Sally Nutter and the Edgerlys. He is said to have owned lot 113, 2nd division of Barnstead, 1813-1815 (Barnstead Families, p. 244). The 1830 Gilmanton household contained 1 male 20-30, 1 male 15-20, 1 male 5-10; 1 female 10-15. This was the only 1830 Nutter household in Gilmanton. John Nutter of Eaton and Matthias Nutter of Barnstead conveyed to Joseph Nutter of Barnstead, their rights in the estate of their late father, John Nutter of Barnstead, deceased, 22 Nov 1808 (Strafford Co. Deed 77:8).

Children of Matthias and Ruth (Smith) Nutter:

157 i. JOHN[7], b. ca 1806 (DR) [b. ca 1812, 1850 census)

ii. MATTHIAS, JR., b. ca 1807 (1860 census) [b. ca 1810, 1850 census), d. Pembroke between 29 Dec 1860 and Nov 1862 when his will was signed and probated naming only his wife, Sarah H. Nutter (Merrimack Co. Probate 5891); m. Pembroke 3 Feb 1853 (NH VR) SARAH A GAULT of Pembroke; m. (2) Pembroke 15 Apr 1857 (NH VR) SARAH H. BRICKETT. Abel Dudley of Gilmanton conveyed land in Gilmanton to Matthias Nutter of Gilmanton, stonecutter, 12 Jan 1838 (Strafford Co. Deed 176:566). Later Matthias Nutter (Jr.) was working as a stonecutter in Quincy, MA with his brothers, Samuel and Joseph, in 1850. After his marriage he and Sarah H. Nutter, of Pembroke, conveyed land and buildings in Barnstead to Samuel D. Nutter of Gilmanton, part of lot no. 12 in the 1st range, 6 Aug 1860 (Belknap Co. Deed 34:414).

158 iii. EZRA SMITH, b. 1800-1810 (1810 census)

iv. (possibly) ABIGAIL, b. 1811 (census); m. (1) —— EATON; m. (2) THOMAS J. NUTTER. Since Samuel D. Nutter of Barnstead was the surety for Abigail N. Nutter's administration of the 1874 estate of her husband, Thomas J. Nutter, there is some suggestion here that Abigail may have been closely related to Samuel D. Nutter. Further, her middle initial could have been for the maiden name "Nutter."

159 v. JOSEPH, b. Gilmanton, NH ca 1815

160 vi. SAMUEL D., b. Gilmanton ca 1816 (DR)

63 EBENEZER[6] (James[5-4], John[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. Newington 10 Oct 1756, son of James and Esther (Dam) Nutter, d. Barnstead 18 Apr 1843, aged 86-8-8 (GS), buried on Nutter Hill, North Barnstead, his homestead (History of Barnstead, p. 117); m. Newington, NH 5 Feb 1782 (Church record) TEMPERANCE COLBATH/COOLBROTH of Portsmouth, b. Portsmouth 1 Feb 1759, d. Barnstead 13 Jan 1829, aged 70 yrs. (GS). A Revolutionary War soldier he served at Winter Hill, 1775, Ft. Washington under Theophilus Dame and Capt. James Nute, 1776, Rhode Island, 1778, and Castleton, VT, 1781, marching back to Charlestown, NH for his discharge. [See his pension record for the full details of his military service.] The family tradition is that Ebenezer and Esther with family "removed from Newington to Barnstead on horseback, in 1783 bringing a babe in arms [Polly]. There was no road, and they made their way by the aid of spotted trees. Their first habitation was a log cabin, four miles from any other human being; it was located on a pleasant site commanding a view of the surrounding country" (Genealogical and Family History of NH, 4:1836). He was a deacon in the Parade Church for 40 years. The will of Ebenezer Nutter named his sons, James, John, Nathan, William, Nathaniel, daughters Betsey and Dorothy, and grandson Ebenezer, son of George. The probate records also contain a statement signed by Dorothy Nutter that her father, "a Revolutionary pensioner, died Barnstead Apr 18, 1843" (Belknap Co. Probate 165). In 1860 four of Ebenezer's children were living on the homestead, John, as head of household, Betsey, Dorothy and James. James's wife Mary (Mariam) and daughter Abbie J. were also living there.

The day before his death he was deeded land in lot 33, 2nd division of Barnstead by Benjamin Nutter [probably his father] (Strafford CO. Deed 71:339). The guardianship of John 3rd's four minor children, Betsy, Samuel, Benjamin and John, was given to William H. Nute (Strafford Co. Probate 19:262). John D. Nutter of Barnstead conveyed to Samuel D. Hannah Nutter as administratrix of the estate had already sold the family homestead to Aaron Chesley, Jr., 20 May 1817 (Strafford Co. Deed 101:208). 70 NELSON[6] (?Nelson Downing[5], Anthony[4], Hatevil[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. 1765-1784, possible son of Nelson Downing Nutter, probably d. Wakefield, NH in the 1830s; m. Wakefield, NH 17 Mar 1808 (NH VR) RUTH PERKINS, his widow and of Wakefield, NH, 8 Apr 1838, when she conveyed land to Henry L. Wiggin (Strafford Co. Deed 132:294). In 1810 Nelson was head of a household which included a wife and male child under 10. He is probably the Nelson Nutter, joiner, of Wolfeboro, NH who received land in Wolfeboro in Jan 1809 from Thomas Perkins (Strafford Co. Deed 68:26). A Nelson Nutter was shown as an occupant of land in New Durham owned by Joseph Young of Newmarket, NH (John S. Fipphen, 1798 Direct Tax New Hampshire District #13, Heritage Books, 1989, p. 80). An unconnected Ruth Nutter is buried in the Hatevil Nutter lot, Milton Mills Cemetery, b. ca 1789 (GS), d. Milton 19 Jan 1863, aged 74 (GS).

Bradbury Nutter was of Eliot, ME 24 Mar 1849 when he entered into a mortgage agreement with John and Ann Raitt of Eliot for their farm in that town (York Co. Deed 205:311). By 4 June 1849 he was back in Dover when he and John deeded the property to William Raitt (York Co. Deed 211:167). Bradbury P. Nutter was probably named after Bradbury Perkins of Wakefield.
v. (probably) JOHN N., d. Middleton, NH before 1 May 1856 when the administration on his estate was granted to John L.

Pike of Middleton (Strafford Co. Probate 68:109). Both Simpson P. and Noah K. Nutter are mentioned in the accounting of the probate (Strafford Co. 7:234)

71 SAMUEL[6] or SAMUEL NELSON[6] (?Nelson Downing[5], Anthony[4], Hatevil[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. 1777 (1860 census) or 1780-1790 (1830 census), probable son of Nelson Downing Nutter ; m. He was living in Farmington, NH (1810), with wife his age and four children, one boy and three girls, under 10. There is a probability that he is the Samuel Nutter, aged 83 [b. ca 1777] living in Rochester, 1860, in the household of William Nutter. The 1830 household consisted of a male 80-90, another male 40-50, a female 50-60 and two females 20-30. Samuel Nutter, 83 [b. ca 1777] and deaf, was living in William Nutter's 1860 household.

ii. LYDIA, b. ca 1806, d. 27 Sept 1836, aged 30 yrs. (GS); m. — COLBATH.

Rochester 21 Apr 1878, aged 89-4-3 (Ibid). John Nutter is included in a deed in which his parents purchased Rochester land (lot 11, 2nd div.) from Tristram Heard, 7 Dec 1813 (Strafford Co. Deed 76:870). John [called John, Jr.] left a will naming his wife Sally C., sons John L., George S. and James T. Nutter, as well as daughter Mary Esther Parker (Strafford Co. Probate 75:14). John Nutter served in the War of 1812 as a lieutenant in Capt. Andrew Pierce's Co., NH Militia.Sally died shortly after applying for a widow's pension. Her affidavits support the vital records above for the death of her husband. There is a slight discrepancy for the marriage record (Claim no. 16973). She testified that she had been ill for five years before the application during which time, except for once, she had not been able to leave her room or to get dressed.

Children of John and Sally (Hurd) Nutter, b. Rochester (Parker Family Bible, NEHG Register, 84:445):

73 (Daughter[6]) (Jotham[5], Anthony[4], Hatevil[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), probably b. Rochester, NH, daughter of Jotham and Elizabeth (Downing) Nutter.

Child of —— Nutter:

i. ENOCH HOITT[7], b. NH ca 1801 (1850 census), an illegitimate child, possible grandson of Jotham and Elizabeth (Downing) Nutter, d. 2 Apr 1880, aged 79 yrs., buried Pine Hill Cemetery, Dover (Pine Hill Cemetery Records, #980); m. (1) Dover, NH (int.) 5 Nov 1826 (Dover VR, p. 46) TABITHA/ABIGAIL M. GUNNISON, b. ME ca 1801, d. 15 Dec 1861, aged 59 yrs. (Pine Hill); m. (2) Dover 6 June 1866 (NH VR) MINNA LOCKETT, b. England 18 July 1838 (DR), daughter of William H. and Hannah (Coelia) Lockett, d. Waltham, MA 16 Dec 1926 (MA VR 1926 87:84), buried Dover. Enoch was a jeweler in Dover, NH, 1850. In his 1840 Dover household there were males b. 1820-25 and 1810-1820. There also was a female b. 1780-1790. By 1860 the only other member of the household besides Enoch and Abbey was Lizzie Gunnison, aged 25 (Strafford Co., 1860, p. 658). Enoch Hoyt, a settler of Rochester, NH, was connected by deed with Jotham Nutter. Enoch H. Nutter's will, signed 6 August 1869, named Enoch Nutter, son of John L. Nutter; Nelson Nutter, son of George Nutter of Rochester; Abby Nutter, daughter of James Gunnison of Scarboro, ME; Mary E., wife of George Parker of Rochester, and his wife, Minna L. Nutter (Strafford Co. Probate 89:581).

74 RICHARD[6] (?Jotham[5], Anthony[4], Hatevil[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. NH 1755-1774 (Kennebeck Co. 1800 census, p. 1232), possible son of Jotham and Elizabeth (Downing) Nutter, d. Embden, Somerset Co., ME before 10 Mar 1815 when his estate was administered by his widow Betsey Nutter (Somerset Co. Probate DOD 1815); m. BETSEY ——, his widow in 1815 [was she a first or second wife?]; she m. (2) before 6 Sept 1815 Joseph Hilton of Emden. Richard

Nutter, aged 26-45, first settled in Athens (originally called Kinsman Town), Kennebec Co., ME in 1797 according to the 1800 census (Kennebec Co., 1800, p. 1232). The census shows him with a wife his age and no children. By 1810 he ["Richard Nutting"] was still in Athens, also under 45 years of age with a wife the same age. His family consisted of one male 10-16 and 5 females under 10. There is a possibility that he was the Richard Nutter, 3rd. who m. Rochester, NH 23 Apr 1795 (Strafford Co. Marriages, p. 327) MARY WENTWORTH. For this to have been true he would have had to have had a first wife who would have been the mother of Richard Nutter, Jr. b. in 1785. Mary Wentworth would have been the mother of some of the girls born 1800-1810. The fact that the widow Betsey ( ) (Nutter) Hilton was not named guardian of any of the minor Nutter children seems significant. The above synopsis does not explain why Richard Nutter was not enumerated in the 1790 census. In fact, the only two Richard Nutters enumerated in NH in 1790 are the father and son, Richard Nutter and Richard Nutter, Jr. of Rochester, NH, both of whom are accountable and did not settle in Maine. [John and George Wentworth were early settlers of Athens. They are not identified in the Wentworth Genealogy. Two other early Wentworths in Athens were John and Grant Wentworth/Wintworth, who are identified. Mary Wentworth, above, has not been identified.]

Deeds show that Richard Nutter first acquired one-half of lot 43 in Athens from David Copp [a Wakefield, NH name], 22 Feb 1804. In 1810 there were two transactions where he sold or mortgaged this land. First, 30 Aug 1810, he conveyed the rights to the land "where he now lives" to Thomas Smith of Cornville and Andrew Hall of Athens, Dudley Palmer and John N. Wicks, as witnesses (Somerset Co. Deed 2:90). Then, 6 Oct 1810, he transferred the same lot to Daniel Evans (Somerset Co. Deed 2:116). It would appear that the move to Embden took place between 1810 and 1815, although there are no deeds to support the move. Richard Nutter also purchased land in Athens from John G. Neil and others (Somerset Co. Deed 2:199).

The probate of Richard Nutter of Embden's estate shows that John Wilson, Benjamin Thompson and Luther Cleaveland were the appraisers for the inventory of the estate. The inventory itself showed "part of a lot of land" valued at $35.00, and a personal estate valued at $161.85, including a cow valued at $16.00, a swine valued at $4.00 and various household and farm items. One item of the inventory was a note for $52.00 due from Daniel Evans. This Daniel Evans is most likely the Daniel Evans of Hallowell to whom Richard Nutter mortgaged his Athens property, 6 Oct 1810 (Somerset Co. Deed 2:116). This connection between Richard Nutter of Athens/Embden and a man from Hallowell strengthens the theory that the former was originally from the Rochester-Dover, NH area. Evans is also a common Dover, NH name.

In Betsey Hilton's first account as administratrix she listed journeys to Bloomfield and Anson [the location of the court] and the amount of $50.00 allowed to her as widow by the judge. No mention was made of any children in the probate records. However, there is a separate guardianship record for the children of Richard Nutter which named, 14 Jan 1817, Benjamin Colby as guardian to seven Nutter children, two of whom were over 14 (Somerset Co Probate 2:65).

Given the number and age of the Nutter children [the 1810 census record is the only one which provides a grouping of a family of this size] there is some suggestion that Betsey may not have been the mother of the Nutter children below. The probate record, however, contradicts the age of Richard Nutter, [Jr.], the son of Richard Nutter of Emden. According to the 1810 census Richard Jr., aged 10-16, would have been born 1794-1800, while the 1817 probate record indicates he was "under the age of fourteen," [b. 1803-1817]. Another confusion in sorting out this family stems from the fact that it is apparent that there were two generations of Richard-Betsey Nutters. Although there is a Norridgewock marriage for Richard and Betsey Nutter in 1812 it would appear that this is for the couple who were still living and enumerated in the 1850 census in Ripley. Given the confusion in ages there is also some likelihood that Richard[6] and Richard[7] are not father and son.

Since no parentage has been established for Richard Nutter of Athens/Embden it is felt that the connection may be found with Jotham/Elizabeth and Nelson Downing Nutter of Rochester, NH. Family tradition gives Richard's father's name as "Samuel," however.

Children of Richard Nutter (Somerset Co Probate 2:65):

182 i. RICHARD[7], b. [?Wakefield], NH] 28 May 1785 (Family record of Jeanne Finley; 1850 census, Somerset Co., Roll 168, p. 126)

ii. MARY, b. 1800-1810

iii. BETSEY, b. 1800-1810

iv. SALLY, b. 1800-1810

v. EMELINE, b. 1800-1810

vi. SUKEY, probably b. 1810-1815

vii. IRENA, probably b. 1810-1815; m. Norridgewock, ME 1831 (VR, p. 123) WILLIAM R. KNIGHT.

viii. (possibly) LORANA P., b. 17 Dec 1800 (GS), d. Ripley 9 June 1890, aged 89-6-22 (GS), buried in Nutter Family Cemetery; m. THOMAS DOWNING. [There was a Thomas Downing in Ripley as early as 1820.]

ix. (possibly) SAMUEL C., b. ME ca 1806 (1860 census), d. Jan 1863 (Penobscot Co. Probate 39:477); m. AURILLA C. ——, b. ME ca 1808 (1860 census), d. 6 Nov 1873, aged 66 yrs. (GS) ("Dec 1873," Penobscot Co Probate Docket 2:122). He was a day laborer living in Corinna, 1860. It is difficult to place this man. His wife Aurilla, however, is buried in the William W. Nutter lot in Corinna [see 319].

x. BETSEY, d. Ripley 31 July 1810; m. DAVID STURGIS. [This is the oldest stone in the Nutter Family Cemetery, Ripley.]

75 CHARLES[6] (?Jotham[5], Anthony[4], Hatevil[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. NH 1790-1800 (1830 census), possible son of Jotham and Elizabeth (Downing) Nutter,; m. ABIGAIL NUTE, b. Dover, NH 29 July 1790 (DR), possible daughter of Isaac and Betsey (Carroll) Nute, d. Milton, MA 21 Oct 1873, aged 83-2-22 (MA VR, 257:314). Charles and Abigail Nutter were residents of Madbury, NH 14 Mar 1821 when they conveyed their rights to a deed given by Abraham Nute of Farmington to the widow Abigail Nute of Dover (Strafford Co. Deed 235:74). The latter deed indicates that Abigail Nute was the widow of Jonathon Nute of Dover, the daughter-in-law of Isaac Nute of Dover and the sister-in-law of Abraham Nute (Strafford Co. Deed 36:32). This deed, signed 22 Nov 1800, puts into question whether or not Abigail (Nute) Nutter was the daughter of Isaac and Betsey Nute or the daughter of Jonathon and Abigail Nute. In 1830 the family was living in Dover, with one daughter 10-15, 2 boys, 5-10 and 2 boys and a girl under 5.

Known children of Charles and Abigail (Nute) Nutter, b. Dover, NH, except as noted:

Waterboro, ME 9 Mar 1872, aged 90-2-17 (GS); m. 17 Mar 1811 (Fam. Bible) RUTH WENTWORTH "of Somersworth," b. Rollinsford, NH 22 Oct 1784, daughter of Bartholomew and Ruth (Hall) Wentworth (Fam. Bible; Wentworth Genealogy, I:275), d. Waterboro 5 Mar 1872, aged 87-4-12 (Fam. Bible, GS.) The family, except for two young children, is buried in the Town House Cemetery, Waterboro. Two children are buried in Milton Mills Cemetery. William S. Nutter was first enumerated in Maine in 1840. His father, Hatevil Nutter of Milton, NH, conveyed a lot of land in the third division of Milton to William S. Nutter, 30 July 1809 (Strafford Co. Deed 65:374). The family Bible of William Shackford and Ruth Wentworth Nutter was presented to the compiler in 1995. The Wentworth Genealogy gives the couple two sons, Charles and Joseph, who are not named in the Family Bible.

77 JOHN[6], b. Barnstead, NH 2 Nov 1779 (VR), son of John and Elizabeth (Dam) Nutter, probably still living in Barnstead in 1860, aged 80 yrs., living next door to his nephew, James Nutter, 4th; m. (1) possibly ANN ——, b. 1765-1784 (1810 census), d. before 1830; m. (2) Barnstead (pub.) 12 Jan 1830 HANNAH NUTTER, b. 1780-90 (1830 census), d. before 1840; m. In 1810 the household consisted of John and wife, both b. 1765-1784, two males b., 1800-1810, a daughter, b. 1800-1810, and another female, 1784-1794. In 1830 his household consisted of himself [John, Jr.] aged 50-60, a male 20-30, another 10-15, a wife, aged 40-50, and another female 20-30. It would be reasonable to assume that it was his father, John[5] Nutter [b. 1757], who was living in the household of Ira Parshley, 1840, John[6]'s son-in-law. In the John Nutter 1850 household were also two Chesley women, Betsey and Ruth, possibly daughters of Sally by a first marriage. John and Sally Nutter conveyed "mowing ground" in Barnstead to his brother Eliphalet Nutter, 13 Dec 1841, John L. Nutter witnessing the deed (Belknap Co. Deed 3:115). Later, 14 Oct 1842 the couple sold "common land" or "mowing ground not sold to Eliphalet Nutter" to John E. and Alfred Bunker, George Chesley signing for Sally (Belknap Co. Deed 3:583). He was called "John Nutter, Jr." in Belknap Co. deeds.

He was called "Capt. William Nutter" in the History of Barnstead and is also referred to as "Major."

83 HENRY[6] (Richard[5], Samuel[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. Rochester, NH ca 1748 (DR), son of Richard and Temperance (Nutter) Nutter, d. Newington, NH 2 Feb 1818 (DR); m. ca 1770 MARY/MOLLEY ——, d. Newington 31 Mar 1810 "freezing out 2 nights in the cold" (DR). He owned the covenant and bap. Newington 18 Feb 1770 (NHG Record, 4:158). Henry Nutter of Newington, yeoman, experienced a traumatic beating at the hands and feet of Joseph Adams of Newington, 31 Dec 1785. The suit which Nutter brought against Adams in the court of common pleas, 2 Feb 1786, asked for 200 pounds compensation charging that Adams' attack "shattered the bone of [his] leg by a violent kick" and that Nutter "was disabled from walking and pursuing any kind of business" (Rock. Co. Court Cases, Series a, 9353). The following year Henry Nutter's parents, Richard and Temperance, conveyed to their "son Henry Nutter of Newington" land in Newington between Thomas Nutter's land on the Portsmouth line, 10 Dec 1787. It was further described as "part of land belonging to Capt. John Nutter" (Rockingham Co. Deed 198:314).

It is highly probable that it was Henry Nutter of Newington who was living in Greenland, NH by 1800 when he was on the tax lists of that town, with 1 3/4 taxable polls (TR, II:156). In subsequent years both Henry Nutter, Jr. and John Nutter were also taxed in Greenland, in 1804 [the only year all three were taxed] and 1805. Henry Nutter of Greenland was last taxed there in 1813. This family maintained its Rochester connections, Henry[6]'s grandson, Henry[8] apparently returning there to marry a cousin Temperance and to acquire property there as well.

In 1790 Henry Nutter of Newington was head of a household of himself, one male under 16, and 4 females. By 1800, if it is the same Henry, he and his wife, both over 45, were the parents of three males under 10 and the older children had re-settled. The latter schedule, however, could be for Henry Nutter, Jr. who married in 1796, and had at least one known son b. before 1800. There is no census schedule for Greenland in 1800.

Probable children of Henry and Mary ( ) Nutter, b. Newington:

196 i. HENRY, JR.[7], probably b. ca 1774
ii. JOHN
iii. (possibly) MARY; m. Greenland 6 Jan 1798 (VR, p. 13) NATHAN ADAMS. Nathan W. Adams, Mary Adams and Mary D. Nutter [daughter of Hatevil and Esther (Dam) Nutter] of Newington] were witnesses to a Hatevil Nutter deed, 8 Nov 1811 (Rockingham Co. Deed 209:505).

84 JAMES[6] (Richard[5], Samuel[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. ca Feb 1765 (GS), son of Richard and Temperance (Nutter) Nutter, d. 13 June 1828, aged 63-4 (GS); m. Rochester 5 Apr 1786 (NH Gen. Rec., 5:2) ELIZABETH/BETSEY HEARD, b. ca 1767/8, daughter of Tristram Heard, d. 29 Mar 1859, aged 91 (EMSC, p. 511); (she) m. (2) (int.) Farmington 19 Feb 1832 (Ibid) Thomas Howe of Rochester with whom she signed a prenuptial agreement, witnessed by Mary Nutter (Strafford Co. Deed 169:597). By 1800 James Nutter's residence was Farmington, or the northern part of what was once the colonial town of Rochester. In his household were three males over 45 as well as one male 26-45, presumably himself. The older adult males or not known. By his will one half his farm was left to wife, Betsey Nutter and the other half to their son Richard Nutter. There is a possibility that Richard Nutter, Sr. was living with his son Richard in his last years. His will was signed 2 June 1828 and probated 11 July 1828, named his wife and seven children. His son, John H. Nutter, was also named executor (Strafford Co. probate 37:360). Betsey was living in Farmington, 12 May 1855, aged 88, when she filed for a revolutionary war pension through her second husband.

Children of James and Elizabeth (Heard) Nutter, b. Rochester (now Farmington), NH (Farmington VR. I:192):

85 WINTHROP[6] (Richard[5], Samuel[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. 1755-1765 (census), son of Richard and Temperance (Nutter) Nutter, d. after 1815; m. Rochester 25 May 1788 (NH Gen. Rec., 5:3) CHARITY ME(A)DER, b. after 1755 (1800 census), d. after 1815. Winthrop Nutter in 1800 was head of a Rochester household consisting of 4 males under 16 (two under 10, two 10-16) and two females under 10. In 1793 Rochester town records show Winthrop Nutter as the largest land owner of all the Nutters living there. He is shown living on Samuel Jenness Road in 1799. Deeds signed 9 Dec 1815 provide the probable names of the Nutter children when Winthrop turned his Rochester land over to Samuel and Isaac Nutter of Rochester with the proviso that he and Charity be provided for during their natural lives and that, after their deaths, the amounts of $30 each be paid to Debory Penny, Anna Stanton, William Nutter and Peggy Nutter (Strafford Co. Deeds 105:130 and 335). The 1810 census indicates that one of the males had left the household and that a female child, under 10, had been added to the family. There was a division of land, primarliy lot 28 of the second divison of Rochester, 13 Jan 180, among Winthrop Nutter, Isaac Pease, Thomas Otis, Benjamin Evans, Charles Varney, Samuel Jenness, John Gray and William K. Atkinson. Nutter owned one-sixth of the land divided (Strafford Co. Probate 23:240).

(2) Rochester 14 June 1810 (History of Rochester, p. 617) William Knight. [This second marriage may be for another Richard "Jr." who was the father of two sons b. before 1790.] There are no deeds on record for Richard Nutter, Jr. of Rochester. There are no Richard Nutters in Rochester in 1810 (census). Rochester TR show him living in the Norway Plains section of town, 1799, near Richard Nutter, 3rd, Jotham Nutter and Stephen Nutter. A biography of George Read Nutter (Register, 91:365), Richard's descendant, gives the first wife's name as "Dorothy (Place) Ham." No explanation for a first or second marriage for Dorothy Place has been found.

In 1810 John Nutter was head of a Rochester household including his wife, 1 male 10-16 [b. 1794-1800], 3 females 10-16 and 1 female under 10. Rochester town records show that John Nutter and Richard Nutter lived at Sqamanagonnie Bridge (Gonic) in 1799.

88 STEPHEN[6] (Richard[5], Samuel[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. probably Rochester, NH, 18 May 1775 (Farmington VR, I:193), son of Richard and Temperance Nutter, d. Holderness, NH 25 Jan 1837, aged 61 yrs. (Death Notices from the Morning Star, p. 247); m. (1) Rochester 7 Apr 1796 (NH Gen. Rec., 5:51) ABIGAIL WENTWORTH, b. 20 Sept 1778 (Farmington VR, I:193), daughter of Josiah and Abiah (Cook) Wentworth (Wentworth Genealogy, I:382), d. 15 May 1826, aged 48 yrs. [b. ca 1778] (GS), buried Kimball Cemetery, Rochester]; m. (2) before 7 Nov 1829 BETSEY COOK, b. 1790-1800 (1830 census). He first lived in Farmington (the northern part of the original town of Rochester). According to his son Jonathon's death record he was born in Farmington, parents both born in Rochester, NH. By deed (Strafford Co. Deed 104:326) Stephen and Abigail Nutter of Farmington [he a tailor, by trade] conveyed her right in her father's estate to James Knox of Lebanon, MA (now ME), signatures acknowledged 7 Aug 1815. Stephen Nutter of Rochester was named guardian to the following Nutter children (parents not named, but undoubtedly his and Abigail's), 16 May 1829: Daniel and Leonard, over 14 (b. before 1815); Thomas, Elizabeth and Phebe, under 14 yrs of age (b. after 1815) (Strafford Co. Probate 30:163). Given the obituary for Stephen Nutter and the above guardianship record, it would follow that the children for whom Stephen became guardian in 1829, were his youngest children at the time of Abigail's death.

It would have been sometime after May 1829 that Stephen re-married and settled in Sandwich. By 7 Nov 1829 Joel Cook of Sandwich sold land in Sandwich to "Betsey Nutter, wife of Stephen Nutter of Sandwich" (Strafford Co. Deed 143:367). This is the same land that Stephen and Betsey of Sandwich conveyed to Levi True of Holderness, 7 Nov 1833 (Strafford Co. Deed 177:16). The Cook family connection with Stephen and his son Daniel suggests that Betsey Nutter, the second wife of Stephen was also a Cook. The 1830 Stephen Nutter household in Sandwich contained a female 30-40, 1 male 5-10, 1 male 10-15, 1 male 15-20, 2 females under 5 and 1 female 10-15. According to his obituary Stephen Nutter had two wives and 22 children. Records do not indicate that his family was that sizeable. Deeds show that he was a tailor by trade in Rochester and Sandwich.

89 CHARLES[6] (?Samuel[5-4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. NH 1760-1770 (1830 census), probable son of Samuel and Mary ( ) Nutter, d. Tuftonboro between 6 Aug 1842 when he signed his will and 18 Apr 1843 when it was probated (Carroll Co. Probate 3889); m. Portsmouth Mar 1796 (TR, 11:210) HANNAH LEAR, b. NH ca 1775 (1850 census). In Charles's 1800 Portsmouth household were a wife, two males under 10 and one male 16-26 [b. 1774-1784], possibly a brother. Tuftonboro Town Records place Charles Nutter in that town as early as 1801 when he was appointed a surveyor of highways (Tuftonboro TR 1:50). By 1810 Charles Nutter is shown in Tuftonboro as head of a household with six other males from three under 10 to one 26-45. There are also four females, including a probable wife, over 45 years of age. The schedule is consistent with the 1800 Portsmouth schedule. By 1830 the household besides Charles and Hannah contained 2 males 20-30, 1 male 15-20 and three females 10-30.

Charles Nutter's will named wife, Hannah, son George, who received the farm, a son Jacob, and daughters Mary Canney, Harriet Nutter, and grandchildren, Orange and Charles Scott, children of his deceased daughter Hannah Scott.

George Walter Chamberlain, an eminent genealogist of the early part of this century, in a note at NEHGS Library in Boston, claims that Charles and Hannah Nutter were the parents of "Jacob Nutter of Lowell, Mass., Charles Nutter of Brighton, Mass and Julia A. Nutter, a singlewoman, who married in Chelmsford, MA 4 Nov 1843 John H. Webster." Since only one of the above is named in Charles Nutter's will this suggests that for some reason, Charles either wanted to exclude several of his children from his estate or Chamberlain was in error in assigning Charles Nutter and Julia Webster to Charles Nutter of Tuftonborough. It is also noteworthy that the first three children baptized in Portsmouth were not named in Charles Nutter's will.

Exeter, NH 1765-1774, possible daughter of John Nelson; m. (2) Portsmouth 30 Jan 1800 (NH VR, First Congregational (North) Church Records, p. 159)) (Mrs.) MARY HART of Portsmouth. Mark Nutter removed to Portsmouth before 1800. He is shown as a Portsmouth grocer and wharfinger in the partnership of Nutter and Currier, 1821, with a house at Long Wharf and a business establishment at the corner of Water and Ayre's Wharf. Mark Nutter of Portsmouth, trader, received land previously mortgaged to Thomas D. Bailey of Portsmouth, 25 May 1830 (Rockingham Co. Deed 260:245). Bailey was the son-in-law of George[6] Nutter, son of Matthias[5] Nutter of Newington. There is a suggestion that both Charles Nutter of Portsmouth/Tuftonborough and Mark Nutter of Portsmouth were closely related as both are found in North Church records at the same time. Charles also named a son "Mark." A Mark Nelson was living near Henry Nutter in Portsmouth 1778.

Children of Mark and Lydia (Nelson) Nutter, first four b. Exeter, NH (History of Exeter, NH, p. 33g):

i. HENRY[7], b. 6 Apr 1786, d. Eliot before 27 Aug 1836 (Eliotana, p. D62); m. "of Eliot" at Eliot 17 Oct 1819 (Op. cit., p. 91) HANNAH MARRINER, b. ca 1772 (DR), d. Eliot 12 Oct 1852, aged 78 yrs. (Eliotana, 1985, p. D62). This Henry may belong with Jacob Nutter of Eliot as the 1800 census shows Mark Nutter with only two boys under 10 in the family.

213 ii. JOHN N., b. 25 Apr 1789

214 iii. MARK, JR., b. 25 Oct 1792

iv. MARY, b. 24 Aug 1796, d. 1800-1810.

91 LEMUEL[6] (?Lemuel[5], Samuel[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. July 1766 (GS), probable son of Lemuel and Margaret ( ) Nutter, d. Buxton 7 Jan 1840, aged 74-6 (GS) buried Nutter Plot on west side of Simpson Road, Buxton with his wife, son and grandson; m. Portsmouth 23 Nov 1787 (TR 11:166) SARAH/SALLY DENNETT of Portsmouth, b. 7 Mar 1766 (Town of Buxton, Centennial Anniversary, p. 227), daughter of David and Dorothy (Downing) Dennett, d. Buxton 25 July 1837, aged 70-4 (GS) [26 July 1836, Town of Buxton, Centennial Anniversary, p. 228.] It is noteworthy that Sally Dennett was married in Portsmouth since her father who had settled in Scarboro, ME in 1768 had died 1777 while in the service during the American Revolution. The family evidently returned to Portsmouth from Scarboro. Sally's brothers, John and Clement Dennett, settled in Buxton in 1786. Lemuel and Sally followed her family to Buxton and were there as early as 8 Apr 1797 when they "of Buxton" acquired land there near John and Theodore Atkinson [another Portsmouth family] from John and Betsey Dennett of Buxton, apparently Sally's brother and sister-in-law (York Co. Deed 87:95). By 1800, Lemuel was the head of a Buxton household consisting of himself, 26-45, a wife his age, a male 10-16, 2 females under 10 and 1 female 10-16. By 1810, still under 45 years of age, he was still in Buxton with only one other male, now 16-26, a wife 26-45, and two daughters. In 1820 the census identified Lemuel, Sally and older daughter, a teen-age boy and girl and most likely his son Jacob, 18-26, with a wife and boy. Since the teen age children were not in Lemuel's 1810 household, there is some possibility that he may have taken a relative's Nutter children into his family after 1810.[3]

---

3. Since Lemuel Nutter, according to the 1800 and 1810 census had only one son there is a possibility that SAMUEL of Buxton who m. 7 Dec 1836 (York Co. Marriage Returns, p. 72) ELIZABETH ELWELL of Buxton was the teenage child in 1820. The latter may be Elizabeth Nutter, d. Buxton 7 Aug 1846, buried in same lot as William and Rebecca Adams, b. ca 1751 and 1767, respectively (John E. Frost, Buxton, ME Record Book, 1968, p. 1). There was also an Elizabeth Nutter, head of a Buxton, ME household, 1840.

Known children of Lemuel and Sally (Dennett) Nutter:

i. (probably) BETSEY[7], b. ca 1788 (GS), d. Buxton 2 Feb 1855, aged 67 (GS); m. DAVID DENNETT, b. Buxton 2 Mar 1785, d. there 14 Sept 1869.

215 ii. JACOB, b. 1790 (GS, 1800, 1810 censuses)

iii. FANNIE, b. 1790-1800 (1800 census) "daughter of Lemuel Nutter;" m. Buxton Oct 1810 (IGI) JOHN KING HAYES. Two children: MARY, m. ——KIMBALL; SARAH, never married (MHG Recorder, III:119).

92 DUDLEY[6] (?Lemuel[5], Samuel[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. 1770-1780 (1830 census) possible son of Lemuel and Margaret ( ) Nutter, probably the "Mr. Nutter" who d. Mar 1833 (Campton VR, I:5); m. (1) DOROTHY/DOLLY SARGENT, b. probably 1770s, daughter of Jacob and Mary (Pattee) Sargent (E. E. Sargent, Sargent Record, 1899, p. 81); m. (2) Thornton, NH (int.) 29 July 1819 (TR, I:655) EUNICE COOK, b. 1790-1800 (1840 census), head of household in Campton, 1840. The earliest record of Dudley Nutter is in Deerfield, NH where he, with Nathaniel Nutter, is shown on tax list inventories in 1793 and 1796 (TR, 2:43, 103). Dudley is next shown on the list of Candia "debtors" in 1799 where there was a "draw back on Dudley Nutter's tax two years" (Candia TR, I:663). As Dorothy (Sargent) Nutter's father Jacob was already a resident of Thornton in 1790, it would appear that Dudley and Dorothy were most likely married in Thornton. Dudley's first Grafton Co. deed was signed 4 June 1801, showing him, a tailor of Thornton, acquiring 60 acres of land, part of lot 36 in that town from Joseph Blanchard of Thornton (Grafton Co. Deed, 32:535). He sold part of this lot to Peter Avery of Gilmanton, 20 June 1802 (Grafton Co. Deed 63:437), and still was a landholder in Thornton in 1814, according to a Peter Avery deed of that year (Grafton Co. Deed 63:201).

As Dudley "Nutton" he was enumerated in Thornton, Grafton Co., NH, 1810. By 1830 [there is no NH Nutter schedule for 1820] he was enumerated in Campton, Grafton Co., NH. A daughter of Joseph Nutter d. Campton 9 Oct

Additionally, there was a FANNY NUTTER, b. 1808, d. 8 July 1841 (FR), m. Buxton, ME 24 Nov 1825 (IGI) WILLIAM NUTE, b. Portsmouth, NH 1798 (FR), d. Buxton 31 Jan 1831 (FR). Since Fanny's age is wrong to be the daughter of either Lemuel or Jacob Nutter of Buxton there is a question of Fanny's relationship to another Portsmouth, NH family. William and Fanny (Nutter) Nute had a son, Charles Nutter Nute, who married in Lewiston, ME 3 Nov 1859 EMMA E. VERRILL. There is some likelihood that the son was named after Charles Nutter of Portsmouth. This Charles is linked to Samuel[4] Nutter, as is Lemuel Nutter of Buxton. The Nute family by 1820 was primarily a Dover, NH family. There was, however, in 1810 a Joshua Nute in Portsmouth. With so few records to draw upon there is no way to make a clear identification of either Samuel or Fannie (Nutter) Nute. However, there is now a question of the actual relationship of Lemuel Nutter of Buxton to Charles [and even Samuel] Nutter of Portsmouth.

1850 (VR I;1). Abbie J. Nutter, daughter of Jonathon and Abbie T. Gilman, d. 31 Mar 1878, aged 38 (Thornton Cem.. Rec., p. 27). The presence of a birth record for Jacob, son of Dudley Nutter in Sandwich VR, as well as the location of Campton next to Sandwich suggests that there may have been a kinship between Dudley Nutter and Stephen Nutter of Rochester/Sandwich. It is believed that the above Stephen Nutter is Stephen[6] (Richard[5]) of Farmington, NH. There was intermarriage between both families with the Cook family, as well.

Children of Dudley and Dorothy (Sargent) Nutter, last six b. Thornton, NH (Thornton TR, I:480-1):

i. (probably) DANIEL[7], head of household in Campton, 1830.
ii. PEGGY, b. 2 Aug 1802
iii. SARAH/SALLY, b. 17 Feb 1804; m. SILAS C. CHASE, b. Thornton, NH ca 1808, son of Amos and Polly (Chandler) Chase, d. Campton 12 Nov 1879, aged 69 yrs. (Aquila Chase and His Descendants,p. 462).
iv. JOHN, b. 2 Mar 1806
v. ELIZA/BETSY b. 17 Mar 1808; m. Campton 2 Nov 1825 (NH VR) SAMUEL COLBY.
216 vi. CHARLES, b. 17 Jan 1812
217 vii. JACOB S., b. 26 May 1814 [also in Sandwich, NH VR]

Child of Dudley and Eunice (Cook) Nutter, b. Campton, NH
218 viii. GEORGE W., b. 3 Dec 1816 (DR)

93 ABNER[6] (?Christopher[5], Samuel[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. NH or Kittery, ME 1771 (GS) [b. NH, according to 1850 census; b. Kittery, according to son's death record], possible son of Christopher and Mary (Leighton) Nutter, d. 1854 (GS), buried Wakefield, NH in a private Nutter family cemetery; m. (1) at Durham 6 Sept 1792 (NH VR) MARTHA/PATTY DURGIN, also of Durham, daughter of Trueworthy and Elizabeth (Drew) Durgin (Everett S. Stackpole, History of Durham, NH, II:163.) [dates on gravestone are 1836-1885]; m. (2) LOIS SMITH, b. probably ME ca 1780, still living, 1860, Wakefield, with Warren Nutter [dates on gravestone are 1800-1882]. Abner and Patty "of Durham, NH," with her siblings, Deborah, Alpheus and George Durgin, conveyed land in Durham and Newmarket to her brother Stephen Durgin, 2 Apr 1796 (Strafford Co. Deed 129:104). Abner was first enumerated in Newfield, ME, 1800, head of a household consisting of himself, aged 26-45, a wife, his age, another male 16-26, and two children, boy and girl, both under 10. By 1810, Abner Nutter, b. 1774-1784, is shown as head of a Wakefield household consisting of a wife, his age, 2 males and 2 females under 10. There is obviously a discrepancy in these records. However, vital records for Warren and Alpheus Nutter of Wakefield give Abner and Patty (Durgin) Nutter as the names of their parents. The placing of Obadiah Nutter, Abner's probable brother [see below] in Wakefield in 1794, further strengthens the likelihood that Abner, who later settled in Wakfield, and Obadiah were brothers.

Children of Abner and Martha (Durgin) Nutter, first two probably b. Durham, NH, others in Wakefield, NH (1850 census):

i. GEORGE[7], b. 1793 (GS), d. 1836 (GS)
ii. BETSY, b. 1796 (GS), d. 1818 (GS).
219 iii. ALPHEUS, b. Wakefield, NH 7 Nov 1801 (DR)
iv. MARGARET/PEGGY, b. 1804 (GS), d. Wakefield 19 Apr 1841, aged 36 yrs. (Death Notices from the Morning Star, p. 247).
220 v. WARREN, b. Wakefield, NH ca 1811 (1850 census) [b. 1821, MR]
vi. JOHN, b. ca 1813 m. NANCY —, b. ca 1815.

Children of Abner and Lois (Smith) Nutter, b. Wakefield, NH:

vii. ALMIRA, b. ca 1818, called "idiotic" in 1860, d. 1863 (GS). [Her gravestone gives her year of birth as "1826," and names her the daughter of Abner and Lois.]
viii. LOUISA, b. ca 1822, called "idiotic" in 1860. The administration of Abner Nutter's estate included support for his daughter Louisa (Carroll Co. Probate 3886). By 1868 a guardianship was established for her, "Louisa Nutter, an insane person," through the town of Wakefield (Carroll Co. Probate 3884).

94 OBADIAH[6] (?Christopher[5], Samuel[4] Henry[3] Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. probably Newington, NH, before 1775 (1820 census), son of Christopher and Mary (Leighton) Nutter; m. Barnet 12 Dec 1793 (VT VR) AGNES HALLEY, b. before 1775 (1820 census). He was of Barnet, 17 Feb 1794, when he sold the "whole of my right in the south side of lot 38, 2nd division [in Wakefield, NH]," to James Bickford of Dover (Strafford Co. Deed 18:174). It is not known how he acquired this land.

Child of Obadiah and Agnes (Halley) Nutter:

i. (probably) AGNES[7]; m. Ryegate 25 Aug 1829 (VT VR) NATHANIEL GOULD.

95 SAMUEL[6] (?Lemuel[5], Samuel[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. probably Newington, NH 1778, son of Christopher and Mary (Leighton) Nutter, d. West Barnet, VT 3 Nov 1840, aged 62 yrs. (VT VR); m. Barnet 7 May 1803 (VT VR) ANNA GARLAND, b. VT 22 Mar 1782, daughter of George Garland, d. 6 Mar 1863 (VT VR). In 1850 Anna was living in Barnet with her sons, Jeri and John. [Anna is also called Anna Manchester, b. Haverhill, NH, 1770s, daughter of Thomas and Hannah (Bailey) Manchester (NEHG Register, 102:26).]

Children of Samuel and Anna (Garland) Nutter, b. Barnet, VT (History of Barnet, VT, p. 572):

i. GEORGE GARLAND[7], b. June 1802, d. 16 Dec 1864; m. MARIAN BROCK, b. VT ca 1790, daughter of Walter Brock, d. W. Barnet 6 Jan 1865, aged 72 (VT VR).

96 VALENTINE[6] (William[5], ?Valentine[4], Henry[3], *Anthony*2, Hatevil[1]), b. ca 1740, son of William and Sarah (Gilmore) Nutter, d. West Farms, Westchester Co., NY 13 Aug 1836, aged 95 yrs.; m. NYC at Presbyterian Church 14 Feb 1772 CATHERINE GORDON, d. Harlem, New York City 17 Aug 1802. He was a bookseller and stationer whose shop was probably at the corner of Wall and Market Streets and, according to Sabine (Loyalists of the American Revolution,II:562) "in 1776 and Addresser of Lored and Sir William Howe." Earlier in 1769 he was apprenticed to a bookbinder in Lower Manhattan who was freed from his obligation in a court case against his master, James Watts, for not instructing his apprentice and providing him with "sufficient wearing apparel, meat, drink, lodging and washing." Although listed as an ensign in the NY militia, East Ward in 1776 his allegiance to the patriot cause shifted during the war. His fortunes also were increasing at this time, too. By 1779 he was the owner of a runaway slave, in 1782 he was a bondsman.

At the close of the Revolutionary War Valentine Nutter, as a defeated Tory, was forced to leave New York City granted land in Shelburne, N.S. at the close of the Revolution by the Crown, going there with his family of four persons and four servants. He estimated his financial losses because of his loyalty to the king at $2000. In Shelburne he was a merchant whose store handled a variety of merchandise including oils, pills and powder; stationery goods; violins, flutes and music scores; wax tapers, paints and inks, spectacles; fishing lines and equipment, liquors, orange juice; sugar, flour tobacco and snuff. As a man of means he also held many mortgages for local pieces of property. At the same time he was a justice of the peace and retained the rank of Captain, having held this position in the 17th New York Dragoons before going into exile.

By 1790, however, Valentine Nutter had returned to New York City to resume his stationery business and to take up residence on the west side of Broadway. By 1799 he gained final access to the Kortright farm which had been "left" to his mother. Known as the Nutter Farm it was in Harlem in the 3rd ward. He continued to live in Harlem (12th ward) until 1830 when he went to Castle Neck to live with a grandson. Following his return from Nova Scotia Valentine Nutter signed a number of deeds affecting real estate in upstate New York, which he held in trust for his daughter Ann Livingston and her husband.

Children of Valentine and Catherine (Gordon) Nutter, b. New York City, NY:

i. SARAH/SALLY[7]; m. Christ Church, Shelburne, N.S. 12 Nov 1785 MARTIN S. WILKINS, son of Isaac and Isabella (Morris) Wilkins. His father was an eminent Anglican cleric who fled

New York City for Nova Scotia. His mother was the sister of the Revolutionary War patriot, Gouvernor Morris, who was a member of The Continental Congress, helped write the New York State Constitution and served as minister to England and France as well as U. S. Senator from New York, 1880-1803. Martin and Sarah Wilkins remained in Shelburne for many years probably not returning to New York until ca 1830.

ii. ANN; m. Nov 1791 HENRY GILBERT LIVINGSTON of Red Hook, NY, b. 1753, d. ca 1817. They were the parents of Catherine Ann (Livingston) Cleveland, wife of Palmer Cleveland of Rochester, NY; Valentine Livingston who d. unmarried; Sarah (Livingston) Barnard, wife of Daniel D. Barnard; Marie Antoinette (Livingston) Talman, wife of John T. Talman of Rochester, NY; and Gilbert R. Livingston. In 1806 the Livingstons were living on part of the Nutter farm. Although the Livingstons purchased extensive land in Monroe Co., near Rochester, NY [5000 acres, part of the Holland Purchase] it was the second generation of Livingston women and spouses who went to Rochester. Both the Clevelands and Thomas D. Nutter are shown living on Brown St. in Rochester in 1834.

97 ANTHONY[6] (?Anthony[5], Valentine[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), bap. possibly Portsmouth, NH 5 Apr 1752 (NHG Record,5:90) possible son of Anthony[5] Nutter of Portsmouth, d. "intestate, of yellow fever at St. Thomas, West Indies 25 Nov 1799" (Charles S. Morgan papers); m. Pownalborough (later Wiscasset), ME 28 Sept 1775 (VR) BETSEY HOLBROOK, b. Pownalborough 17 Nov 1757 (VR) [Betty, b. 17 Nov 1759, MHGR, IX:242], daughter of Richard and Sarah (Young) Holbrook, d. 22 May 1809 (Downeast Ancestry, Vol. 6, No. 2, p. 78).

Given the Pownalborough marriage it is assumed that Anthony Nutter was living there at the time. Lincoln Co. deeds do place him in Pownalborough 2 July 1776 when John Pierce conveyed 50 acres of land on Jewankee Neck in Pownalborough to Anthony Nutter of Pownalborough, yeoman (Lincoln Co. Deed 19:31). Later, 16 Apr 1787, "Capt. Anthony Nutter" acquired land from Joseph Ballard of Boston "on the west side of Montsweag Bay on Jewankee Neck" in Pownalborough (Wiscasset) (Lincoln Co. Deed 20:141). By 1790 he was enumerated in the census in Pownalborough with 2 males under 16 and 5 females. By 1800 "Widow Nutter" was enumerated with 2 males under 10, 1 male 10-16, 1 male 16-26, 2 females under 10 and 1 female 10-16. The estate of Anthony Nutter, late of Wiscasset, mariner was administered by his widow Betsey, 3 June 1803 (Lincoln Co. Probate 9:45).

By 17 June 1789 Anthony Nutter and John Pierce acquired an additional 100 acres of land in Pownalborough (Lincoln Co. Deed 23:190). This John Pierce and his wife Anna/Anner had a special relationship with the Nutters, Anna being Betsey Nutter's possible aunt. [There was a John Pierce, son of Daniel Pierce of Portsmouth, NH, baptized at South Church, Portsmouth 29 Aug 1746 (NEHG Register, 81:449).] By 21 Sept 1804 John and Anna entered into an agreement with John Nutter, presumed son of Anthony, to transfer the land on Jewankee Creek to Nutter, on condition that Nutter build a one-room house for the Pierces and maintain them for their natural lives (Lincoln Co. Deed 55:113). Prior to this Betsey Nutter had quit-claimed one half of the lot originally co-owned by Anthony Nutter and John Pierce to Pierce, himself, 3 May 1802 (Lincoln Co. Deed 49:105). It would not be surprising if there were a blood relationship between the Nutters and the Pierces.

Peter Holbrook of Starks, Kennebeck Co. and Betsey Nutter of Wiscasset, widow, conveyed all their right to their father Richard Holbrook's estate to Solomon Holbrook of Wiscasset, 24 Nov 1806 (Lincoln Co. Deed 69:77). Solomon Holbrook, in turn, conveyed 140 acres of land with buildings to John Nutter of Wiscasset, mariner, 30 Nov 1819. The deed indicated that Nutter was already in possession of the same land (Lincoln Co. Deed 107:227). The interrelationship of the Holbrooks and Nutters assures that John P. Nutter, below, was certainly a son to Anthony and Betsey (Holbrook) Nutter.

Lincoln Co. deeds indicate that there is some probability that Anthony Nutter was related to Valentine Nutter, below. Kenelm and Hannah Cushman, the latter the widow of Valentine Nutter, sold Valentine's Pownalborough land to "Anthony Nutter of Pownalborough, mariner..the highest bidder," 25 Apr 1797 (Lincoln Co. Deed 45:32). The placement, itself, of Anthony and Valentine Nutter in Pownalborough at the same time is important. The connection between the two Nutters following Valentine's death suggests that there was a close blood kinship between them. There is some probability that they were brothers.

It is apparent that Anthony Nutter was the father of at least nine, probably ten children. The 1790 census shows his household containing six children [2/4] other than the parents; the 1800 census shows an additional four children born 1790-1800 [2/2]. By a deed from Nancy Young to Anthony Nutter, Jr., 2 Jan 1810, Nancy relinquished a ninth part of her father's estate, indicating that at the time of his death Anthony did have nine children. It is assumed that all the children born in Pownalborough/Wiscasset, with the exception of the known children of Valentine and Hannah (Boynton/Boyington) Nutter, were Anthony and Betsey's. For a fuller account of Anthony Nutter and his family read "Captain Anthony Nutter of Wiscasset in Pownalborough," by Janet Ireland Delorey, The Maine Genealogist, 18:1:9-29.

Probate Records*, Portland, 1895, p. 305); she m. (2) 16 Feb 1796 KENELM/KENELAM CUSHMAN of Wiscasset, b. ME ca Aug 1772 (GS), son of Robert and Martha (Delano) Cushman (Cushman Genealogy, p. 212), d. Wiscasset 23 Mar 1855, aged 82-7 (GS). [The marriage intention between Kenelm Cushman and Mrs. Hannah Nutter was made 2 Apr 1796, TR, p. 104.] There is a conveyance from James McFaden and others, heirs of Samuel Hall, late of Edgecomb, deceased, who sold, 25 June 1796, land in Pownalborough near Hooper's Narrows, to the widow Hannah Nutter "who since 16 February last has married with Kenelm Cushman," (Lincoln Co. Deed 40:31). Also see Lincoln Co. Deed 7:193. Valentine and Hannah were enumerated in Edgecomb, Lincoln Co., ME in 1790 (1790 census). Valentine Nutter, a mariner, purchased land at Barnes Cove, Pownalborough 1 May 1793 from Jonathon Williamson of Pownalborough (Lincoln Co. Deed 30:71). The linkage between Anthony and Valentine Nutter of Pownalborough is not clear, however, it does appear that there was a strong enough relationship between the two that led to an arrangement by which Anthony Nutter, 27 Apr 1797, was high bidder on property which the court of common pleas ordered the Cushmans, as administrators of Valentine's estate, to sell in Wiscasset. On the same day that Anthony Nutter purchased the property for 14 pounds he conveyed the Hooper's Narrows property for the same sum to the Cushmans (Lincoln Co. Deeds 40:30, 31). It seems clear that the Cushmans used Anthony was a stand-in to provide a legal means to keep the Hooper's Narrows land. Kenelam and Hannah Cushman were enumerated in the federal census for 1850, aged 77 and 79, respectively. The gravestone inscription gives her age as older.

Children of Valentine and Hannah (Boyington) Nutter, b. Pownalborough, ME were (Wiscasset VR):

227 i. SUSAN[7], b. 29 Aug 1791

ii. JOHN, b. 6 Sept 1793 [It seems improbable that Betsey Young would have been the wife of this John Nutter. Rather her gravestone and the 1850 census verify that she was the wife of John Nutter son of Anthony[6]. Since there are a number of "unconnected" Nutters in Wiscasset one conjectures that Valentine's son John was the father of, at least, William H. Nutter, husband of Adeline (Elliott) Nutter. However, there is no evidence that this John Nutter married. Instead, census records would indicate that Susan Nutter, above, was most likely the unwed mother of William H. Nutter.]

Portsmouth, NH 16 Aug 1767 [b. 15 Nov 1767, Pederson], son of Grafton and Mary [Crethorn] Nutter, still living 19 Jan 1819 when he and John Swett acknowledged their signatures to an 1800 deed they had signed (Strafford Co. He is probably the same Grafton Nutter of Tuftonborough, singleman, who signed a Strafford Co. deed, 24 Aug 1811 (Srafford Co. Deed 68:65). He was enumerated in Tuftonboro, 1810, aged 26-45, with a wife the same age, 2 sons and 2 daughters under 10, and 2 males 16-26; in 1830, aged 60-70, head of a household consisting of 2 males 15-20, a wife 5-60 and three females, b. 1800-1815.

Wolfeboro, NH ca 27 Jan 1775 (DR), bap. at Wolfeboro 27 Oct 1776 (Lebanon, ME VR I:117), "son of Grafton and Mary [Crethorn] Nutter, both born Portsmouth, NH," d. Cambridge, MA 10 Nov 1861, aged 86-9-14 (MA VR 148:75); m. Wolfeboro 14 Apr 1803 (NH VR), ELIZABETH/BETSY CLIFFORD of Wolfeborough, b. NH 16 June 1784 (DR), daughter of Lemuel and Betsey Clifford (DR), d. Cambridge, MA 3 July 1864, aged 80-0-17 (MA VR 175:59). In the 1830s Jacob and Elizabeth Nutter were residents of Alton, NH, selling their holdings in New Durham, 9 Dec 1833, to James H. Nutter (Strafford Co. Deed 158:502) and then moving to Dover. Jacob Nutter was living in Wolfeboro, 1810, aged 26-45 [b. 1765-1784], with one son and 2 females under 10; no wife is listed. Certainly related to this family are ADELAIDE E. NUTTER, bur. Cambridge, MA 13 Oct 1839, aged 11 mos. and GRAFTON H. NUTTER, d. Cambridge 3 Mar 1849, aged 9 mos., 18 dys. (Cambridge VR, II:679). The presence of James Nutter in Brighton, MA suggests that there is a possibility that he may have been related to Dudley Nutter of Campton, NH, whose son Charles was of Brighton by 1841.

Known children of Jacob and Elizabeth (Clifford) Nutter, include:

i. JAMES H.[7], b. Wolfeboro, NH 10 Feb 1812 (Death record which gives no names of parents), d. Cambridge, MA 6 Feb 1850, aged 37-11-27, a teamster crushed by railroad cars (MA VR 49:36); m. he "of Brighton" Cambridge 12 Dec 1837 (VR, II:289) FRANCES A. RUSSELL, b. ii. GRAFTON T., b. Wolfeboro, NH ca July 1825 (DR) which gives mother's name as "Elizabeth Tufts"), d. Boston, MA 23 Mar 1893, aged 67-8, a cabinet-maker and later railroad agent (MA VR 438:123); m. MARY ——, b. Cambridge, MA. Child: JOHN, b. Cambridge 24 Jan 1850 (MA VR, 43:46).

101 JOHN[6] (Henry[5], Valentine[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. 25 Aug 1775 (DR), bap. Portsmouth, NH 10 Sept 1775, son of Henry and Margery ( ) Nutter, d. Barton, VT 18 Sept 1865, aged 90-0-24 (VT VR); m. Tuftonboro 10 Jan 1808 (NH VR) SALLY WIGGIN of Wolfeboro, possibly b. ca Mar 1785 (DR), d. Barton 16 Feb 1843, aged 57-10 (VT VR) [same VR in Glover]. John Nutter was of Portsmouth when he purchased land in Tuftonboro through a mortgage granted by John Haven of Portsmouth, 20 Feb 1804 (Strafford Co. Deed, 44:226). Enumerated in Tuftonboro in 1810 he was 26-45, with wife the same age and three children (two boys, one girl) under 10. Still of Tuftonboro, 20 Oct 1822, he and Sally sold one-half of their homestead farm, adjoining that of Charles Nutter, to Kenaz Hoit of Tuftonboro (Strafford Co. Deed 127:42). John Nutter apparently may have settled in Eaton, NH as early as 1820, according to Strafford Deed 114:21 witnessed by Charles Nutter. [It is believed that the John of Eaton was married to Bethiah Edgerly, however.] He was apparently in Glover, VT, 1840, aged 60-70, with two younger males and a female, 50-60. In 1860 John Nutter was living in Barton in the household of Mark Nutter, his apparent son. The census shows that John was born in Massachusetts and that Mark was born in New Hampshire. There were no Nutters in Glover, VT in 1860. He was possibly a War of 1812 pensioner. If so, he had a second wife Elizabeth.

Known children of John and Sally (Wiggin) Nutter, b. Tuftonboro, NH:

i. (possibly) BENJAMIN[7], b. NH ca 1808 (1850 census), d. Barton, VT aged 90 yrs.; m. Kirby, VT 21 Feb 1832 (VT VR) RHODA LEWIS, b. VT ca 1808. They lived in Ryegate, 1850.

102 JACOB[6] (Henry[5], Valentine[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), bap. Portsmouth, NH 1 Jan 1778 (NH Gen. Recorder, 6::78), son of Henry and Margery ( ) Nutter, d. Portsmouth 1809-10 when the term, "dead," is written next to his name in the tax listings; m. Portsmouth 26 Oct 1800 (NH VR) MARY SNELL, b. ca 1778 (1850 census), d. Portsmouth before 19 Aug 1850, aged 72 (Exeter Newsletter, 1847-1852, p. 133). Jacob and wife were enumerated in the 1800 federal census in Portsmouth; by 1810 he had two sons and a daughter b.

1800-1810. Jacob and Mary Nutter of Portsmouth conveyed land in Portsmouth to William Simes, 24 Mar 1801 (Rockingham Co. Deed 157:375). He, a mason by trade, acquired land in Portsmouth as early as 14 May 1800 from Clement March (Rockingham Co., Deed 155:410). Sarah D. March, 21, was living in the John Nutter household, 1850. The widow Mary Nutter lived on Hunking Lane, Portsmouth, 1821 and 1827.

103 CHARLES[6] (Henry[5], Valentine[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. Portsmouth 17 Aug 1783 (NH Genealogical Record, 7:14), son of Henry and Margery ( ) Nutter, d. Porter 7 May 1845, aged 62 yrs. (GS); m. OLIVE (TAYLOR) DURGIN, b. Campton, NH 9 Jan 1778 (VR), daughter of Ebenezer Taylor, Jr., d. Porter 24 Aug 1846, aged 69 yrs. (GS). Ebenezer Taylor was an early proprietor of Campton as shown in proprietors' records, 1767 (p. 3), and had a lot pitched there in 1770 (p. 38). The proprietors met in Portsmouth, NH and included Clement March, Esquire, whose connection to the Nutter family is not known. No marriage record has been found for either of Olive Taylor's two marriages. The History of Porter claims that Ebenezer Taylor settled in Porter in 1806. As the 1800 census shows Ebenezer Taylor there with Oliver and Edward Taylor, probable sons of Ebenezer, and Ebenezer does not show up in early tax lists, it would appear that the move to Porter did take place as indicated in the Porter history. It is still a matter of conjecture when Olive Taylor married her first husband, but there is no Durgin listed in the 1800 Campton census listing. Tax lists do show a John Durgin there as late as 1825, however. It is noteworthy that Olive (Taylor) Durgin was five years older than her husband. The whereabouts of Charles Nutter prior to his settling in Porter is not known. There were a number of early Porter settlers from Farmington, NH.

Children of Charles and Olive (Durgin) Nutter, b. Porter, ME (History of Porter, ME, p. 23):

i. ALMIRA[7], b. 15 Feb 1808; m. 3 Oct 1823 JAMES R. PEARY, b. Parsonsfield, ME 2 Apr 1801, son of Stephen Perry, the first settler of Porter, ME. James and Almira Peary settled in Biddeford, ME in 1842. The Arctic explorer, Robert E. Peary, was a nephew to Almira (Nutter) Peary.

(1) Portsmouth 19 Aug 1821 (NH VR) NANCY/ANN JACKSON of Madbury, b. ca 1792, d. Portsmouth, NH before 27 Dec 1831, aged 39 (Exeter Newsletter, 1831-1840, p. 29.); m. (2) Portsmouth 27 Sept 1835 (NH VR) ABIGAIL HODGDON. Nathaniel Nutter and his family are buried in the First Baptist Church Cemetery, Haley Road, Kittery Point, ME. They were living in Greenland, 1850 with Johanah Keef, aged 23, Charles Hodgdon, 22, and Frank Pickering, aged 2. This is probably the Nathaniel Nutter in Portsmouth, 1830. In 1860 the census shows the couple still in Greenland [she "Abigail"] much younger, both aged 60 [b. ca 1800], with Frank, aged 11.

Known children of Nathaniel Nutter and Nancy (Jackson) Nutter, b. Portsmouth:

238 i. WILLIAM H.[7], b. 12 Dec 1822 (DR) [b. 1823 (GS)]
ii. NATHANIEL C., b. 13 Feb 1824 (DR), d. Littleworth, Dover, NH 20 Dec 1887, aged 63 yrs., buried Pine Hill Cemetery, Dover (NH VR, Pine Hill Cemetery Records, #964); m. 105 JACOB, JR.[6] (Jacob[5], Valentine[4], Henry[3], *Anthony*2, Hatevil[1]), b. Kittery (Eliot), ME, 1776 (GS), bap. 17 July 1776, son of Jacob and Rebecca Nutter, d. (No.) Berwick, ME 24 Dec 1847, age 71-9 (GS), buried with both wives at Five Corners Cemetery, No. Berwick; m. (1) "of Kittery" Berwick, ME 26 Nov 1801 (VR, pp. 43, 134) BETSEY JOHNSON of Berwick, b. ca Aug 1780, daughter of Daniel and Mary (Green) Johnson, d. (No.) Berwick 30 Oct 1828, age 48-2 (GS); m. (2) Berwick 21 Jan 1830 (VR, p. 150) OLIVE HALL, b. ca Oct 1796 (GS) [ca 1798, U. S. Census, York Co., ME, 1850, p. 336], daughter of Silas Hall, d. No. Berwick 25 Nov 1869, age 73-1 (GS). His will, signed 12 Apr 1845 and probated 3 Jan 1848, named his wife Olive, and children James P. Nutter, Mary Jane Frost, Oliver Nutter, Rebecca Nason, and Jacob Nutter, Jr. The estate was divided between his wife and son Jacob. (York Co. Probate 14280).

Jacob Nutter is found in Kittery, ME in 1800 (U.S. Census, p. 800), the head of a household consisting of himself, aged 16-26, a wife of the same age, and one son under 10. Besides Luke Nutter, aged 26-45, he is the only Nutter shown in southern York County, Maine in 1800. [Eliot was formally formed from Kittery in 1810 and originally was called Sturgeon Creek.]

By 1810 Jacob Nutter, Jr. was living in Berwick where he was enumerated, aged 26-45, as head of a household consisting of a wife, his age, and one boy and three girls under 10. By 1820 he was over 45 [b. before 1775], his wife was under 45, and he had 4 males under 26 and 3 females under 16 in the household. The move to Berwick took place about 1 Apr 1805 when Jacob Nutter of Kittery purchased 980 acres of land in Berwick near Beach Ridge from James and Mary Joy (York Co. Deed 124:187). Census records show that Jacob Nutter lived near widow Hannah Johnson, perhaps his mother-in-law, in 1820.

An unidentified James Nutter, "resident of Berwick," purchased land in Sanford, ME from Solomon Allen of Sanford, 18 Apr 1805 (York Co. Deed 74:178). The witness to the deed was Japheth Littlefield who is later associated with the Jacob Nutter family of (No.) Berwick. [Berwick was partitioned into three townships, Berwick, North Berwick and South Berwick.] No other records of "James Nutter" have been found. Either there was a separate Nutter named "James" or the deed was in error in not calling James "Jacob." Actually, the date is similar to that for Jacob Nutter's first purchase of Berwick land.

Nutter was living in Alfred, 1850, with wife and Hannah Fernald, 80, and Sally Fernald, 52, both women born in No. Berwick. All three women were born in No. Berwick, according to the census record (Ibid).

She sold land in Eliot on the "road from the meeting house," 29 Nov 1833 (York Co. Deed 149:36).

In 1820 Joseph Nutter was shown as head of a household consisting of himself, aged 26-45, and four women, one over 45, probably his mother Rebecca, and three women 26-45, probably his wife Lydia and sisters, Rebecca and Betsey. By 1830 the Joseph Nutter household had expanded to include a boy 10-16, another boy under 10 and a girl under 10 (U. S. Census, York Co., ME, 1830, Roll 52, p. 389).

Abigail Nutter of Eliot, widow of Joseph Nutter, was appointed guardian to their daughter, Mary Ann Nutter, under 14, Apr 1840; John W. Nutter, a son of Joseph and aged over 14 chose his mother, Abigail Nutter as his guardian, 17 Mar 1840. The sureties were William J. and John Paul, both of Eliot (York Co. Probate 14287).

Nathaniel Nutter was living at Ossipee, 1840, and Dover, NH, 1850, as a watchman. There is an early marriage intention for Valentine and Sophia at Dover, 25 Nov 1832 (Dover VR, p. 51). Valentine and Sophia sold land in Ossipee which he had received from his father, Samuel Nutter, to Jonathon Goldsmith of Boston, MA, 18 Oct 1845 (Carroll Co. Deed 9:33).

He was "of Bradley's Vale, VT at the time of his first marriage and living by himself in Lowell, 1850, as was Barilla, according to census schedules.

George and "Ascher" were living in Amesbury, MA, 1850. George Nutter was a co-tenant with John Tuxbury, "late of Amesbury, deceased," 8 June 1815 (Essex Co. Probate 27397). George's will, signed 31 May 1850 named his wife, Achsah, and children, George W. and Dorothy E. Smith.

Children of George and Hannah (Tuxbury) Nutter, b. Amesbury, MA (VR, p. 183):

263 i. GEORGE W.[7], b. 15 June 1821
ii. DOROTHY/DOLLY E. , b. 20 Oct 1824; m. Salisbury 30 Sept 1845 (IGI) STREETER S. SMITH of Salisbury.

130 JAMES[6], b. NH ca 1780 (1850, 1860 census, Somerset Co., ME), d. St. Albans, ME after 1860; m. Wayne, ME 8 Apr 1804 (IGI) RACHEL FELLOWS, b. NH [possibly Wayne, ME] ca 1781 (1850, 1860 census). He "of Newport" purchased lot 3 in the 6th range on the road from Capt. Samuel Moor's to Noah Sampson's in St. Albans as early as 24 Mar 1823 when he purchased land in St. Albans from Benjamin and Arabella Shepard of Bloomfield (Somerset Co. Deed 17:260). James Nutter is undoubtedly the same man who acquired lot 15 in the 5th range in Newport, ME, 4 May 1822, from Edmund Pilsbury of South Hampton, NH (Penobscot Co. Deed 8:210). He was in Newport, 1820, with only a son 10-16, a daughter under 10 and, besides his wife, a third female 16-26. In 1830 James Nutter then of St. Albans is shown with a wife his age (40-50) and one boy under 5 and a girl 15-20. James Nutter, Jr. does not appear in either the 1820 or 1830 schedules.

In 1820 there is an Isaac Fellows in Athens, ME, a town settled earlier by Richard Nutter. The History of St. Albans, ME states that James and Rachel were the parents of James, Sam, Mary and Joel. James is most likely a brother to Ebenezer Nutter of Corinna, b. ca 1790.

Known children of James and Rachel (Fellows) Nutter, b. Newport, ME:

i. (probably) SAMUEL[7] b. ME ca 1806 (1860 census), probably d. Corinna Jan 1863 (Penobscot Co. Probate Records [39:477], p. 160); m. AURILLA F. ——, b. ME ca 1808 (1860 census). He was a day laborer living in Corinna, 1860.

ii. MARY, b. ca 1812; m. — ROBINSON.

264 iii. JAMES, JR. , b. ME ca 1813 (1850 census)

265 iv. JOEL, b. Newport, ME ca 1824

131 HENRY[6], b. Greenland, NH 1782 (Barnstead Families), d. Barnstead, NH 1857, buried Joseph Tasker Cemetery, Barnstead (Ibid); m. New Durham, NH 25 Jan 1802 (NH VR) SARAH/SALLY MUNSEY, b. Barnstead 1782 (Barnstead Families) [b. Durham 1780, History of Durham, NH, II:296), daughter of Timothy and Mary (Pitman) Munsey of Barnstead, d. 1855. The 1830 census confirms that Henry was b. 1780-90 but had a wife b. 1770-1780. In 1830 they also had 5 sons and 3 daughters. Henry Nutter of Barnstead, "taylor," sold the house where he lived to Thomas Williams of Barnstead, 5 Feb 1807, John and Eliphalet Nutter serving as witnesses (Strafford Co. Deed 54:179). Merrell's Barnstead Families (p. 245) claims that Henry[5] (Henry[4]) settled in Barnstead. The age is wrong for this man to have been bap. Portsmouth, NH 31 Oct 1773 (NH Recorder 6:45). It is noteworthy that Richard[5] Nutter of Rochester was also a tailor. There being no extant 1800 census records for Barnstead it is too difficult to determine if Henry could have belonged to one of the many Barnstead Nutter families. There is evidence from above that he was known by John and Eliphalet Nutter, who witnessed his 1807 deed. Unfortunately, Cox did not include Henry and his family in his coverage of the Nutter family. He was further involved in a number of land sales. He sold or mortgaged 22 acres of land in lot 73 to Aaron Waldron of Barrington, 29 Jan 1810 (Strafford Co. Deed 66:539). Still later he sold his dwelling place on lot 81, 2nd division, to Charles Hodgdon, Jr., 17 Nov 1818 (Strafford Co. Deed 102:503). In 1843 Henry and Sally [he now a yeoman] sold part of their homestead to Samuel Winkley of Meredith for $12.00 (Belknap

Co. Deed 4:205). That Sally Nutter was the daughter of Timothy Munsey of Barnstead is found in Belknap Co. Deeds 18:19 and 20, signed 12 June 1851, which show Sally, wife of Henry Nutter, along with Moses Norris of Manchester, trustee, sold "land in Barnstead from the Union Meeting House, westerly by William Nutter, Esq., which was set off to said Sally Nutter as daughter and heir-at-law to Timothy Munsey, late of Barnstead, deceased." The death record for Olive L. (Nutter) Standish of Boston gives "Greenland, NH" as her father's birthplace and "Barnstead, NH" as her mother's.

Known children of Henry and Sarah (Munsey) Nutter, b. Barnstead, NH (Barnstead Families, p. 245):

266 i. THOMAS JEFFERSON[7], b. 1805

ii. FANNY, b. 1808, d. 1883.

iii. OLIVE L., b. 17 Feb 1812 (DR), d. Boston, MA 12 Sept 1900, aged 88-6-26; m. Boston 28 Nov 1836 (VR) LEMUEL M. STANDISH, b. Bath, ME 15 Aug 1808, son of Lemuel and Elizabeth (Berry) Standish, b. Boston 8 June 1888. He was a Boston city alderman and bank director.

267 iv. PAUL T(?WOMBLEY), b. ca Jan 1816 (DR)

v. (possibly) JOSEPH T.; possibly m. ANN ——. He was a surety on the administration of Hazen T. Nutter's estate. "Joseph and Ann" were the parents of MARY LOUISA, b. Boston, MA 11 Oct 1855 (MA VR 92:89).

268 v. HAZEN T., b. ca May 1822 (DR)

132 EBENEZER[6], b. ca 1790 (GS), d. Skowhegan 19 Jan 1870, aged 80 yrs. (GS); m. Norridgewock, ME 16 Feb 1826 (IGI) ELIZA WESTON of Bloomfield, ME [now Fairfield and Skowhegan], d. 27 Aug 1881, aged 85-5 (GS). The Norridgewock marriage intention for this couple [16 Feb 1826, ME DAR, 1970-71, 4:1] shows him "of Corinna" and Eliza "of Bloomfield." There were Ebenezer Nutters in Corinna, ME in both 1820 and 1830 *(census). The 1820 Ebenezer was aged 26-45 years, living with a woman aged 16-26 yrs, probably a first wife. The 1830 Ebenezer was 30-40 years of age, head of a household consisting of a male under 5 and two other males aged 15-20 and 20-30, plus a wife 30-40 and three other females ages 10-30. Given the appearance of only one Ebenezer Nutter in Somerset Co., ME during this period of time it appears that the Ebenezers of 1820 and 1830 are the same man and that the apparent discrepancy in age may be accounted for by a birthday in mid-year. In 1830 he was evidently enumerated before he had turned 40. Ebenezer is a possible brother to James Nutter, Sr., the settler of St. Albans, ME, another Somerset Co. town. This may be the same Ebenezer Nutter who purchased land in 4R4 NWP, 4 July 1812, from John Warner (Somerset Co. Deed 2 :417). The will of Eliza W. Nutter of Skowhegan was executed in Dec 1881. Written 6 June 1881 it named the Sanborn children of her deceased daughter-in-law and gave the residue of the estate to Weston B. Nutter, also named as her executor (Somerset Co. Probate DOD - 1881). Eliza W. Nutter was living in Skowhegan as early as 1870 in the household of Albert F. and Elizabeth L. K. Adams, aged 56 and 55, respectively, called an "aunt" to Mrs. Adams. By 1880 she was living alone in Skowhegan.

Children of Ebenezer and Eliza (Weston) Nutter:

i. WESTON B.[7], b. 4 Apr 1829 (GS), d. 20 Oct 1886, aged 57-6-16 (GS); m. SARAH ( ) SANBORN, b. ME ca 1820. In their 1860 household were the following Sanborn children: Sarah L., 19, Henry T., 17, Mary Ellen, 14, Aseneth 12, Deborah, 10.
ii. ELIZA ANN, b. 23 June 1830 (GS d. 15 Oct 1843, aged 13- 3-22, "only daughter" (GS)
iii. (probably) "child of Mr. Nutter, d. July 1832."

133 THOMAS D.[6], b. NH 5 Mar 1787 (FR, 1850 census), d. Cannon Township, Kent Co., MI 25 May 1851; m. Livingston Co., NY 15 Sept 1814 (FR) ELEANOR McMILLAN, b. New Boston, NH or VT 6 Oct 1793, daughter of John and Mary (Christy) McMillan, d. Cannon 17 July 1873. Thomas Nutter was in Ontario Co., NY as early as 1812 and in 1813 enlisted in Col. Broughton's 12th Co., N.Y. Militia, serving at Black Rock, 23 Dec 1813 to 26 Jan 1814. This War of 1812 service was in defense of Buffalo. With the exception of few years he made his home in Livonia where he was a farmer until 1837 when he settled in Granger, Allegany Co., NY. The Livonia property was on Federal Road near Union Cemetery. By 1849 he followed his son Joel west making a new home in Cannon, MI. The sons, John, William and their families joined him, Joel also moving near-by. In 1834 Thomas D. Nutter lived for a brief time in Rochester, NY where he was a carpenter. The probable family connection between Thomas D. Nutter and Valentine Nutter has never been established. Separated by not only distance and time it is difficult to know how the family relationship was known or kept alive. However, it does seem that there is some probability that Thomas D. Nutter was a distant cousin to Ann Livingston through the line of Valentine[4] Nutter. Perhaps coincidental or not, Joel Champion Nutter, below, was a settler of Vinland, WI, living a short distance from Henry Nutter, son of Charles Nutter of Porter, ME, a man also believed to be a descendant of Valentine[4] Nutter. There was also a James Nutter in Cannonsburg, 1850. Mary Welton, sister of Eleanor (McMillan) Nutter named the three Nutter nephews in her 1888 will; i.e., John M., William W. and Joel C. Nutter.

Jan Alpert provides additonal information: "Rockford (MI) Register, 23 Jul 1873: 'Eleanor Nutter, mother of J. M. died instantly on the 17th in Cannon, 79 years.' The graves of Thomas and Eleanor have not been found. A Thomas Nutter was listed on the non-resident proprietors list of unpaid tax records of Bridgewater, Grafton Co., NH in 1811, 'six acres of mowing, eight acres of pasturing. Lots # 29 and 30.' We do not know if this is the same Thomas Nutter as described here. Thomas Nutter first appears in Livonia, Livingston Co., NY in 1817 and 1820 tax records with property valued at $405 and $225 respectively. No early deed has been found. He served briefly in the War of 1812 in Col. Seymour Boughton's 12th Reg't Cav. New York Militia from December 23, 1813 until Jan. 6, 1814 in defending Buffalo against the British. In 1858 Eleanor Nutter, his widow, applied for a pension. The pension was denied despite affidavits signed by her brothers, John McMillan and Wooster McMillan, who said they served with him. In the pension application Eleanor provided that she and Thomas were married by Ruel Blake on 15 Sep 1814. The affidavit also stated that Benjamin Howe had known the Nutters for 35 years. In the 1820 census Thomas is listed as head of household with two sons under 10. He and his wife were 26-45. I have not found the first deed but found a mortgage from Thomas D. Nutter to Jeny Woodruff of Livonia for $100 covering Lot 32 in Livonia, dated April 1, 1824 recorded Dec. 21 1824 in Vol. 1. pp. 445 Mortgages, Livingston Co., NY. Thomas D. Nutter and Eleanor, his wife, sold the property for $125 to Samuel Chamberlin of Livonia. The deed was first dated Dec. 25, 1824 but not recorded until later in Liber 19 p. 280, Livingston Co., NY. A house still stands on the property which may have been built by Thomas Nutter. In 1834 a Thomas Nutter was living on Brown St. in Rochester, NY. In 1840 the Nutters were living in Granger, Allegany Co., NY. Two other Nutters were listed in the 1820 census Valentine Nutter in New York City and John Nutter in Laurens, Otsego Co., NY. Despite considerable research on both these other Nutters I have found no connection to Thomas or to the New Hampshire family. Son Daniel Nutter bought property in Kent Co., Michigan from Samuel Fuller in Conesus, NY in 1846. Daniel went to California and the family story says he never was heard of again. Thomas and Eleanor moved to Michigan with son John and his family in October 1849. The taxes were not paid on the property in 1846-47. Deed from J. M. Nutter to William Rounds signed in 1850 but not recorded until 10 Apr 1861. Eleanor signed a deed to Rounds in 1865 quitclaiming her interest."

Children of Thomas D. and Eleanor (McMillan) Nutter, b. Livonia, NY (Family records supplied by Jan Alpert):

270 ii. WILLIAM WOOSTER, b. 10 May 1819

271 iii. JOEL CHAMPION, b. 6 July 1821

iv. DANIEL T., b. 3 Mar 1825, went west at the time of the Gold Rush and no further record ever found. In 1849 he bought property in Courtland Township, MI while still a resident of New York. He never occupied it. Sixteen years later it was quitclaimed by Eleanor (McMillan) Nutter to William Rounds for $2.00. Jan Alpert writes, further: "The original patent was granted to Samuel L. Fuller, Livingston Co., NY, 80 acres, 26 Aug 1844. From that Samuel L. Fuller and wife granted to Daniel T. Nutter 40 acres in Courtland Township, Kent Co., MI. Both were living in Conesus, Livingston Co., NY."

134 BENJAMIN[6], b. Portsmouth, NH ca Mar 1788 (GS), d. 16 Jan 1846, aged 53-10 (GS); m. Portsmouth 23 June 1816 (NH VR) MARY HAYMAN, b. Lee, NH ca Sept 1790 (GS) [b. ca 1794, 1850 census], daughter of Samuel and Mary Hayman, d. Portsmouth 28 Jan 1869, aged 78-4 (GS, NH VR). They are buried in South Cemetery, Portsmouth with W. H. Nutter, Co. E. 13th NH

Infantry. The Nutters are buried in a lot containing the following names: Hart, Johnson, Rogers, Sawyer and Spinney. Benjamin is first included in Portsmouth tax listings in 1815. Mary Nutter's will, signed 12 Dec 1867, named her sons, John J., Benjamin H. and James W. Nutter, and her daughters Sarah A. Nutter and Mary E. Sawyer, wife of Frank E. Sawyer. It also described her house on Pray Street. (Rockingham Co. Probate 2873). A joiner, Benjamin Nutter had a house on Fore Street, 1821, and Partridge St., 1827. In the 1830 Benjamin Nutter household was an older woman, aged 50-60 [b. 1770-1780]. In Portsmouth in 1790 were Samuel, Henry, Lemuel and George Nutter, all who had males under 16, and all possible fathers of the above Benjamin Nutter. Unfortunately, there is no consistency in the pattern of Portsmouth census schudeules to assign him to one of the above.

William and Sarah, in her own right, sold land in Portsmouth, 22 Oct 1824, to Anna Mudge of Portsmouth, widow (Rockingham Co. Deed 241:375). By 16 July 1825 William and Sarah conveyed "all right to land in Portsmouth" to John Thurber of Portsmouth (Rockingham, Co. Deed 243:318). William was living at Long Street, Portsmouth, 1821. He was not assessed for taxes in 1826. Widow Sarah was assessed for a house on Melcher Street, 1826, however, and the widow of William Nutter was living on Partridge Street, 1827, the same street as where Benjamin Nutter, joiner, was living. Sarah was still assessed for land on Melcher Street, 1843.

Fairfield, ME 12 Sept 1822 (DR), daughter of Stephen and Elizabeth Bickford, d. Rochester 21 Aug 1899, aged 76-11-9 (NH VR). Samuel Nutter, 83 [b. ca 1777] and deaf was living in William's 1860 household. Interestingly enough John H. Nutter, Jr., aged 20, and William Nutter, aged 18, both shoemakers, were living in the household of Richard Colbath of Farmington, 1850, along with Charlotte (Nutter) Colbath, daughter of James Nutter. The ages are right to identify them, as does the Locke Genealogy, as the sons of William and Elizabeth (Locke) Nutter of Farmington. One child above is named Hunking C(olbath), perhaps after the husband of Polly Nutter, daughter of James; also Sarah (Colbath) Nutter, wife of Samuel Nelson Nutter, was a daughter of Hunking Colbath. The will of William Nutter was signed 11 Dec 1874 and probated Feb 1875. It named his wife Mary E. Nutter and four children (Strafford Co. Probate 84:417). Given the connection to Charlotte (Nutter) Colbath this William Nutter may belong to the line of Richard[5] Nutter of Rochester, NH.

182 RICHARD[7] (Richard[6], ?Jotham[5], Anthony[4], Hatevil[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]) possibly b. [Wakefield], NH 28 May 1785 (Family record of Jeanne Finley; 1850 census, Somerset Co., Roll 168, p. 126), son of Richard and Betsey ( ) Nutter or of "Samuel Nutter of Wakefield, NH," d. Ripley, ME 25 Nov 1881, aged 96-6 (FR); m. Norridgewock 17 Dec 1812 (Family record) BETSEY WESTON of Norridgewock, ME (Downeast Ancestry, Vol. 7, No. 3, p. 119), probably b.

Norridgewock, ME 1791 (FR, 1850 census), daughter of William and Betsey (Clark) Weston, d. 5 Sept 1857 (FR).

Aged 26-45 and living in Athens in 1820 Richard Nutter had a wife his age and two sons, one under 10 and the other 10-16. By 1830 he was in Ripley, aged 40-50 yrs. [b. 1780-1790] with a wife, aged 30-40 [b. 1790-1800] a male 10-15, 3 females 5-10, and a boy under 5. The fact that Richard Nutter is found in Athens in 1820 would indicate that the family roots were probably there rather than in Embden where Richard[6] died. By 4 Nov 1823 Richard and Betsey Nutter of Athens sold lot 35 there (there is no companion grantee deed for its purchase) to William Weston of Norridgewock, Betsey's probable father (Somerset Co. Deed 21:194). Then, 3 Mar 1829, they mortgaged the southern half of lot 23 in Ripley to Isaiah Dore (Somerset Co. Deed 22:187). It was in Ripley that the family made their lasting home.

Richard[7] and Betsey Nutter's Ripley household in 1850 included. along with their children, Mehitable Hanson, aged 90 yrs. [b. NH ca 1760] who was possibly the mother of either Richard or Betsey. It is possible that Mehitable Hanson was born Mehitable Tuttle and was m. to Abijah Hanson, b. 5 Dec 1779 (Strafford Co. Marriages, p. 236). [There was an Abijah Hanson b. Dover in 1783. NH town records show a Abijah Hanson in Rochester, as well.] Although there is no other identification of the Hansons it would appear that they were connected with the NH Hansons. By 29 Dec 1835, when Richard and Betsey Nutter had settled in Ripley they sold land in Ripley, part of lot 28, southwest of Richard Nutter's home, to Samuel N. Hanson of Bangor, stonecutter (Somerset Co. Deed 38:310). Samuel H./N. Hanson of Ripley was living next-door to the Nutters in 1850. He is very possibly, however, the son of Moses Hanson of Ossipee, NH, who married Mary (Nutter) Abbott, daughter of Grafton Nutter of Tuftonboro, NH. By 1860 Richard Nutter, Sr. was living with Eben Nutter, next-door to Samuel Hanson, b. NH ca 1803 (1860 census).

Portsmouth 28 Oct 1859, aged 70-5 (NH VR, GS), buried South Cemetery; m. (1) Portsmouth 1 July 1810 (TR, 11:316) NANCY LOWD, probably still living 5 Oct 1824 when she and John N. Nutter sold an undivided lot of land in Portsmouth which they owned with Daniel Lowd, 3rd (Rockingham Co. Deed 242:186); m. (2) Dover, NH 7 Oct 1841 (NH VR) NANCY GUPTIL, b. 1790 (GS), d. 1868 (Ibid). John N. Nutter's shows the widow Mercy L. Nutter and a son Orin, all who declined administration of the estate (Carroll Co. Probate 3883). The administration was then granted to Jacob Nutter of Tuftonboro, the son of Charles[6] Nutter. Analysis of the two Nutter families, to date, would indicate that Jacob's ancestral line would have been Hatevil[1], Anthony[2], Henry[3], Samuel[4], Samuel[5], Charles[6], Jacob[7]; the line of Thomas was possibly Hatevil[1], Anthony[2], Henry[3], Valentine[4], Henry[5], Thomas[6]. Of course, Tuftonboro is not far from Porter, ME where we have a known Nutter family which lived close to Thomas D. Nutter's son, Champion Nutter in Wisconsin.

household in 1830 indicates that he probably had a wife at the time, aged 40-50, a son 10-15, a daughter 10-15. There were also 2 females 20-30 and a female 70-80 in the house. In the 1850 household was Lydia A. Nutter, b. ca 1817 (1850 census). In 1821 he was a Portsmouth grocer on Court Street. He had houses at Fleet Street and later Cold Lane in the 1820s. He was a surveyor of lumber and inspector of customs in Portsmouth, 1839. John N. Nutter, trader of Portsmouth, purchased two dwellings and other buildings in Portsmouth from Joseph and Peggy Wiggin of Chester, NH, in her right, 28 July 1823 (Rockingham Co. Deed 237:90).

Known children of John N. and Nancy (Lowd) Nutter, probably b. Portsmouth, NH:

i. LYDIA ANN[8], b. 1811 (DR, GS), d. Portsmouth 11 May 1895, aged 84 yrs. (NH VR, GS).
ii. NANCY A., b. ca 1817 (1850 census)
iii. CAROLINE N., d. probably before 1850; m. Portsmouth 27 Jan 1839 (TR, 11:491) AUGUSTINE DUNYAN. The 1850 census shows a John H. Dunyon, 10, living in the household of John N. Nutter. In 1860 Howard N. Dunyon, 20, was living with his stepgrandmother Nancy and aunt Lydia. Both Caroline N. and Lydia A. Nutter were witnesses to one of their father's 1835 deeds (Rockingham Co. Deed 279:208).
iv. (possibly) Son, b. 1815-1820 (1830 census)
v. REBECCA; m. before 19 Jan 1841 (Exeter Newsletter, 1841-1846, p. 2) SAMUEL R. CLEAVES.

214 MARK, JR.[7] (Mark[6], ?Samuel[5-4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. Exeter, NH 25 Oct 1792, son of Mark and Lydia (Nelson) Nutter, d. Portsmouth 25 Aug 1836, aged 45 yrs. (GS), buried South Cemetery, Portsmouth; m. Portsmouth 30 May 1813 (1812 pension papers WC - 951) LYDIA RUSSELL, b. Portsmouth ca 1792 (GS), daughter of Benjamin and Sarah Russell, d. Charlestown, MA 3 Oct 1871, aged 79 yrs. (MA VR 239:135) [5 Nov 1871, GS, Rockingham Co. Probate 581], buried Portsmouth. The probate of Mark Nutter's estate showed a house and land on South Street. Both Lydia Nutter, widow, and John N. Moses, "son-in-law," relinquished their right to administer the estate in favor of John Locke (Rockingham Co. Probate 13204). Lydia's will named seven living children, with no reference to John N. Moses. The widow Lydia Nutter was living in Boston, 21 May 1838, when she conveyed all her rights to her late husband's Portsmouth property to John Locke (Rockingham Co. Deed 290:218). She first applied for a widow's pension for her husband's military service in 1851. Mark is referred to as "Capt. Mark Nutter" in an obituary of one of his children, earlier having known to have served in Capt. Samuel Shackford's Co., NH Militia as a corporal. According to afffidavits contained in Lydia's pension application papers her marriage was in 1813. It would appear that the age at death for Sarah (Nuttter) Stocking below, was wrong and that she was born probably in 1814. The Sarah B. Nutter who witnessed some of the 1812 pension papers was probably Sarah (Barber)

Nutter, wife of Lydia's son William. John N. Moses was also a witness whose signature appears on the above papers.

Known children of Mark and Lydia (Russell) Nutter, b. Portsmouth, NH:

Buxton, ME 23 Feb 1820 (Buxton, ME Births and Deaths; GS); m. CHARITY COLE. Jacob is not shown in any census schedule as head of household. There is a possiblity that he is the male, 18-26, in his father's 1820 household. However, the schedule shows only a boy under 10 and a teenage boy and girl who are obviously not the children of Jacob and Charity. The census also does not show the daughter Mary.

The homestead property in Barnstead was described as north of John N. Hoitt, east of Dennis Babb and south on the highway from Moses Emerson to Beauty Hill (Belknap Co. Probate 2844). A later generation moved on to New Jersey. Mrs. M. J. Kutz wrote a poem about both John and Matilda when they died. The poem written about John is included in this volume. Matilda's parents were living in Woodstock, OH near Columbus. I found information about her brother Joseph Chamberlin in the Champaign County History, 15 Sep 1888, Rockford Register: 'Mrs. J. M. Nutter and Mrs. Ben Goss (daughter Hope) purchased tickets for Columbus, OH.' John's middle name is taken from his mother's surname. In 1840 John was living in Granger, Allegany Co., NY with his wife and parents. John and Matilda were Michigan pioneers settling in Cannon Township in October 1849 (as noted on their tombstone in the Rockford cemetery). In the 1860 census they were living in Grattan Township, Kent Co. Eleanor, his mother, and William, his brother,

They lived in Cannon, MI until 1860 when they went to Fair Plains. He later lived in Cedar Springs. After his second wife's death he lived with various of his children, dying at the home of his son Charles. The Welton's lived next to the Joel Nutter family in 1860 Montcalm Co. census. Amelia's first husband, Alma Welton, died in Nashville, TN 1863 from disease during military service in the Civil War. Jan Alpert writes, "Joel and Betsey were living in Vinland, Winnebago Co., Wisconsin in the 1850 census. Champion had property valued at $5,000. He was living in the same town as Henry Nutter born in Porter, ME. Henry was the son of Charles and Olive (Taylor) Nutter of Porter, ME. His property was valued at $1,000. Was there a relationship between these two Nutter families?" Despite extensive research into the records for Henry and Margery ( ) Nutter of Portsmouth, parents of Charles Nutter, above, no concrete connection has been found betwen the two families. It is still remarkable that the two Nutters of varying origins should find themselves in the same remote town.

i. CHARLES HARRISON[8], b. Vinland, WI 2 Oct 1849, d. Rockford, MI 12 Oct 1933; m. NELLIE HARRIS. A minister, he was living in Manchester, NH in 1850 with wife Jane and son John H. Nutter, both of whom were named in his will. In 1861 Henry and Jane P. Nutter mortgaged property in Londonderry, NH which they sold to Susan W. Taylor of Londonderry, 13 Sept 1862 (Rockingham Co. Dee, 400:39). By 29 Mar 1869, Henry and Jane P. Nutter of Rochester sold land there to their son John H. Nutter (Strafford Co. Deed 246:581).

Child of Henry and Temperance (Nutter) Nutter:

337 JOSEPH[8] (John H.[7], James[6], Richard[5], Samuel[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. Farmington, NH 4 July 1814 (DR), son of John H. and Hannah (Hall) Nutter, d. Barnstead 10 Feb 1896, aged 81-7-6 (NH VR); m. 7 Dec 1837 (NH VR) SOPHRONIA DREW, b. Alton, NH ca 1816, daughter of John and Charlotte (Davis) Drew. Joseph Nutter was still living in Farmington in 1850. Earlier, 30 Dec 1842 he and John H. Nutter signed companion deeds by which John H. Nutter conveyed part of the homestead "where the said Joseph and John H. Nutter now live" and Joseph agreed to provide certain rights in the barn "to John H. and Hannah Nutter during their natural lives," (Strafford Co. Deed, 191:430). Although the deed does not establish the relationship between the two men the confirmation that both men lived in the same household in 1842 is adequate evidence that they were father and son. Barnstead Families states that Joseph was b. ca 1815, son of James Nutter of Barnstead and that he (Joseph) was at Kent

Locke's farm in Barnstead, 1856. As "Joseph Nutter of Barnstead, yeoman," he sold his right to Farmington land which he owned in common with Richard Colbath, 14 Apr 1851. The deed was witnessed by George, Samuel and James A. Nutter (Strafford Co. Deed 209:390). He is enumerated in Barnstead in the 1860 census.

Children of Joseph and Sophronia (Drew) Nutter (Barnstead Families, 1860 census):

Dover, NH. 1849; m. Dover, NH (int.) 19 Sept 1841 (Strafford Co. Marriages) ABIGAIL R. GLINES, b. Moultonboro, NH 16 May 1819 (DR), daughter of Nathaniel and Elizabeth (Richardson) Glines, d. Cambridge, MA 7 Apr 1893, aged 73-10-22 (MA VR, 437:121). The 1850 census shows Abigail, b. ca 1822, in Dover, head of a household consisting of Abigail and MARY, aged 4. Both John and Abigail are buried in Pine Hill Cemetery, Dover.

Child of John H. and Abigail R. (Glines) Nutter:

i. MARY M.[9], b. Dover, NH ca 1846, "daughter of John and Abby R. Nutter;" m. Cambridge, MA 22 Aug 1864 (MA VR 172:51) WILLIAM H. CREMIN, b. Boston ca 1844, son of Edward and Margaret ( ) Cremin.

339 JAMES ORON[8] (John H.[7], James[6], Richard[5], Samuel[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), b. Farmington, NH ca 1823 (1850 census), son of John H. and Hannah (Hall) Nutter, d. Feb 1883, aged 60; m. New Durham, NH 31 Mar 1847 (NH VR) MARY ANN HORNE of Farmington, b. ca 1823 (1850 census), daughter of Thomas and Dolly Horne, d. 18 Jan 1880, aged 57 (Early Marriages of Strafford Co., p. 701). By deed John H. Nutter conveyed part of his Farmington homestead to his "son, James O. Nutter," 30 Dec 1842 (Strafford Co. Deed 191:431). A step-daughter, Vienna F. Horne was living in the 1850 James O. Nutter household and by 1860 had married John B. Berry. James was a shoe-finisher at one time. The will of Mary Ann Nutter, signed 28 Feb 1877 and probated in Feb 1880, names her daughters, Vienna Frances Berry, Clara A. Seaward, Ida A. Fernald and her son Frank O. Nutter, the latter the executor of the estate (Strafford Co. Probate 89:553). James O. Nutter's administration was given to Evi F. Nute, Feb 1883 (Strafford Co. Probate 95:351). According to Frank Nutter's death record James O. and Frank O. Nutter were "truckmen."

i. CLARA A.[9] b. ca 1848; m. Dover 28 Aug 1865 (NH VR) HORACE E. SEAWARD.

467 ii. FRANK O., b. 26 July 1854 (DR)

iii. IDA A., b. ca 1857; m. —— FERNALD.

340 SOPHIA[8] (?John H.[7], James[6], Richard[5], Samuel[4], Henry[3], Anthony[2], Hatevil[1]), of New Durham, NH, possible daughter of John H. and Hannah (Hall) Nutter, d. before 19 Sept 1835 when her will was probated, naming only her son, Charles Harrison Dearborn, a minor (Strafford Co. Probate 49:245). There is no indication that Sophia Nutter married the father of her child. James O. Nutter of Farmington mortgaged some meadow land in Barnstead in 1861 and 1864, first using Charles H. Dearborn of New Durham and second, his brother Joseph Nutter of Barnstead as the mortgagor (Belknap Co. Deeds 35:548 and 40:86). The connection between James O. Nutter and Charles H. Dearborn suggests that there may have been a family relationship, especially since James used his brother for his second mortgage. There was a marriage 4 Apr 1846 between a Sophia Nutter and BENJAMIN GILMAN ADAMS, b. Barnstead, NH 27 May 1823 (Andrew N. Adams, History of Henry Adams, 1898, p. 439). He was a woolen manufacturer in Amesbury, MA.

Wiscasset, ME, b. 16 Apr 1809 (GS), probable daughter of John Elliott, d. 23 Oct 1869, aged 60-6-7 (GS), buried by herself in the Ancient Cemetery, Wiscasset; probably m. (2) SOPHIA LUNT, b. Tremont, ME Dec 1821 (1900 census), d. Boston, MA 25 June 1918, aged 98 yrs. (MA VR 1:520). She was living in Boston, 1900, with her grandson, Stephen C. Peyton, b. MA Dec 1877 (1900 census). The names, "John" and "Susan," in the family of William H. and Adeline (Elliott) Nutter would further suggest some tie to Valentine[6] Nutter who, himself, named children "John" and "Susan." In 1850 Adeline Nutter was living in the household of John Elliott, with only two of her children, John and William, aged 8 and 6, respectively (1850 census). The evidence is strong that this William H. Nutter had two wives and that the children by Sophia start in 1847, shortly after the birth of the last of Adeline's children. The connection of his children to Boston may also indicate that they had contact with their father there. William H. Nutter was a carpenter.

419 JOSEPH FRANK[8] (John Millan[7], Thomas D.[6]), b. Cannon, MI 14 Sept 1852, son of John Millan and Matilda (Chamberlin) Nutter, d. Battle Creek, MI 17 Oct 1915; m. (1) Union Co., OH 2 Feb 1874 HELEN WEBB; m. (2) probably 1886 and (3) 7 June 1913 LYDIA EVALYN HODGES, b. Painted Post, Steuben Co., NY 25 Sept 1861, daughter of Allen C. and Mary (Borst) Hodges, d. Rockford, Kent Co., MI 21 Jun 1919, buried in Woodland Cemetery, Jackson, MI with her son Lance and his family. The 1913 marriage was probably a re-marriage for the two. Frank Nutter, a carpenter, was listed in the Rockford, MI register 1884-1890. By 1899 he and his wife were in Newaygo and returned to Rockford by 1905. They later lived in Kalamazoo.

Jan Alpert writes, "Both of Helen Webb's parents were from Connecticut per 1880 census Kent Co., Michigan. When her father died in 1887, she signed one of the probate documents as Helen A. Nutter of Woodstock, Ohio. By 1887 Frank was living with Evelina in Michigan. I have never found a divorce for Frank and Helen, but on 1 Jan 1889 she married (2) William J. Vertner in Union Co., Ohio. Helen and William J. Vertner were living in Wayne Township, Auglaize Co., OH in the 1900 census. Nellie and William Vertner were still living in Auglaize Co., OH in the 1920 census. I have not found her death record or a later census record. Frank's obituary (Rockford Register, 4 Nov 1915) names survivors Evelina, his wife, Lance Nutter, Arthur M. Nutter, John A. Nutter, Hollis E. Nutter, Mrs. Hope Sheldon and Mrs. Alma Pressey both of Rockford, Mrs. Hattie Gilroy of Urbanna, OH and two sisters Alma Weller and Mrs. Hope Goss. The obituary lists his birth as 14 Sep 1852. His parents' stone at the cemetery lists 1853. The cemetery records have been lost so I am not sure if he is buried in Rockford. The only marriage I have been able to find for Frank and Lydia Evalyn "Evalina" Hodges was 7 Jun 1913. The Rockford Register (12 June 1913) says marriage license has been issued to J. Frank Nutter, Rockford and Eva L. Nutter of Kalamazoo. (Her son Lance was living in Kalamazoo at the time). I suspect they were married, divorced and remarried. In the 1900 census she said married 14 years which would make their first marriage about 1886. In the 1910 census, she said married 27 years. I have not found their marriage even though Dad and I looked in Ohio, Lenawee Co. and Kent Co. Evalina's obituary in the Rockford Register 26 Jun 1919 lists 7 children, 5 of whom were living; i.e., John and Lance living in Jackson, MI; Hollis of Concord; Hope Sheldon of Kalkaska and Mrs. Elmer Pressey of Rockford. It also says they came to Rockford in the early married life and that she came to Michigan when she was 18 (1879?). A deed from Jane P. Taber, Burlingame, KS to J. Frank Nutter of Rockford, 15 Jun 1885, (168:46) for $75.00 in Algoma, Kent Co.; also a deed Inman and wife to J. Frank and Eva L. Nutter 29 Jun 1886, (176:17) in Kent Co., MI. City directories list 1884 Joseph F. Nutter, carpenter, Rockford; 1907, 1908, 1910 Kalamazoo listed with Eva L.; 1912 Eva Nutter listed with Hollis, John A., Lance and Mildred; 1914 Frank and Eva back together. Rockford Register 15 Oct 1884 Frank Nutter mentioned for doing woodworking for store of John Elys; 4 May 1885 ad as a carpenter; 2 Apr 1890 Frank Nutter traded his house and lot for farm of A. Dockery; 3 May 1899 Frank Nutter and wife of Newaygo were in Cannon; 3 May 1905 Frank Nutter and family now domiciled in the W. F. Rector home on East Bridge."

Although there is a similarity between Joseph, the husband of Hannah, and the Joseph, husband of Helen Reed, they appear to be two separate men. SAMUEL. Despite the settlement of Samuel and Eunice (Shorey) Nutter of Maine in Ossipee, NH by 1801 there is evidence from the 1790 census that another Samuel Nutter was living in Ossipee in that year. According to the 1790 census schedule there was a Samuel Nutter who was head of an Ossipee, NH household containing 1 adult male, 1 male under 10 and 2 females. He was enumerated as living near (possibly between) Jonathon Moody and Richard Beechum. The household grouping is consistent with a couple married in 1784 and therefore could easily be that of Samuel and Mary (Huntress) Nutter who were married in Portsmouth 14 Aug 1784 (North Church Records). Yet, it would appear that Samuel and Mary stayed consistently in Portsmouth and could not have been the young couple who lived in Ossipee in 1790. The fact that he was living near a Moody may also be significant. Since in 1800 there is no Samuel Nutter in Ossipee it is apparent that this settler moved on. Family tradition/records point to Richard Nutter of Ripley, ME being the son of a Samuel Nutter. Certainly the age of children in the 1790 Samuel Nutter family is right for a Richard Nutter born in 1785.

SAMUEL NUTT

1 SAMUEL [NUTT], possibly b. Derryfield, NH ca 1768 (DR), probably d. Wolfeboro before 1 Apr 1850, aged 82 (VR in Exeter, NH Newsletter, 1847- 1852, p. 117); m. (1) before 1800 ——; m. (2) Wolfeboro (int.) Jan 1820 (VR) SALLY/SARAH WENTWORTH of Conway, NH, b. 23 July 1797, daughter of Edmund and Ruth (Philpot) Wentworth (Wentworth Genealogy, I:534). Samuel Nutt of Derryfield [Manchester], NH and Richard Tibbetts of Brookfield, NH first acquired land in Wolfeboro [lot 8] from Daniel Rindge of Portsmouth, 15 Feb 1797 (Strafford Co. Deed 29:450). In a series of conveyances the men sold off parts of the land to one another in 1803 and by 23 Feb 1818 Samuel Nutt conveyed 50 acres of lot 8 to Samuel Tibbetts of Brookfield (Strafford Co. deed 99:604). Samuel Nutt was on the 1798 Tax List in Wolfeboro, a resident and land owner (1798 Direct Tax List, NH District #13, pp. 28-29.) He was head of a Wolfeboro household, 1810, consisting of himself 26-45 [b. 1764-1784], wife, three sons under 10, a daughter 10-16 and another daughter under 10. There is no further census enumeration for him in Wolfeboro. However, there is a possibility that he may have lived in Parsonsfield, ME for a period of time as his obvious son-in-law Stephen Doe of Parsonsfield deeded the Doe farm to him, "Samuel Nutt of Wolfeboro, NH," 7 Sept 1833 (York Co. Deed 151:147). There is no indication of a later sale of this land by Samuel Nutt, however.

In 1850 there was a couple, Samuel and Sarah Nutt, in Wolfeboro, aged 66 and 45, respectively. The ages are wrong for both the above Samuel and Sarah [Wentworth]. By 1860 the same couple was located in Sanbornton, NH, aged 75 and 45. In both instances Samuel is identified as a clergyman, in 1860 as a "Baptist." What relationship this Samuel and Sarah have to Samuel and Sarah [Wentworth] is not known. It is not believed, however, that they could have been father and son because of the similarity of generations. Except for Henry, who was a farm laborer, the children of Samuel and Sally (Wentworth) Nutter were not enumerated in the 1850 census as eother "Nutt" or "Nutter." Besides Henry Nutt, also living in separate 1850 Wolfeboro residences were IRA L., 10, and CHARLES F. NUTT, 9. The family tended to gravitate to the Biddeford, ME area by 1850 and after.

Even though the names "Nutt" and "Nutter" are found as separate names in Wolfeboro, NH prior to 1850 [there also were "Nudds" and "Nutes"], at one point the children of Samuel Nutt began to use the name "Nutter." Below is a genealogy of the descendants of Ssamuel Nutt/Nutter originally of Derryfield, NH. The proof of this line is established by first, the probate records of Samuel A. Nutter of Biddeford and second, the death record of Sarah Frances (Nutter) Tibbetts.

Samuel A. Nutter's probate records indicate that he had three remaining siblings; i.e. Henry Nutter of NH, Alonzo Nutter of Wolfeboro and Frances Tibbetts of Saco. The latter's death record gives her parentage as "Samuel Nutter, b. Wolfeboro" and "Sarah Wentworth, b. Conway, NH." Despite the errors in the death record about Samuel Nutter's original name and his place of birth there is no other conclusion than that all four children [Henry, Alonzo, Samuel A., and Frances] were all children of Samuel Nutt of Wolfeboro. At the same time it is clear from census records that Samuel Nutt had three sons born 1800-1810 while Grafton Nutter, the only other resident of Wolfeboro in that year, had one son of that age, his son Jacob.

The following members of the Nutter clan belong, in effect, to a Nutt family line whose origins this writer has not tried to determine. Given its proximity to other Nutters, descendants of Hatevil[1] Nutter, this second NH Nutter family needs to be separated from the first.

Known children of Samuel and [first wife] Nutt, b. Wolfeboro, NH:

i. POLLY[2]; m. Wolfeboro 29 June 1820 (EMSC, p. 869) JAMES SHORTRIDGE.

ii. JANE, possibly b. ca 1802 (1850 census); m. Parsonsfield, ME 4 May 1826 (IGI) STEPHEN DOE, b. Parsonsfield, ME, son of Stephen and Nancy (Quimby) Doe or John and Mary ( ) Doe. As Mary Jane Doe of Parsonsfield, widow of Stephen Doe, she quit-claimed her rights to Doe land to the Town of Parsonsfield, 29 May 1849, with the understanding that she would be paid $10.00 in arrears for rent, and an additional $8.00 per annum. The only Mary J. Doe in the 1850 census was aged 48 and born in NH, the mother of six children born 1824-1831. York Co. deeds and probate (YD 153:175; YP 4436) indicate that Stephen Doe was the son of John and Mary ( ) Doe of Parsonsfield. Judged to be non compos mentis, 6 Oct 1834, his land was taken from him for the support of himself "and his family" (York Co. Probate 4442). It is apparent that Stephen Doe was born 1770-1780 (1830 census), probably in Newmarket, NH. Named in his father's will which granted him his land he was definitely an adult in 1803 when his father died. However, according to the 1830 census his wife was born 1780-1790, and could not have been born as late as 1802, which was Mary J. Doe's year of birth according to the 1850 census.

His will (York Co Probate 52111), signed 2 May 1903, named his adopted daughter, Alice S. Cobb, wife of Fred B. Cobb. The will also named Alice and Fred's son, Paul Thompson Cobb, and Harold Abbott Lewis of Paris, ME. Probate records further indicated that Samuel Nutter was survived by two brothers, Alonzo Nutter of Wolfeboro, NH, Henry Nutter of NH and a sister, Frances Tibbetts of Saco. The earliest Biddeford city directory shows him there in 1870, a machinist with a house at 7 Emery Street. He deeded land in Biddeford to Sarah J. Nutter, his wife, 14 Nov 1872 (York Co. Deed 333:488).

Thomas and Olive were both of Parsonsfield at the time of their marriage. According to the History of Parsonsfield, Maine (p. 391) Thomas settled in the southwestern part of the town with wife "Polly Quint." Thomas, Joshua and their wives mortgaged 50 acres of land in Parsonsfield to Olive J. Page of Parsonsfield, 31 Dec 1862 (York Co. Deed 278:399). He was listed as "Thomas Nutt" in the 1850 census.

Fryeburg, ME ca 1835 (1860 census), still living 1920. Henry was living as a hired hand in Wolfeboro, aged 19, in 1850. By 1860 he was in Alton with a wife and infant son. He used the name "Nutt" up to 1860. Elizabeth and two sons below (her only listed children) were called "Nutt" in the 1908 Town Directory for Brookfield, NH. Children's birth records indicate that Elizabeth had at least 10 children, three of whom are known to have been stillborns in 1893 and 1896.

Known children of Henry and Elizabeth (Edgecomb) Nutter:

Wolfeboro 2 June 1841 (GS), d. 22 Aug 1908 (GS). Alonzo I. Nutter of Wolfeboro was a veteran of the Civil War. Alonzo and Maria are buried near Elijah F. and Ann F. Young, who may be Maria's parents. They are also buried beside Jeremiah Young, b. 1862. Maria, whose maiden name is given as "Runnells" in Mitchell's 1908 Town Register, was living on Pleasant Valley Road at the time. As the only Alonzo Nutter of Wolfeboro, he was consequently a brother to Henry, Samuel A. and Frances Nutt/Nutter. He was probably first enumerated in Biddeford, ME, 1850, in the household of William Hutchinson, with a young son. He apparently returned to Wolfeboro where he married his second wife.

B. Autobiography of Charles A. Nutter

AS I REMEMBER

As I sit here writing this autobiography my mind travels back over many years. In these travels many memories are brought into view. Some of these memories are very vivid while others are hardly visible to the mind. In this autobiography I am going to bring out those which seem to be to be the most important and will make the best reading matter.

I have often been told that our earliest recollections are those that someone has told us rather than those which we actually remember. No one can tell how true this really is. In my memories, however, I believe my earliest are those I can actually remember having seen.

My first memories are associated with my mother. I can remember that when I was still quite small I used to hide behind the piano when it was time for me to go to bed. My mother would pretend she did not know where I was, and, after looking all over the house for me she would finally look behind the piano and discover her laughing boy, who thought he had fooled her once again. My older brother often took part in these little games of "hide and seek" also. I can remember being severely punished for running away from our yard more than once.

My brother Allen was born in July, 1913. I can not remember the date although I think it was July 3. In 1916, on a very hot and sultry evening I was born. The date was July 30, and the place was Jackson, Michigan. In September of that year our small family moved to Battle Creek, Mich. Here my younger brother was born in 1918.

When the U. S. entered the war in 1918, my father again returned to Jackson where he was employed by a munitions firm.

Somehow I can remember by older brother's death but my mother's death seems to have escaped my memory. In April of 1919, my brother was going to the store with a little girl who lived across the street from us when he was accidentally killed. The little girl started to run across the street in front of some cars. My brother saw that she was in danger and ran after her. He pushed her out of the way of a big truck, but he was unable to get out of the way in time and his body was crushed. (The newspaper article says "killed by auto.")

On February 2, 1920, my mother died after a prolonged illness of several months. She was buried beside my brother and my grandmother in Evergreen (Woodland) Cemetery in Jackson.

Late in December of 1921, my father again married. Myrtle Agnes Wheeler had been my own mother's nurse. She was a very kind and good step-mother. In November 1925, she died very suddenly. She and my father had just returned from town and she was preparing supper when she had a fatal heart attack and dropped dead instantly.

In 1921, we had moved to Lansing, Mich., where we remained until 1926. It was here that I first went to school. The school that I first attended was St. Mary's School. Here I stayed until Feb. of 1926.

I don't seem to be able to remember much of these early years in school. I do remember that I was quite a good marble player. I have some pictures showing me with the cup I won two years in a row for the championship of the inter-school contests of the Catholic Schools of Lansing. This contest was only open to boys under ten years of age.

In February of 1926, my brother and I went to an orphanage and school in Detroit, Michigan. Here we remained until July of 1927, when my father took us to Pontiac, Michigan to live. St. Francis Home, as this home was called, was built by Mr. Henry Ford for the benefit of children in the Catholic schools, who had no home or parents. Here we were treated very kindly but at the same time strictly made to act the way young gentlemen should. It was here that I first learned how to skate and also learned my information of the various sports.

When my brother and I went to Pontiac to live with my father we were both very smart and we were very well behaved. My father had bought a home and was working for the General Motors Truck Co. He had worked there since 1928. We, my brother and I, were allowed to do pretty much as we pleased for a few years and consequently we got into the wrong kind of society and sometimes caused much trouble. We both continued to go to the Catholic Church and schools. We went to St. Michael's School from 1927 to 1929. From that time on I was educated in the public schools although my brother stayed in the Catholic schools until he went to High School.

In March, 1930 my father married a third time. This time he married a school teacher he had met in Omaha, Nebraska, in 1929. At that time we were visiting my uncle there during the summer. Her name was Irma Neill and she was educated in Illinois schools. There are now two more boys in the family. One of them is five years old and the other is near six months old.

In September of 1929, I entered the Eastern Junior High School. I consider this year the turning point of my life. It was here that I decided what career I wanted to enter into. When I entered in this school I enrolled for band. My father had been a bandman for many years. Although he was never any expert at one instrument. He had played pretty nearly everything and at the time I was going to school he was playing a trumpet. When I enrolled for band I took his old and battered trumpet to school. I soon became quite a good player and my band instructor wanted me to get a new trumpet. Not being able to afford a new horn, he suggested I change to another instrument. At that time there was no tuba player in the band and since the school furnished these larger instruments, I changed to the tuba. I learned fast on this instrument and in the spring of 1931, although I was still in junior high school, I was invited by the high school band director to go to the state band contest with the senior high band. We won the state contest that year (much to our own surprise) and in June we went to the National High School Bank Contest in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Although we didn't do so well there, we had a wonderful trip. We played under the direction of Mr. John Philip Sousa, the greatest bandmaster of all time.

In the fall of 1931 I entered Pontiac Senior High School. Here I stayed till June 1935. Although this was only a three year high school, I had to stay four years. In my second year I failed three subjects and I also took too many music credits. Both of these conditions caused me to remain a year longer than was necessary. When I entered high school I naturally entered the band and orchestra. In order to better myself in the literary side of music I read quite a few books on opera, composition, and theory.

In April 1933 I was selected as one of two people, to represent our high school band at the North Central District of the National High School Bank and Orchestra Association. Fred Weist, the boy who went with me, was a drummer. He has gone far in the field of music. He is now drum major and student instructor of percussion in the University of Michigan Band. At this band clinic, which was held in Grand Rapids, Michigan, he and I were both selected as first chair players in our respective sections. We were both given a three weeks scholarship to the National Band Camp at Interlocken, Michigan, by Mr. Joseph E. Maddy, the director of the camp and a teacher at the University of Michigan. I spent a very happy three weeks there in the summer of 1933 and was invited to attend the next year, but I was unable to do so. I also played first chair tuba in the Southeastern Michigan Band for two years. Upon graduation from High School in 1935, I was offered a part scholarship to the Michigan State College but was unable to accept because of financial reasons.

I have been the possessor of a promising voice for some time and I have sung in church choirs for quite a few years. In my last year in high school I entered the chorus and men's glee club. I was student director of the chorus, also of the band.

While in high school I belonged to quite a few music clubs and other music organizations. These clubs brought me much in both knowledge in music and the meeting of quite a few music celebrities.

During all the years in junior and senior high school I have still had much time to find something to do in the field of recreation. One of my favorite hobbies is the reading, writing and collecting of poetry. I can sit for hours and read poems and I have written a few which in my opinion are good.

Most of my spare time in the summer is spent in sports. I am a good golfer and a fairly good tennis player. I love to swim and to go on boat trips. In the winter I go walking quite a bit. When the ice is good I like to skate and play hockey. When there is lots of snow I like tobogganing and sleighing.

With my entrance into Bradley Polytechnic Institute in September, 1936, there was started a new stage in my life. Will my ambitions materialize? Will by dreams of the future come true? It is a question that every college student asks himself but which only we ourselves are able to answer.

In this school I have made many friends and probably many enemies. Yet, I am firmly believing the friends outnumber the enemies. Everyone is very nice here.

I have started an early campus life by joining the band, the chorus, and the orchestra. I have also been pledged to the Beta Phi Theta Fraternity.

As I come to the end of this autobiography I wonder if the next twenty years of my life would make a completely different story than these first twenty have. They have been both happy and sad but they have also been the formative years of my life.

C. Charles A. Nutter's Letter from the Orphanage

Letter written from Charles Nutter (not yet 10) to his father, Lance Nutter, from the St. Francis Home For Boys, 2701 Fenkell Avenue, Detroit, MI 48238, founded in 1889. Jan Nutter Alpert has the original framed and hanging in her home together with a fountain pen that had belonged to his mother, Mildred Waters. He had been ill with mumps or measles which explains the reference to "isolation part."

Detroit Mich
Feb. 23-1926

My Dear Father.

I was glad to get your letter the 28th.

Forrest and I are very well. We are in the isolation part for the present. I can keep up with my grades.

We have a chapel right in the house a very nice one.

We go to the movies every week.

I do remember you and mama in my prayers.

There are six boys here from Jackson. I have about four hours in the fresh air every day. I like the sisters very well. We have a lot of snow here. It is very cold here. We get lots on the radio.

I want you to send me my hymn book and my toys.

We have a nice time outdoors playing in the snow.

Your Loving son
C and F Nutter

D. Obituaries for John Millan Nutter

ROCKFORD REGISTER, Wednesday, May 8, 1895.
MR. J. M. NUTTER, who has been making his home with his daughter, Mrs. Mirza Weller, in Cannon, died while sitting in his chair Monday morning, at 11:30, from heart disease and old age, being in his 80th year. The funeral services will be held at Mr. Weller's house at 1:30 this afternoon, Mrs. M. J. Kutz officiating.

ROCKFORD REGISTER, Wednesday, May 15, 1895.
J. M. NUTTER, who passed to spirit life from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mirza Weller, in Cannon, Kent County, Michigan, on the 6th day of May, 1895, was born in Livingston County, New York, January 10, 1816, and therefore his age was 79 years, 3 months and 23 days. He was married to Miss Matilda Chamberlin, December 3, 1840, residing in Allegany County, New York, till October 1849, when he removed to Michigan, settling on a farm in plain sight of the home where he died, which farm he sold some 11 years ago, and came to live in Rockford, residing here till the death of his wife, which occurred four years ago this present month. Since that time he has lived at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Weller. Tearfully his daughter rendered this tribute to his cheerful, kindly nature: "My father was so good. He never spoke a cross word to me in his life." Blessed memory! His funeral was held from the house where he died on the 8th, largely attended by the sons and daughters of his old compatriots, for of those who opened up homes with him around the shores of the beautiful Bostwick Lake, only four remain to mingle their tears with his one brother, one son and two daughters, the only survivors of his own and his father's families. By his request, Mrs. M. J. Kutz pronounced the funeral address and read the following poem as part of the services.

Dear people, in the silence,
in the hush and awe of death,
we stand by this shattered casket,
devoid of pulse or breath,
and remember loving tribute to the father, brother, friend who has passed the earthly tenure to a life that hath no end.
With weak and trembling fingers
we gather up each thread.
In memory of his living,
and in honor of the dead
turning back in retrospection, unto all the many years
his path law through the earthland with its sunshine and its tears.

We read the glowing manual
a jot with word and act that makes his life a memory and yet a living fact.
And one by one those pages revealed to memory's eye
our spirits hands are folding and laying reverently.
For the last line is written,
the last farewell is said and he, whom men called living they now are writing dead.
Just a little way out yonder
over 40 years agone,
he lifted up a roof-tree
and reared a settler's home and his feet trod worn and weary the pathway of the plow over the red Mans narrow trailing where the broad roads widen now.
And his hands those times were busy,
and the wild woods feel apart with the saw and hammer helping,
where improvement gained a start.
For the beauty and the gladness,
of the church, the school, the farm,
are the outcome of his labor and the strength of his right arm.
In connection with the many in those golden days of yore when the people stuck together for the blessings now galore.
But one by one they all grew weary,
with the toiling and the strife,
folded pale cold hands and left us for the new and untried life.
But his toil for years has ended, and his feet have slowly pressed toward the portals that are opening on the manors of the blest, and the story of his passing all his journey by the way, and his trust in the revealing of the Grand Eternal Day.
You all know, how he lingered,
cheerful by the tending shore,

It is noteworthy that other non-land-owning Nutters also in the north section of Portsmouth, 1793, were Charles, William and Luke Nutter (Portsmouth TR, 19:542, 589, 632). Daniel Nutter was still in Portsmouth in 1794 but was not taxed there in 1795. He was in Newington 1800 and 1810 when he had 2 boys under 10 and 1 girl under 10 in 1800. There is some suggestion that he might have been a son of John and Miriam (Nutter) Nutter. A Daniel Nutter also appears on the tax lists of Portsmouth in 1814 and 1815. Dudley Nutter named a son "Daniel."

She was the mother of 9 children. (only 3, two daughters and a son) survive to morn her loss. She has been a sufferer for many months, but at the last death came painlessly and peacefully she entered into rest. ROCKFORD REGISTER, Aug. 13, 1902
MR. J. CHAMPION NUTTER was born in Livingston Co., NY July 6, 1821 and died in St. Ignace Aug 7th 1902, at the home of his son Charles, with whom he had been living for the past two years. In 1842 he came to Wisconsin and after staying there one year he went to his old home in New York and married Miss Betsey Bullock, whom he brought back to his Wisconsin home. About seven years later they, with their little son Charles H., moved to Michigan and settled in Cannon. There three daughters, Alta A., Mary M. and Amy E., were added to the family. They then moved to Greenville, but scarce a year had passed before the mother sickened and died, leaving the care of the children to their relatives. In 1892 his second wife died, and since then he has made his home with his children. Besides a host of friends, he leaves to mourn his loss three sons and two daughters, his eldest daughter, Mrs. Alta Crandall, having died eleven years ago. The funeral was held in Greenville, and the body was laid to rest in the family lot at Fairplains. The numerous floral gifts showed the esteem in which he was held, and many old acquaintances came to pay their last tribute to one who was loved by all who knew him.

BOY HIT BY AUTO, DIES IN HOSPITAL FROM HIS INJURIES. Allan Nutter, 5 Years Old, 308 Adams St., Struck by Ionia Car, Allan Nutter, 5 year old son of Lance Nutter, 308 Adams Street, died early this afternoon at Mercy hospital following an automobile accident in which the lad was knocked to the roadbed by a machine driven by F. D. Lombard of Ionia.

The child was playing with a playmate along the curb of North Lansing Street when suddenly according to a witness, he ran out in front of the approaching machine. Mr. Lombard declared after the tragedy, that he anticipated the lads action and slowed his machine accordingly. It is understood that the machine merely hit the boy and was going so slow that the boy lay under the front axle when the machine stopped.

The driver immediately inquired for a hospital and directed by a truck driver was taken to Mercy Hospital where death followed. Mr. Lombard notified the police in person giving the account of the accident which was witnessed by the truck driver.

F. D. Lombard accompanied by his wife was passing through Jackson bound for their home in Ionia, where he operates a wood and coal yard at 113 W. Main Street. Inquest is being held this afternoon by Coroner Harry Mills. Funeral arrangements will be given later.

G. Obituary of Sarah Jane Ackerman, Daughter of Matthias Nutter of Newington, NH

Wednesday, April 5 1905, Newington, NH

This is a remarkable story of the Nutter family told in another column by Jackson M. Hoyt of Newington. Mrs. Akerman who has just died was a daughter of Matthias Nutter of that town who was born in 1734, nearly two hundred years before the death of his daughter. It is doubtful if there is a parallel to this case in the history of the country.

The death of Sarah Jane Ackerman which occurred March 23 in Dorchester, Mass. brings to mind many things worthy to be given space in your much read paper.

Mrs. Ackerman was the last survivor of her fathers numerous progeny, numbering twenty-one children. Twenty lived to reach mans estate and several attained an age remarkable for its longevity. Matthias Nutter, her father, was born in this town about 1734. He and a younger brother were baptized by the Rev. Joseph Adams Oct. 24, 1736. He served in one of the wars against the Indians and was a soldier in the Revolution. He was married three times and died March 4, 1818, leaving a widow with 6 small children, the youngest not more than a year old. The widow died in 1871 at the age of 95 years having been a widow a little over 53 years. Mr. Nutter's first wife was Martha Perkins who bore him eight children. Capt. George Nutter, whom T. B. Aldrich mentions in his "Story of a Bad Boy" was one of these eight. Capt. James Nutter, a well known carpenter and builder in Portsmouth 70 years ago was another, also Mrs. Joseph Warren Pickering, the grandmother of the Hon. Frank Warren Hackett of Washington, D.C.

Matthias Nutter's second wife was a Widow Trickey. This union resulted in an addition of six more branches to the family tree, Joseph, Mark, Joshua, Annie, Abigail and Harriet. Joseph died June 20, 1863 the day he was 70 years old. Mark died in 1883 at the age of 83 years.

The last marriage took place May 14, 1807 and the bride's name as recorded in the town clerk's book was Polly Folsom. Seven children was the result of this matrimonial venture, one dying in infancy, the other six were blessed with long lives overflowing with usefulness. William White Nutter who died in 1883, at the age of 75 years is remembered by many of our older people for his strict integrity, sound judgment and generosity. He was for many years employed as overseer of the Rollins farm on the line of the P. & D. railroad, now occupied by Dr. B. T. Prescott. Another brother, Alfred Nutter, a resident of Lowell, Mass. died a few years ago. The other children were Elizabeth, Lavina, Sarah J. and Olive. These last four when quite young left the old homestead and wended their way to Boston where they sought and found employment and were afterwards happily married to worthy husbands.

Mrs. Akerman is survived by three children, one son and two daughters George, Miss Lizzie and Mrs. Louise Allen. She was one of the few who in these later days could claim the distinction of being a real daughter of the Revolution.

Her age was 90 years and her remains were taken to Newburyport and buried by the side of her husband the late Benjamin Akerman.

The descendants of Matthias Nutter, as might be supposed are many and are scattered over this broad land. The children of Joseph and Mark settled in Wisconsin and California. James W. Nutter, a grandson of Capt. James Nutter, is an honored resident of Sac City, Iowa. He is 71 years old and has several grand children. His return to the Nutter homestead last August after an absence of 49 years, was an event of interest to us all. Mrs. George W. Young of Lakeport, still living at the age of 102 years is a grand daughter of Matthias Nutter and many others too numerous by far, to mention are living in New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

SAMUEL. Despite the settlement of Samuel and Eunice (Shorey) Nutter of Maine in Ossipee, NH by 1801 there is evidence from the 1790 census that another Samuel Nutter was living in Ossipee in that year. According to the 1790 census schedule there was a Samuel Nutter who was head of an Ossipee, NH household containing 1 adult male, 1 male under 16 and 2 females. He was enumerated as living near (possibly between) Jonathon Moody and Richard Peedburn. The household grouping is consistent with a couple married in 1784 and therefore could easily be that of Samuel and Mary (Huntress) Nutter who were married in Portsmouth 14 Aug 1784 (North Church Records). Yet, it would appear that Samuel and Mary stayed consistently in Portsmouth and could not have been the young couple who lived in Ossipee in 1790. The fact that he was living near a Moody may also be significant. Since in 1800 there is no Samuel Nutter in Ossipee, the settler moved on. Family tradition/records point to Richard Nutter of Ripley, ME being the son of a Samuel Nutter. Certainly the age of children in the 1790 Samuel Nutter family is right for a Richard Nutter born in 1785.
